WILSON PRAISES
LABOR PROGRAM

President Calls It One of the Most Important Achievements of the Day

Will Be Inserted in Peace Treaty—Safeguards and Promotes Labor

WASHINGTON, May 2.—President Wilson eulogized Secretary Tamm today that in his opinion, the labor program adopted as part of the treaty of peace, "constitutes one of the most important achievements of the new day in which the interests of labor are to be systematically and intelligently safeguarded and promoted."

Mr. Wilson said he personally regarded the labor program as one of the most gratifying achievements of the conference and believed no other single thing that had been done would help stabilize conditions of labor throughout the world, and ultimately "relieve the unhappy conditions which in too many places have prevailed."

JAIL RIOTERS

Police Guard Prisoners and Detectives on Alert at Court House

BOSTON, May 2.—Measures were taken by the police today to prevent a recurrence of the rioting in the Roxbury district when more than 100 men and women were arrested in connection with red flag demonstrations. The route over which the prisoners were transferred from the police stations to the court house were carefully guarded in anticipation of possible attempts at rescue. Every person who sought to enter the court house was subjected to the scrutiny of detectives who turned away hundreds. Agents of the department of justice were also active.

One of the prisoners said that he was William Sidis, who while at Harvard university attracted attention as the youngest student to receive a degree. He is a son of Dr. Boris Sidis a psychopathologist.

Five men had been arraigned, charged with "taking part in an affray" at noon. Two of the men, Ernest Greenberg of Watertown and Arnold Janeton of Arlington, were found guilty and sentenced to serve two months each in the house of correction. The others were discharged.

John and Charles Buchaw were given sentences of two months each for assault and Alex Berson, a three months' sentence on the same charge. Berson appealed and was held in $300 bonds for the superior court notwithstanding the protest of his attorney that the bail was too high. Ivan Kalnin and Fritz Herkowitz, pleaded not guilty to charges of rioting and were held in $2000 bonds each for a hearing May 6. The case against Edward C. Coxie, charged with assault, was fled.

Crack Overseas Artillery Company
Comes to Lowell to Aid in Big Victory Loan Drive

Battery of Huge Tractor Guns, Anti-Aircraft Pieces, Mortars and 150 Men Parade Through Downtown Streets—Many Decorated Men in Personnel, Including "Fighting Parson" With Eight Citations

With the parade of a crack coast artillery company recruited from the 42d and 44th overseas regiments and the presence of a long war exhibit train pulled up on the spur track in Dutton street, this is Lowell's feature day of the Victory Loan campaign. The coast artillery outfit, complete in every detail from a huge 155 millimeter gun down to a flock of carrier pigeons, reached Lowell at 5 o'clock this morning, and the 155 men and 14 officers of the company went at once to Edson hall for breakfast. The men were then marched to the Thordike street yards where the material was unloaded.

It was formerly planned to have the outfit park on the South common and give everyone an opportunity to go there to inspect it, but this morning it was thought that the common was too far removed from the centre of the city and the plans were changed so as to have the unit parade through the downtown streets just before the noon hour and park in John street, between Merrimack and Palace. The parade started from Thordike street at 11:30 o'clock, Lieut. Col. H. F. Spurnin in command.

No more business-like outfit has ever marched through the streets of Lowell. Every soldier in the command has seen service in France and many wear decorations given by the United States and other allied countries. Every truck, tractor and piece of equipment was camouflaged and behind each helmet, battle stained uniforms, gas masks and rifles—the real stuff without camouflage. The equipment includes the 155-millimeter long range gun of the famous Filloux type; the 240-millimeter trench mortar that hurled high explosive projectiles into the enemy trenches; the three-inch anti-aircraft gun, the kind whose streams of fire saved Paris from the hobo bombers, and the faithful 8-inch howitzer. The guns were followed by a huge 36-inch searchlight mounted on an F.W.D. truck and the next truck in line carried the power plant and behind this was a mobile machine shop, capable of repairing the guns at a moment's notice. A brightly camouflaged reconnaissance car carrying a complete field radio equipment, such as was used to receive wireless messages from aerial observers, was next, and this was followed by a specialists' school truck and a Red Cross ambulance.

Two agile 5-ton "baby" caterpillar tractors, decked in gala war paint, jazzed through the streets from sidewalk to sidewalk, their drivers spinning them around on a spot no larger than a dime and maneuvering them with a great deal of skill. The parade came to rest in John street and the officers soon had the field pieces broken down from the trucks and the entire company parked in no time. Hundreds of people watched the parade as it passed through Central and Merrimack streets, and completely filled John street, which was closed to all traffic by order of Mayor Thompson. The May State cars to Lawrence and Nashua were sent back through Bridge street instead of taking the loop.

The 40-piece band from Old Point Comfort played along the route and gave a concert at John and Merrimack streets during the noon hour. At 12:30 o'clock the men were again taken to Edson hall and given a splendid dinner. At 2 o'clock the band and part of the enlisted men marched to Dutton street and met the war exhibit train, bearing curios, souvenirs and every conceivable implement of war.

Noteworthy among the 14 officers of the artillery outfit are Capt. S. L. Holland and First Lieut. P. E. Bingman. Capt. Holland was detailed as an observer for the First Army staff and Continued on Page Seven

Serious Riots Throughout Country—Cleveland and Boston Disorders

NEW YORK, May 2.—A large quantity of explosives confiscated by police and federal agents at a house in West 45th street was examined at police headquarters today in connection with the investigation of the May day conspiracy to kill prominent men by sending bombs through the mails.

Federal and police officials were expected to make a roundup of "reds" here today, in connection with the investigation into the nation-wide May day conspiracy to kill prominent men with bombs addressed to them through the mails. Twenty-five bombs are known to have been dispatched. One exploded and the others were turned over to the authorities. It is assumed that the warnings sent broadcast render it improbable that any bombs which may still be in transit will accomplish their purpose.

It was reported here today that cablegrams had been sent to members of the peace delegation in Paris, warning against opening packages. It was declared, however, that nothing had been learned by investigators to indicate that any deadly contrivances had been sent abroad.

SERIOUS RIOTS
ON MAY DAY

NEW YORK, May 2.—Comparatively little bloodshed marked radical celebrations in the United States of international labor day.

The most serious rioting occurred in Cleveland where one man was killed and more than 100 persons, including 11 policemen, were injured.

Next in importance was a battle between the police and paraders in Boston.

The riot call was sounded in Chicago when radicals attempted to hold a parade which had been forbidden. Several persons were arrested, but there were no casualties.

Soldiers and sailors in this city broke up several meetings at which ultra-liberal sentiments were expressed, and also raided the offices of the Call, a socialist labor newspaper. They made no attempt to wreck the publishing plant, but destroyed a Continued on Page 17

Present Progress Indicates Treaty Ending Great War Will Be Signed in 2 Weeks

Will Be Presented to Germans Monday—Secret Plenary Session Tomorrow

(By the Associated Press.)
If the work of carrying out the last phase of the peace negotiations progresses according to schedule outlined in Paris despatches, the treaty ending the great war will probably be signed early in the week beginning May 25.

A Victor's Peace
The treaty will be presented to the Germans on Monday afternoon. Reports from the peace conference indicate that it is to be a "victors' peace" and there will be no oral conversations except the merest formalities when the treaty is handed over. Continued on Page Eleven

WAR'S EFFECT ON PLAY

Year Book Notes Increased

Demand For Opportunities For Use of Leisure Time

While the general effect of the war upon playgrounds is still an open question, there is no doubt that the war has been a factor in the importance of recreation centers, according to the 1918 Year Book of the Playground and Recreation Association of America just issued. The demand for opportunities to play after work hours is as widespread as it is increasing. There has been a marked increase during the year both in the centers for evening recreation and the attendance there.

Undoubtedly the fact that 35 per cent of the men in the first draft were rejected as physically unfit has made America realize how essential is up-building exercise and recreation under the guidance of trained leaders. The statistics collected after correspondence with 1700 cities indicate a healthy and steady progress in recreation work. The report of the association shows that more than 180 playgrounds were open the year round and evening recreation work was conducted in more than 500 schools of 101 cities. More than 5000 trained men and women were engaged in directing play at recreation centers throughout the country.

For colored children alone more than 150 playgrounds were maintained. Three hundred swimming pools, four hundred public baths and two hundred public bathing beaches were used by thousands of persons.

The effect of the war upon playgrounds and recreation is reported by 277 cities, 172 of which give the result as unfavorable. The decrease in attendance is attributed to the fact that many of the older children were working in factories. Moreover, it was hard to get trained, competent leaders because of the many men who went into the service of their country and of women who engaged in war work. In many cases, appropriations were cut down, playground funds were devoted to war garden activities and the playgrounds themselves were used by war agencies.

Recreation Work Stimulated

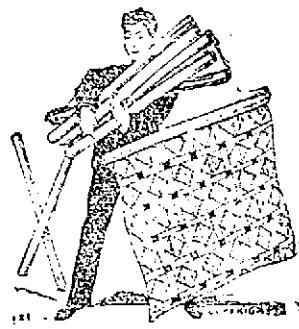

But 195 cities reported that the war so far from checking recreation work had stimulated it. The attendance of small children increased, as did that of their elders at the evening sessions. Appropriations were enhanced and more centers established. The number of cities initiating such work was smaller than in 1917, being reduced to 29, but these cities which continued the work called for a greater number of leaders to conduct their activities.

On the whole, the year of 1918 shows many gains. Everywhere community leaders and citizens participated in community singing, pageants and special community gatherings. Especially were they brought to realize what recreation, directed by trained leaders, meant to the men in uniform. This realization has given momentum to the recreational movement all over the United States.

The association reports that complete returns from 394 cities show that they maintained 3371 playgrounds and neighborhood centers under paid leadership. In 251 of these cities the work was administered wholly or in part by some department of a municipality; that is, 70.5 per cent of the total and an increase of 10 per cent over 1917. In addition to municipalities, centers were maintained by Playground and Recreation associations and leagues, civic clubs and associations, improvement clubs, Parent-Teacher associations and Home School leagues, the Y.M.C.A., and

OVERCHARGING TAXES

Complaints of Retailers Charging More Than Tax on So-Called Luxuries

WASHINGTON, May 2.—Complaints have begun to reach the internal revenue bureau of retailers charging more than the actual tax on so-called luxuries, such as expensive articles of clothing and other personal equipment, although the new taxes went into effect only yesterday.

Reports so far indicate that most cases of overcharging were accidental. Officials were prompted, however, to issue a reminder that overcharging a tax might render the dealer or clerk liable to a fine of $1000 and a year's imprisonment.

AMUSEMENT NOTES

Below is what the press agents of the different theatres say of the current attractions and of others to come.

B. F. KEITH'S THEATRE

Elsie Mains, the syncopating singer, who is at the B. F. Keith Theatre, this week, never had to work harder in her life than she is now doing, to keep up to the rapid tempo set by her Black and White Boys. The five boys, who make up an excellent jazz orchestra, certainly hit a very rapid pace, which Miss Mains equals, but which she admits she can't beat. The act has many novel features to it. Harry Hines, the joy boy, otherwise known as the 5th variety, keeps his audience in good humor all of the time, and Joe Morris and Flossie Campbell in "Art-a-her" serve a true knockout with their fun. A near bicycle act is that of Fred St. Onge, and May Ritchie. It is off the beaten track, somewhat. Ross West and Co., featuring Little Tony, the Australian midwest; Manning & Lee, in song and dance; and the Leroy Sisters, dancers, complete the week's list of acts.

THE STRAND

Look over the bill at The Strand and compare it with any of the other offerings for the week end, and if you don't select Newark's biggest and best theatre as your object of the week end, you are a Tom Mix fan, his latest, called "Fighting For Gold," and charming Midge Kennedy in "Daughter of Mine," are the two big

FIGHT FOR FREEDOM

Lowell Boy, 19 Years Old, Faces Murder Charge in State of Maine

HOULTON, Me., May 2.—Alexander J. Bordelieu, alias Alex. Mornn, the 19-year-old Lowell, Mass., lad charged with the murder of Moses Tozier, is again making a fight for his freedom. Promptly at 9:10 a. m. yesterday he was escorted from the Ames court house jail to the court room. The crime with which he is charged was committed Nov. 16, 1917, at Hiram, about 40 miles south of Houlton. The young man at the time was less than 18 years of age. He had been employed by Moses Tozier during the potato digging season, coming to Aroostook county from Lowell, Mass. Mr. Tozier was about 60 years of age, a bachelor living part of the time alone and some of his time with a niece who resided a short distance from the Tozier home. Nov. 15 the respondent left for Houlton.

POLICE COURT NEWS

Quick Recovery by Patrolman Swanwick of Automobile Stolen by Soldier

Recovering a stolen auto before the owner knew that it was missing was the stunt which Patrolman Swanwick turned in last evening, and the case of the stolen car and a VD boy from Colorado, who is alleged to have taken it, occupied the major portion of today's police court session.

Frank Pinson, the defendant, who was charged with larceny of a Chevrolet automobile valued at $700, the property of Dr. Samuel Horne, and also with operating a machine without a license, told the court that he met another soldier outside of the Strand building late yesterday afternoon, and that the other man, who was pretty well "lit up," asked him to drive the car around a bit and meet him later on, as he himself was too drunk to operate it.

Officer Swanwick was then called and testified that shortly after 5 o'clock he was on traffic duty at Merrimack square when Pinson came tearing in from Central street in the car. He nearly knocked the officer down as he went by and refused to stop when signalled. The officer decided that the speeding car would bear investigation and accordingly jumped on the running board of a passing machine and requested full speed ahead up Merrimack street after the other car.

He caught up with Pinson as the latter was turning into Dummer street, and placed him under arrest. Shortly after the pair arrived at the station Dr. Horne phoned that his car had been stolen from in front of the Strand and was informed by the superintendent that thanks to the quick work of the officer his machine was waiting for him in front of the station.

Pinson was found guilty on both complaints, and the case was continued until Tuesday in order to get in touch with the camp authorities. Bail was set at $200.

Juvenile Session

A comparatively small number of youthful offenders were present in the juvenile session, and in most cases were placed on probation with the understanding that restitution would be made for damage committed. Joseph B. Kane, who was found guilty of breaking, entering and larceny, was given a direct sentence to the industrial school at Shirley.

LAWRENCE MILLS MAY GRANT INCREASE

LAWRENCE, May 2.—Local textile plants will, it is understood, announce a ten per cent. increase in wages to all their operatives effective next Monday or on the Monday following. The mills have not officially announced the increase yet, but it was learned Thursday from a reliable source that the announcement will be forthcoming shortly. Approximately 25,000 textile workers now engaged at the plants will benefit by the wage increase while many who are out because of the strike will, in all probability, return to the places formerly held by them, after the increase is granted. Just what effect the wage increase will have on the present strike remains to be seen but it is almost certain that many of the strikers will welcome the opportunity to go back to work.

May Day Observed

The International Socialist Labor day was observed Thursday in this city and several thousand local strikers and strike sympathizers took part in it. Everyone who took part in the observance wore red in some form or other, red flowers, red neckties, red waists and red ribbons.

What had all the appearances of an effort to parade the streets during the afternoon hour was prevented by the police under the leadership of Marshal O'Brien and the patient efforts on the part of the police was the only thing that saved what might have developed into serious trouble.

Large crowds came down Lawrence street just after 12 o'clock when meetings in Lexington hall and a church on Elm street near Lawrence street broke up. The crowds went along Lawrence street toward Essex street, but were blocked by mounted officers at the corner of Haverhill street. They were ordered to turn off into Haverhill st. in both directions, some going toward Amesbury street and some toward Jackson street.

MINSTREL SHOW.

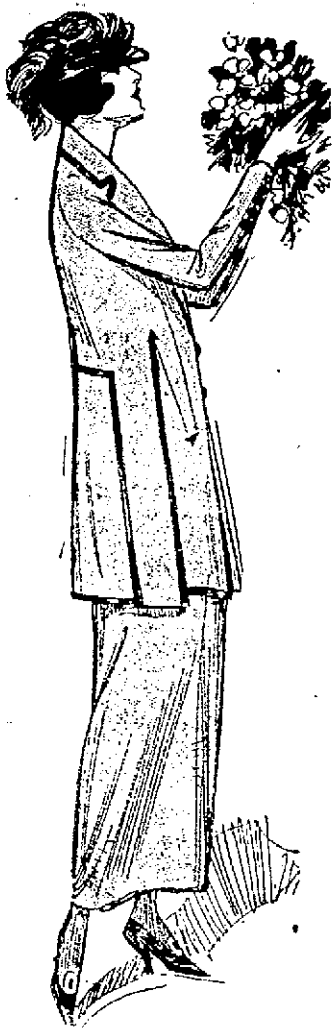

BY THE ZOO CLUB

The minstrel show which the Zoo club members will stage at the Lowell Opera House Sunday evening promises to be one of the most enjoyable events of the present season, and all the "animals" will be seen at their best. A benefit is to be given from the proceeds to the local branch of the Salvation Army, and if one is to judge from the heavy advance sale of seats so far recorded, the local organization will receive a splendid boost at the close of the show.

All kinds of surprises and novelties are in store for those who witness Sunday evening's performance, and Di-

Easy Way to Remove Freckles and Blistches

Some women have skin of such texture they occasionally are annoyed by the sudden appearance of freckles, slight eruptions or blotches. In such cases if one will procure an ounce of ordinary mercerized wax at any drug store, apply a little of it before retiring, like cold cream, she can easily overcome the trouble. When the wax is washed off next morning, minute freckles, blotches, or eruptions will have disappeared. The entire outer cuticle is removed in this way in a week or so, with all its defects. No bleach could so effectively remove freckles or blotches. The new surface is smooth, clear, fresh-looking. No pain or inconvenience accompanying this simple treatment.—Adv.

rector Glassmire of the Emerson All Star Players, who has had charge of the rehearsals, promises that the show will be one of the best given by any amateur organization in Lowell this season.

Among the entertainers who will have a part in the show are the ever reliable and always enjoyable Honey Roy quartet, the O'Reilly family and their now famous jazz band, Madeline Roland, Alec Beaumier, Edward Donahue, James Deegan, William McGrail, Professor Kehoe, Nana Gallagher Leach, Florence Saxon, Alice Glenister, Augustine J. Glassmire and, of course, Jane Salisbury and Julian Noa, the popular leading woman and man of the Emerson company. The interlocutor will be Thomas Costello, president of the club.

SACRED CONCERT SUNDAY EVENING

In order to replenish the fund so commendably inaugurated to establish a scholarship at Boston college, the St. Patrick's Academy Alumni association will conduct a big sacred concert next Sunday evening. In years gone by this organization has conducted many events that have enlisted the co-operation of the public, who feel that the cause of higher education receives a healthy stimulus by lending encouragement to such projects. On Sunday 14 of the city's best soloists will assist in the program and a powerful chorus of 80 voices will materially swell the pleasure of the affair. Charles P. Miner will be musical director and the officers of the alumni, aided by an enthusiastic committee, are in charge of the plans. The price of the tickets will be but 25 cents.

EX-CONG. HINDS DEAD

PORTLAND, Me., May 2.—Former Congressman Asher C. Hinds died last night at Washington.

3224 KILLED BY MOBS IN U. S. IN LAST 30 YEARS

NEW YORK, May 2.—In the last 30 years 3224 persons have been put to death in the United States by mobs, according to a report made public today by the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People. From 1889 through 1918, the north has had 219 victims, the south 2831; the west 156 and Alaska and other localities 15.

"Georgia leads in the list with 386 victims," says the report, "followed closely by Mississippi with 373 victims, Texas with 325; Louisiana with 212; Alabama with 206; Arkansas with 212; Tennessee with 196; Florida with 178 and Kentucky with 169.

"Fifty colored women with 11 white women were lynched in 14 states. Thirteen of the 14 states in which women 141 victims to mobs were southern states, Nebraska being the only state outside the south which lynched women.

"Despite President Wilson's earnest appeal, made under such extraordinary circumstances, lynchings continued during the remaining period of the war with unabated fury. Sixty-three negroes, five of them women and four white men fell victims to mob ruthlessness during 1918, and in no case was any number of the mobs convicted in any court and in only two instances were trials held. In both of these instances were trials held. In both of these instances the mob members were acquitted.

"It is apparent that lynchings of negroes for other causes than the so-called 'one crime,' have for the whole period been a large majority of all lynchings and that for the past five years, less than one in five of the colored victims have been accused of rape or attacks upon women."

WELCOME BOYS OF 101ST

May 28 Date Set For Banquet and Welcome Home Party to Lowell Boys

May 28 is the official date set for a big banquet and welcome home party to the boys of the 101st Regiment who have returned from Lowell, according to a decision reached at a meeting of the 101st Auxiliary last evening. Mrs. William H. Merritt, the chairman, presided. Where the banquet is to be held has not yet been decided, but the state armory in Westford street seems to be most prominently available.

Some of the boys from the 101st who returned to their homes in the Spinnaker City this week after many months of hardening the line did not bring with them enough coin of the realm to buy a city block—in fact, many of them came home if not entirely broke, at least badly bent. Which set the ladies of the 101st Auxiliary to thinking. Now when these energetic and efficient ladies start to use their gray matter overtime, things are due to happen, which accounts for the trip which the members of the auxiliary made to Boston yesterday where they told their story to the state ladies auxiliary board of the 101st. "The boys who fought and won must have clothes," insisted the ladies from Lowell, emphatically, and the Hub officials agreed that they must, and promptly awarded a contract to the Merrima Clothing Co. to supply the boys with proper pajamas, while they stood behind with the necessary funds. More power to you, ladies!

CONCERT AT SACRED HEART CHURCH

In a program embracing some of the most classic and beautiful numbers of all history, the choir of the Sacred Heart church, assisted by talented soloists from all over the city, will give a grand sacred concert next Sunday evening at the Sacred Heart church, Moore street, beginning at 8 o'clock. Such soloists as Miss Frances Tighe, soprano; Miss Harriet Moran, soprano; William Gookin, baritone; James S. King, tenor; and Andrew A. McCarthy, baritone, together with the famous Sacred Heart quartet, will be heard in a number of the products of modern musical masters and which have come down through the ages as the supreme court to listen to the testimony and crystallizations of musical genius. To testify in the case of the teacher of the school, Mrs. Alice Lackey, who is being sued for damages of $1500 by William E. Sharon, father of Chester Sharon, a pupil of Mrs. Lackey's school, who is alleged to have been beaten up by the teacher on Dec. 2 last. It developed from testimony that there had been ill feeling between the Lackeys and the Sharons for a long time.

TEACHER ON TRIAL

can hitting him over the head with a book.

Witnesses for the plaintiff testified that Mrs. Lackey struck young Sharon over the head several times with a heavy ruler and that the boy was further woman-handled in the hall, although none of the witnesses saw this part of the affair. Sharon testified that he was choked and kicked and told that he had been doing nothing to warrant the punishment, hostilities being started by the teacher, who was fright and the customary gasping for breath and frequent swallowing. The boy's mother testified that he was in a terrible condition as a result of his thrashing. The defense will introduce more testimony today.

BOSTON'S INCOME HAS DROPPED OVER MILLION

BOSTON, May 2.—Boston's income for the year has already shrunk $1,131,969.46 from that of the same period of last year, and City Collector Frank S. Deland and other officials are bestirring themselves to fill up this big fiscal gap from sources other than liquor license fees, upon which the loss rests.

At the request of Mayor Peters, Mr. Deland has carried on a drive among city employees for the payment of the $2 poll tax, and last night it was said that about 200 of the workers in various departments had not yet "come across," although the end of the specified time for payments approaches. The plan is to "post" employees in their respective departments who do not pay.

While all other licenses are permitted to pay for their liquor licenses by the month in advance for the last two months in which licenses will be issued, hotel men, enjoying the midnight liquor license, are required to pay the full year's fee, $500. Saloon-keepers paid $100 yesterday, instead of the $1200 yearly fee, and will pay another $100 on June 1.

Junholders paid $210 as a monthly fee, while second-class licenses cost $10, third class $120, fourth class $40 and fifth class, brewers, $175. Clubs paid $10 for one month, in place of the customary $480 annual fee.

All the brewers have taken out licenses as usual, pending the adjustment of the dispute over 2.75 percent beer. There is a feeling among the liquor dealers that by July 1 the legal status of this light beer will have been decided in favor of a continuance of its sale, and they expect to get enough of it to keep doing business.

Madame Lucilla Serrao, woman sculptor, with the bust of a soldier she has designed for a war memorial.

ARTIST SAYS THAT WOMEN DESIGN THE BEST WAR MEMORIALS, AND SHE KNOWS

(N.E.A. Special to The Sun)
CLEVELAND, O., May—Why should not the women artists of the nation be recognized when our cities begin to design and erect their war memorials? This point has been raised by one of the most successful of America's women sculptors, Mme. Lucilla Serrao, a Cleveland artist of international reputation.

Mme. Serrao's suggestion was made in the course of an interview endorsing the movement set on foot by the American Commission of Fine Arts, the American Civic association, and other organizations which are working for the recognition of true art principles in the erection of war monuments. "Our Civil War monuments," said Mme. Serrao, "were in many cases little better than elaborations of the tombstone school of sculpture with the addition of a few pyramids of cannon balls. Today the public has come to appreciate art much more keenly, and it is the duty of the municipalities which are planning memorials to the boys who fought in this war to lead instead of following public taste.

"A scheme has already been inaugurated in some art circles by which the women of the country—as the mothers of the race, most poignantly affected by war's horrors—would be chosen to design some of the war memorials. This would include memorial building plans by women architects, and monumental figures modeled by women sculptors.

"There is a touch about the work of women, delicate, tense, poignant and sympathetic, which would help them to put into their memorial designs a depth of emotion and tenderness of appeal that would make our war mon-

A Single Remedy Often Cures Many Diseases

BY VALENTINE MOTT, M.D.

It is almost impossible to give a list of the endless diseases that follow in digestion. Perhaps a whole column in this newspaper would be required to print them all. You eat to keep alive—to supply blood and flesh and bone and muscle and brain. It is easy to see that if your food is not digested, and taken up by the delicate organs and distributed where it is needed, a disease of some sort is sure to come. Dyspepsia is a common symptom, and so are liver complaints, loss of flesh, nervousness, bad memory, dizziness, sleeplessness, no appetite. Many times when neglected, indigestion results in coughs, throat diseases, catarrh, bronchitis and even more dangerous things. And all these disorders arise because the food is not properly digested in the stomach. It is plain even to a child that relief and cure are to be had only by setting up a healthy condition in the stomach. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery makes an amazing total of thousands.

I know of no advice better than this: Begin a home treatment today with this good vegetable medicine. It will show you better than I can tell you what it will do. When taking Golden Medical Discovery, you can rest assured of one very important thing—it contains neither alcohol nor opiates. There is nothing in it but standard foods and herbs that possess curative properties of a high order. A safe medicine is the only kind you can afford to take.—Adv.

ments really worthy of the magnificent sacrifices of the men who fell, and truly representative of the high ideals for which they fought."

Mme. Serrao, an American-born woman, is the widow of Andrea Serrao, famous Italian art critic. For years her work in her beautiful studio in Rome attracted world-wide attention. Following her husband's death, she returned to her native land. Among her more widely known portrait busts are the one which she made of Mark Twain—the last for which he ever sat—and the only bust ever made of Mary Baker Eddy, founder of Christian Science.

Mme. Serrao is already engaged in designing a number of war memorials for different cities.

ARE SCHOOL TEACHERS AS VALUABLE AS SCRUB-WOMEN? MONEY TALKS!

BY MARGUERITE EDWARDS

What is a school teacher worth to the community?

Worth as much as a scrub woman, a laundress, a ditch digger?

Money talks, they say—and if it's true, money says the teacher is not! School teachers themselves have been saying mildly, and sadly for years that they were underpaid, that they could barely live on their salaries. But they kept on living and teaching, and guiding and loving our children—so nobody paid any attention.

Now, suddenly, a great many persons are beginning to pay attention for the school teachers are quitting work. They are turning to other professions. The normal schools which train teachers have few to train. Those now in the profession who can leave it are leaving, and no new teachers take their places. To meet the war emergency the government itself issued pleas for more teachers, accepted part time teachers, even urged married women to give some of their time to teaching. All to no avail. A sane woman will not accept an ill-paid job when she can get a better job at more salary.

Just what is the salary situation

Boy, While Handcuffed,
Jumped From Train and
Was Badly Injured

HAVERHILL, May 2.—Edward E. Baker, who the police say, has confessed to 20 burglaries in this state and claims to have escaped from a Connecticut reformatory, was held for the grand jury today on charges of breaking and entering railroad stations at Haverhill and North Andover. He was taken to court, full of blood, arms and neck to close up wounds received when he jumped from a train while being brought here from Boston yesterday where he had been arrested.

Although handcuffed, he dove through a window while the train was traveling 15 miles an hour between Haverhill and North Andover. Some hours later he was found in the woods exhausted and badly injured. Baker told the police that he was 18 years of age and that his home was in Stratford, Conn.

GOOD PRICES FOR OLD BUILDINGS

John H. Welton, of 223 Parker street bought the two-story buildings on the parcels of land taken over by the city for an addition to the Mayo school at the public auction conducted yesterday afternoon by St.

mon B. Harris at the direction of Commissioner George E. Marchand of the public property department. For the two-story dwelling, stables and carriage house at 463 Wilder street, formerly owned by Rose Inglish, Mr. Welton paid $1025 and for the carriage, stable carriage house and workshop at 475 and 477 Wilder street, formerly owned by Elizabeth Gardner, he paid $800.

Mr. Welton plans to move the buildings to Highland avenue. The foundations of the buildings were not included in the sale, merely the buildings and furnaces. The understanding is that the present tenants shall vacate the buildings on or before June 1 and that the buildings be moved within 10 days after that date.

There was a large crowd present at the auction and the bidding was of a fast and snappy nature. Mr. Welton's chief competitor was Easel Greenberg.

ALBANY, N. Y., May 2.—The only local newspaper published in Albany today was the Bulletin, a single typewritten sheet, issued by the Victory loan committee, and distributed by letter carriers. The composing rooms of the regular papers, both morning and afternoon, were still tied up by a strike of printers who left their machines at midnight Wednesday. The Bulletin had a little local news, but dealt largely with the loan.

Mr. G. Scott, president of the International Typographical Union, was expected from Chicago.

RECRUITING FOR ARMY'S TANK CORPS

The tanks are coming—again! Lowell people were much interested in the whippet tank that pounded through this city's streets last Saturday afternoon and many who did not see the giant expressed regret at having lost the opportunity.

However, the United States army recruiting office will endeavor to allay their sorrow to some extent by having the big fellow that was here last week in the interest of the Victory loan make a return trip in the interest of recruiting for the army's tank corps.

Announcement was made at the local army station today that one of the whippet tanks which has been touring New England in the interest of the loan would come to Lowell some time during the week of May 12, the exact date to be decided later.

The tank corps requires skilled and unskilled men and is a very attractive branch of the service. The proportion of non-commissioned officers to privates is greater in this than any other branch, thus affording excellent opportunities for promotion. The corps is located at Camp Mead, Md., and men without mechanical experience will be trained in the tank corps training school there where complete courses in various trades are given.

NEW ENGLAND'S LOAN

TOTAL $158,259,000.

BOSTON, May 2.—New England's Victory loan total stood today at $158,259,000. This was an overnight gain of but $12,965,000, less than half the daily average necessary to enable the district to obtain its quota of $277,000,000 before the close of the campaign. Loan workers declared the situation was serious and called for extra effort to bring home to the people the necessity of answering the appeal.

Nearly half of the total for yesterday came from Massachusetts, which contributed $6,211,000. Figures for the other states were: Rhode Island, $2,828,000; Connecticut, $2,079,000; Vermont, $942,000; New Hampshire, $650,000; Maine, $248,000.

The total of individual subscribers was reported at 150,719, of which 20,412 was represented by subscriptions yesterday.

New York Subscriptions
NEW YORK, May 2.—Victory note subscriptions in this district took an overnight jump of $31,462,300, according to compilations up to 10 a. m. today, being one of the best gains made so far in the campaign. The additional subscriptions brought the total up to $22,781,050.

WELDONA HELPED HER IN A WEEK

Mrs. Brown, a Suffering Woman, Who Talks For Publication.

Yesterday was the banner day for Mr. Vincent, the Weldon man who is meeting the public at a local drug store. Lowell people and many from out of town are glad to hear from what the medicine has done for them. Among those who came to talk for publication was Mrs. W. G. Brown of 23 Greenfield street. Haverhill, she said: "I thought this medicine was like all the rest of the medicine remedies advertised. I suffered for four years the tortures of rheumatism, neuralgia and rheumatic neuritis. The pain in my hip and back was terrible and for 11 weeks I was confined to a chair, unable to get up or to move. I tried every doctor, but nothing helped. I thought I would never move from the chair, but I would not give up. I tried the medicine and in a few days the pain was gone. I was able to get up and move. I am telling all my friends about Weldon and would not be without this valuable medicine for anything. I really cannot praise it too highly."

The Weldon man will continue to give out the booklet "Terms of Rheumatism" and explain more about Weldon every day and evening at Dan's drug store. He says every sufferer should get a free copy of this wonderful little book while the supply lasts. They are free—Adv.

WARM FOUND GUILTY

slaughter For Second Time

—Girl Murdered

ST. ALBANS, Vt., May 2.—Robert Warm, a former soldier, on trial for the murder of Jennie Hemmingway in August, 1917, was found guilty of manslaughter for the second time today. The jury was out 18 hours.

Warm was convicted of manslaughter in September, 1917, and was sentenced to a term of 10 to 11 years in state prison but a retrial was ordered on the ground of misconduct of a juror. The second trial lasted nine days. Sentence was deferred to permit counsel for the defense to file a motion for arrest of judgment.

The body of the girl was found in a cornfield after an all-night search. Warm, who had been her companion, was arrested. The defense was based on Warm's story, that he was attacked by other soldiers while walking with the girl and ran away. Later when it was reported that she had failed to return home, he joined the searching party.

KING FERDINAND TO MARCH INTO BUDAPEST

VIENNA, May 2.—King Ferdinand of Roumania, accompanied by French generals, is about to enter Budapest at the head of his troops, a Bucharest despatch to the Neue Presse says.

GREAT DAYS THESE FOR LOCAL ANGLERS

Trout fishing in the streams of Lowell and vicinity is on in full swing and it is reported that since the season opened April 15, many good catches have been made. It is a common occurrence to see boys, young men and old men whipping the brooks.

Trout fishing is considered a healthy and very enjoyable sport, for it provides great exercise in the open air and considerable enjoyment, while at the same time if one has any luck, a most palatable dish is the result of his day's work.

Anglers are very numerous this year and the increase in the number of fishermen is due greatly to the activity of the Lowell Fish and Game association in stocking brooks, ponds and lakes with various species of fish. Practically every brook, pond and lake in Lowell and surrounding towns including Tewksbury, Dracut, Westford, Chelmsford, Tyngsboro, Acton and other places have been stocked with white, yellow and pike perch, rainbow and square tail trout and other species of fish, which afford great sport for the angler.

In many instances fries have been planted, but this has not proven successful, for it is claimed that about only 10 per cent. of the fries are hatched out, the other 90 per cent. serving as food for fishes, so that the Lowell Fish and Game association then got busy stocking the streams with fingerlings and the result has been very gratifying.

According to the law the trout season opens April 15 and closes Aug. 1, and no brook trout measuring less than six inches can be legally caught in Massachusetts, while five inches is the limit in New Hampshire waters. This law also applies to lake trout, but, according to many sportsmen, it is out of the ordinary to catch a lake trout measuring less than 10 inches. It may be well right here to remind the anglers that no resident of Massachusetts can fish in New Hampshire waters without first providing himself with a license, which is issued for one dollar. It may be wise for those who wish to try their luck at Long pond to get a New Hampshire license, for the pond takes in both Massachusetts and New Hampshire, and unless one is well acquainted with the premises, he does not know whether he is fishing in this state or in the Granite state and a fish warden is liable at any minute to "shine" his badge.

Many good catches have been made at Long pond this year, according to reports, and Chief of Police William Cullinan of Dracut is responsible for the statement that very recently a resident of the town, who was fishing for hornpouts in the evening, landed two steel head trout that weighed no less than a pound and a half each. Of course this was an accidental catch, but at the same time it is a reminder that trout is plentiful at Long pond. Extra good catches of hornpouts have also been made at that pond.

Luke Mascuppie at Lakeview was stocked with pike perch a few years ago and it is believed that this species of fish must now weigh between two and four pounds. It is a most delectable fish, even better than the white perch, so it is claimed, and should prove an attraction for the sportsmen.

The various ponds in Westford, which includes Forge Village and Graniteville, have also been stocked and this year should prove a banner one for the fishermen. All the brooks in the surrounding towns have been planted with trout of the rainbow variety, and it is said that Black brook is one of the favorite fishing grounds for the rainbow trout. Beaver brook, beyond Dracut, is also an excellent place for fishing, but Assistant City Clerk William F. McCarthy, says that because the brooks and ponds have been stocked with thousands of fish, one must not believe that all he has to do is to go along a stream, cast his line and pull in a nice fat trout, for this is not so. One may travel for hours and cover a large area before he is fortunate to land one trout, for the trout travels and travels fast. This, however, is about the best time of the season for trout fishing.

was decorated with a Distinguished Service Cross, bearing the words, "For Valor," when he made many perilous dashes behind and parallel to the German lines seeking out Prussian guard locations who were concentrated for a counter attack. As a result of his observations and subsequent reports the enemy's plan was frustrated.

A Croix de Guerre with palms and star, indicating eight citations for bravery is worn by Lieut. Bingham, "the fighting parson." Sent overseas as a chaplain, he was over the top and under fire with the doughboys in Cantigny on the fourth day he was in France. He was assigned to the line as a platoon leader, company commander after the captain was killed at Soissons; wounded seven times; twice at Verdun, once in the Argonne, and four times in other sectors, captured when his raiding party armed only with handbells was overpowered by a German patrol with machine guns; escaped by killing his guard with the German's own bayonet—that is part of the war record of this crack-artillery company. He was in the thick of the fighting at Soissons, at Verdun, in the Argonne, St. Mihiel and in the Trent sector, and is one of the officers of this doughboy company of crack artillery shell brands.

Three colored men of the outfit wear the Croix de Guerre. Sergeant Roy Thibault was decorated for coolness and bravery under fire when he stuck to his post through intense high explosive and gas and gave the gas alarm in time to save his entire battery. Private Alvin Edwards got the cross for sticking at his post for eight hours, although wounded in the shoulder and one hand by shrapnel. Private Fred W. Jubb received the cross for staying in an extremely dangerous position even after being ordered out by an officer. He was in charge of the battery's aiming lights. The man who fired the first big shell of the American heavy artillery in France, Sergeant Joseph Hruska, also is with the outfit.

In addition to Col. Spargen, the following officers are with the battery: Lt. Col. R. D. Hall, Maj. Eugene Villard, Maj. H. S. Harrison, Major M. R. Payne, Major Tucker, Captain, Major C. A. Messervy, Major C. C. Alkin, Capt. S. L. Holland, Capt. S. W. Landon, Jr., Capt. E. A. Willis, First Lieut. P. E. Bingham, First Lieut. M. A. Stoddard and Second Lieut. C. E. Moore.

At 1.30 o'clock this afternoon the outfit was again on the march and finished its previous march-out parade route, starting from John street the battery passed through Paige street to Bridge, to Fifth, to Read, to Sixth, to Bridge to Merrimack as far as Monument square. Hundreds of people lined the streets and cheered the boys as they rumbled by.

The band will take part in the big outdoor mass meeting to be held in front of city hall tonight at 8 o'clock, when prominent Victory loan speakers will address the crowd and the searchlight of the artillery train will

quired to work 10 hours in a 11-hour day. An executive of the Lowell branch stated to The Sun today that it was expected that very shortly an order would be received here from Washington ordering that the 8-hour day be inaugurated. He said the time of receiving it was uncertain. It might be received tomorrow or might be delayed for two weeks.

The Boston report has it that the change will be made in the suburban express offices as rapidly as additional help can be hired and trained. Here in Lowell it was stated that the express company workers had completed all necessary plans for forming themselves into a union. It was stated that, differently from the attitude taken by Postmaster General Burleson in regard to telephone and other workers under his jurisdiction, Walter Hines, head of the express service in the United States, is in sympathy and approves the forming of unions among express workers and also stands for the 8-hour working day.

BOYLE "COMES BACK"

Boxed Like Champion and Won Decision Over Sensational Louisiana

Phinney Boyle of Lowell won a great victory over Louisiana, the southern sensation, before a large crowd at the Crescent A.A. last night. Boyle was in rare form and he gave one of the best exhibitions of his career. He was careful at all times, perfect on distance and his hitting, footwork and all round ring generalship brought him a well earned decision, after 12 fast and furious rounds. Boyle had to be in good form for the bout from below the line was a "tough baby" who carried a heavy wall in both hands and ducked and stepped around in whirlwind fashion. When right Boyle has few seniors at long range boxing. This is where he shines, and when he sticks to this style, he's a hard man to beat. He was there last night, leading and crossing like a machine, cutting out all time, but not too much so to grow up the battling. In fact Louisiana was such a game boy, and such a "head" a very surprising element that there was not a dull moment during the entire 12 rounds. Boyle had nine of the 12 rounds showing his best form in the third, fourth and last sessions. His victory comes at a most opportune time and a verdict over such a formidable opponent as Louisiana places him up at the top again. His many friends were elated over his "comeback" and gave him a great hand as he left the ring.

PHINNEY BOYLE

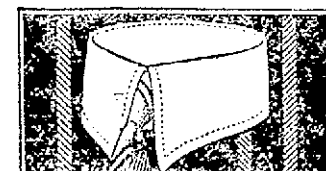

Tommy Doyle, of Lowell, who had not been seen in a local ring for several seasons, as he only recently was discharged from Uncle Sam's service, met Fred Williams of Boston in the semi-final of eight rounds. Doyle got away to a poor start but in the final stages came back strong and performed in old time form. Williams proved a very steady opponent, a fast boxer and a good hitter. He led at the outset but Boyle's strong finish wiped out his advantage and a draw decision proved very popular with the fans. In the first bout, Joe Armstrong won over Jack Fallon of Lawrence on a foul in the first round. Fallon hit Armstrong after knocking him down, and the referee gave Armstrong the decision accordingly. The second bout brought together Eddie Mansfield of Lowell and Young Drew of Lawrence. Action was fast, but brief. Drew put Mansfield out in the first round. It was announced that Harry Carlson, who had challenged the winner of the Boyle-Louisiana bout, will appear here against Boyle on next Thursday night. The scheduled next week will be between Billy Woods of Manchester and Willie Roberts of the Radio School.

A BARREN FIELD

Leonard Must Step Into Welterweight Class For Action

Now that Benny Leonard has disposed of Ritchie he looks over the remaining entries in the lightweight class, and what does he find? Nothing. When he reached Willie he found a job on the whole lightweight division, for no other boxer steps in that class who could for a minute stand up under the champion's game. Benny has a couple of fights billed in the near future, one of them with Harvey Thorne, but both will be mere along the line, as he wants for him just exhibitions. The lightweight field seems more barren than ever today. In other years there always were a few boys, like Leach, Gross, sticking around who always could be counted on to step in and give the champion a battle, and sometimes give, better than they received, but there is none such now. It is almost a surety that Leonard will have to climb up into the welterweight class for his next bout, and it would not be surprising to see him matched with Jack Britton before long. He already has met Britton twice and beaten him both times, and it would not take a great stretch of imagination to see Benny win again and this time in a knockout—even over the short route. His manager, Billy Gibson, has admitted since the scrap with Ritchie that Leonard could have put the welterweight away at almost any time after the second round, but that the champion was holding his orders from chief second English who cautioned him to wait until the end. It hardly seemed possible that a hater of Leonard's power could help but knock-out a man in a condition such as Ritchie after the second round unless he was pulling his punches.

RED SOX ON HOME LOT

PLAY POORLY

BOSTON, May 2.—Boston lost its opening game at home to New York, 7 to 3, yesterday, at Fenway Park. Loose pitching by Carl Mays and indifferent support were factors in the visitors' victory. The attendance was 11,500. Feeling between the teams was intense. Pipp was expelled from the game for disputing with Umpire Connelly and Mays and Derrill Pratt were separated by players before they came to blows. Mozzridge filled the bases with none out in the eighth inning, with his team leading 2 to 0. Quinn then relieved him and the Red Sox scored two runs and tied the score, only to see New York, with two men on in the ninth, make four runs on a double, a single, three errors, a wild pitch and two bases on balls. The score: New York.....6 2 0 0 0 0 1 0 4—7 5 1 Boston.....1 0 0 0 0 0 0 2 0—3 2 2 Batteries: Mozzridge, Quinn and Rael; Mays and Schang.

DETROIT 8, CLEVELAND 1
CLEVELAND, May 2.—Detroit defeated Cleveland 8 to 1 in the opening game here yesterday. Cleveland, who also lost the opening contest at Detroit, was hit very hard in the first two innings. Pitchers Ensmann and Phillips, who succeeded him, were more effective. Roland pitched well throughout and was brilliantly supported. Rain fell the last three innings. The score: Detroit.....3 2 0 1 1 0 0 0 1—8 Cleveland.....1 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0—1 Batteries: Roland and Slaughter; Cleveland: Ensmann, Phillips and O'Neil, Nunamaker.

LOWELL BOYS WIN RIFLE CORPS MEDALS

Several young men of Lowell have become actively interested in the Winchester Junior Rifle corps, an organization fostered by the Winchester Repeating Arms Co., and are competing for Winchester marksman and sharpshooter medals. Medals have been won so far by Lowell boys as follows: Luther C. Merrill, 25 South Walker street, marksman, with a score of 285 out of a possible 290; Edward Hall, 365 Wilder street, marksman, with a score of 296 out of a possible 290; Chas. W. Lombard, 125 Dover street, sharp shooter, with a score of 353 out of a possible 375.

RIVET AND PAL REED TO BOX HERE

George Rivet, who claims the welterweight championship of Canada, will meet Pal Reed, the Minneapolis welter in the main bout of 12 rounds at the second meeting of the Triangle F.C. at the Flashhouse, next Tuesday night. Rivet, who while a member of the Canadian army met some of the best men of his weight in the business, and that he has been in perfect condition and anxious to show before his Lowell friends. While in Montreal Rivet engaged in a 16 round bout with Ted Lewis, which was before Britton won the title from the Englishman. While Rivet lost the award he received much praise for staying with the champion. Reed is well known, having battled with many of the good ones, Young Avilla and Young Kearney of Lowell will meet in the semi-final, Finky Welsh and John Maynard appear in one preliminary and Tony Pisoni of Lowell and Kid Stone of Lawrence will clash in the other.

DIAMOND NOTES

The Braves were glad to get out of Boston yesterday and turn the stage over to the Red Sox. Stallings' men had experienced the roughest kind of slandering since the season opened and feel that on the road they at least can't do any worse than they did before the home folks.

It is not the fault of the Boston pitching staff that the team now reposes at the bottom of the pile, for both Rudolph and Nehf have turned in sweetly pitched games only to have the opposition spirit them away. Loose holding and, more than that, the same old story of the missing timely single have wrecked the parade so far.

Whereas Carl Mays beat Mozzridge in New York, 10 to 0 on the opening day of the American League season, the latter came back yesterday and left-handed the Sox into submission. Mays was careless and his support not of the kind the Boston team likes to talk about.

Cincinnati still travels along her uninterrupted war, with Ed Moran getting every bit of work possible out of his men. His pitchers are working nicely in turn and the team goes right out after its food in the early innings, this giving the boxman a percentage to work on. That's the dope!

Burley Grimes and Joe Ossinger have earned a rest. Doing a week's work in one afternoon is rather unusual for any big league pitcher. Brooklyn continued its curious streak work in the long game, gathering 22 hits, Mays leading with three singles, a double and a home run.

The opening of the Red Sox was hardly more auspicious than the start of the Braves on Patriots' day, except the latter dropped two games on that day against only one for the Sox yesterday.

again is ridden by sport writers because of his slow thinking and apparent mental slip-ups. His latest feat occurred in the Yankee-Philadelphia game in New York on Wednesday. With an Athletic runner on first base, the batter lifted a short fly to Ping in centerfield, and the "old fox" surprised the world by letting the ball trick through his fingers and then shooting it to second base to force out the runner on first, who was a fast man on the paths. The next batter, Fred Thomas, ex-Red Sox, also lifted to Bodie's territory, and again Ping decided to cross him up. This time, however, he did not notice that Thomas had a long lead off first and easily beat Ping's throw to second after the latter had again purposely dropped the ball for another force-out. So Thomas was safe and an error went down in the column against Bodie. The next fly that went Ping's way received the greatest of care from that gentleman, and he even went so far as to give it an added squawk after getting his hands on it. Bodie's attempts at inside baseball are very apt to have just such a conclusion every time he starts, and we surmise he is one of the fellows who will never learn.

SUNDAY BASEBALL FOR NEW YORK

NEW YORK, May 2.—Mayor Hylan signed yesterday the ordinance passed by the board of aldermen Tuesday which permits the playing of professional baseball Sunday, after 2 p. m. The ordinance also provides that the same admission fee as is charged for week days shall be charged Sunday.

BOXER USING WALTER MOHR'S NAME WAS KNOCKED OUT AT AKRON, O.

NEW YORK, May 2.—Danny Ferguson, of Philadelphia, and not Walter Mohr, of Brooklyn, was the pugilist knocked out by Johnny Griffiths in a bout at Akron, O., Monday night. The Associated Press ascertained this fact as the result of an investigation following Mohr's protest that the report of his defeat was untrue and that he was in Brooklyn at the time the Akron bout was in progress. According to a statement from Al Lippe, of Philadelphia, manager of pugilists, while Loughlin was to have met Griffiths but owing to illness, a substitute was necessary. Ferguson was sent from Philadelphia under the name of Mohr, to take Loughlin's place. Lippe admits that he knew Ferguson boxed under the name of Mohr. Matchmaker Tommy Walsh of the

New York Churches Open Doors to Shelter Evicted Families—Many in Court

PARIS, May 2.—Two hundred and fifty policemen were hurt, one sergeant being stabbed in the back, during yesterday's May day disorders, according to an announcement by the prefecture of police today. Apparently only one person was killed, a youth named Lorne, who was struck by several bullets. The person who fired the shots is said to have been arrested. Twenty-six persons were severely wounded, 200 slightly injured and 150 arrested.

The general labor federation has issued a protest and a committee will meet tonight to consider what steps will be taken as a result of the disorders. The managing committee of the socialist party and the socialist group of the chamber of deputies will also meet.

Deputy Marcel Cachin, writing in Humanite, claims the day was a "magnificent demonstration of the power and discipline of the laboring classes and was marked only by the brutality of the ferocious police." He emphasizes the fact that the soldiers used no violence and that there was no trouble where they were on duty.

The injured include 50 policemen and several American soldiers whose curiosity got them into trouble. American ambulances did efficient work in picking up the wounded, the American Red Cross attendants being cheered by the crowds.

At the Invalides bridge, an American lieutenant and two junior officers were stopped by dragons when they attempted to cross the river. After a parley, the Americans were charged upon by some cavalrymen and in the melee some shots were fired.

During a clash between the police and a crowd in Place de la Bastille, in which 20 persons were wounded, a policeman shouted to the mob: "If you want to fight, go to Versailles and fight the Germans."

The mob took up the cry of "On to Versailles," and a diversion was created which averted more serious fighting. Foreigners were prominent among those engaged in the demonstrations and the police declared that virtually every other leader in the crowds was either Russian, Spanish or a member of some other alien race.

Stormy Protest

PARIS, May 2.—The United Trades union of the department of the Seine has issued a strong protest against the "violent action of the police exercised by order of the government."

SOCIALIST MEETING

About 300 men and women attended a socialist meeting in Colonial hall, Middle street last evening. The meeting was held in observance of "International Labor day" and was presided over by Mrs. William L. Sproule. The speakers were Mrs. Sproule, Mr. Roetzell of Boston, who was connected with the Lawrence strike, Mike Bolivis of Haverhill, Mr. Kismiskis of Haverhill and Mr. Shiner, also of the verhill. In the course of the evening copies of the "Revolutionary Age" and other literature were distributed and a collection was taken up.

STORE MEN ASK, ARE Worse This Spring

CORSETS UNDERWEAR?

NEW YORK, May 2.—Are corsets underwear?

This problem was put up yesterday to Commissioner of Internal Revenue, Daniel C. Roper in a telegram to the treasury department, from Low Hahn, executive secretary of the National Dry Goods association. Mr. Hahn protests that the problem is causing grave perplexity to dry goods merchants throughout the country.

The new luxury tax is the cause of the difficulty. An unofficial ruling has declared that corsets are underwear. Mr. Hahn says, and therefore a luxury and taxable. Some merchants are collecting the tax and others are not, and Mr. Hahn appeals to Commissioner Roper to put corsets in their proper place officially.

SCHOOL OF RELIGIOUS EDUCATION HOLDS ANNUAL BANQUET AT FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH

The annual banquet of the Lowell School of Religious Education was held at the First Baptist church last evening and proved a most enjoyable event. The principal speaker was Rev. George W. Orne of Hyde Park.

The repast was served by a committee of women under the direction of Mrs. L. A. Olney, following which A. K. Whitcomb of the board of religious education opened the exercises with a short talk and introduced Rev. Frank McKibben, director of the school, as toastmaster. Addresses were made by Rev. H. A. Barker, the father of the movement here, L. A. Olney, president of the board and others.

Rev. Mr. Orne, the final speaker of the evening, spoke of the increasing need for education in this country and said that all education must have religion as a foundation. It is becoming more apparent that religious teaching must be put into the day schools, for Sunday schools have not the time necessary for the work, the speaker said.

In the absence of Harold P. Compton, president of the senior class, the greeting of the class was given by Miss Helen Buttrick and the school his by Mrs. Robert Kei were also given, as well as the various class yell. In conclusion, Director McKibben gave the thanks of the school to the various people, secretaries, pianists, and others, whose tasks so well filled have meant much to the success of the school, after which the class hymn, written by Rev. A. S. Beale offered prayer.

VICTORY CLUB ENTERTAINMENT

Members of the Victory club of the Grace Universalist church presented the four-act comedy, "He an' Otis," before a large audience in the church parish rooms last night. The case included: Celia Whitehead, Roger Gage, Ernest Tupper, Portia Murphy, Eleanor Sutton, Leslie Pullen, Bruce Kimball, Dorothy Hall, Mr. Dixey, Marie Richardson and Alice Johnston. The comedy was particularly well given and the audience thoroughly appreciated the first dramatic effort of the club. Dancing followed the play, to the music of Miss Chase's orchestra. Miss Leslie Pullen directed the play, assisted by Mrs. Gage.

Owing to Run-down Condition Caused by the War

Anxiety and worry have a bad effect on the nervous system, and derange the bodily functions, especially digestion and excretion. Who escaped them during the war? They have made nervousness, paleness, lack of vitality worse this spring. The very best medicine to take now is Pepton. It strengthens and tones the nerves. It gives a good color to the lips and cheeks. It is the great vitality-giving, healthy activity to all the vital organs.

EDSON CLUB BANQUET

The first annual banquet of the Edson club, a live-wire organization of young men of St. Anne's church, was held last evening in the parish house, with about 75 members and guests present. The speakers included Rev. Appleton Granis, Rev. Arthur W. Shaw and Capt. W. C. MacBrayne. The president of the club, James Kelly, was toastmaster. Dinner was served at 6:30 o'clock by women of the church connected with the Ladies' auxiliary, as follows: Mrs. J. C. Meloon, chairman; Mrs. Catherine Kelly, Mrs. Morse, Mrs. Wright, Mrs. Carlton, Miss Mabel Kelly, Miss Catherine Kelly, Miss Alice Harding, Miss Mary Campbell, Miss Edith Johnston, Miss Agnes Davidson, Miss Mildred Dick and Miss Esther Olson. Several songs were sung by Frank Mills with William Heller, accompanist. Rev. Mr. Granis spoke briefly, outlining his plans along athletic lines for the club this summer, and hoped the boys would make the parish house their habitual meeting place. Rev. Mr. Shaw, assistant pastor, spoke of the many good things attained by the club and hoped for continued success. Capt. MacBrayne told a most interesting story of his air service in the balloon section of the army in France and was given three hearty cheers at the close. T. R. Williams, boys' work director of the Y.M.C.A., also spoke. The present officers of the club are: President, James Kelly; vice president, Roland Worth; secretary, Ross Taggart; treasurer, Joseph Bennett.

MAY DAY CARNIVAL

The May day carnival at the Y.W.C.A. was somewhat interfered with last evening by the rain, although the moisture could not penetrate through the high spirits and optimism of the association girls and many friends who had gathered to aid them in the formal opening of their new recreation centre and tennis court. Decorations of lighted Japanese lanterns covered the court and were strung across the street but it was thought advisable to take these down when the rain began to earnest. Albert Edmund Brown conducted a spirited community sing, after which Sergt. Noble was introduced to talk for the Victory loan. Mayor Perry D. Thompson also spoke for the drive and commended the enterprise of the girls that had made such a fine recreation field possible. The gathering then went indoors and spent the remainder of the evening in the gymnasium, dancing and playing games.

HEROIC SALLY RETURNS

May Burdick, 60, Who Worked at Front Under Fire, Arrives at New York

NEW YORK, May 2.—May Burdick, 60-year-old Salvation Army "Gassie," mother to thousands of doughboys of the American Expeditionary Forces, returned to New York today on the New Amsterdam from Brest.

At the front she worked under shell-fire. She fried doughnuts for the soldiers, over a stove fashioned from scrap metal and turned the toothsome butter cakes with a scrap of tin roofing. Her hostility was sometimes a shell-hole and sometimes a cellar or a barn.

She moved her headquarters as the army moved and found time to hold gospel meetings, and song services at which many conversions were reported. She finally worked herself into a condition of physical weakness and was found lying ill in the left of a shell-hole stable. She was taken to a military hospital in Paris. When she recuperated she returned to the front.

SAYS COL. LOGAN WAS VICTIM OF PREJUDICE

BOSTON, May 2.—Colonel Logan can't talk because he is one of the six men of the 101st still in service. But I want to tell you that there was discrimination over there. Colonel Logan recommended 150 men of the 101st Regiment for the distinguished service cross, but the recommendations were pigeonholed by somebody of the high command at the headquarters in Chaumont, France.

Congressman James A. Gallivan made this accusation in an address at the celebration of the 13th anniversary of St. Augustine's Lyceum of South Boston last night. The observance dinner was held at Young's hotel and brought together 100 well known residents of South Boston.

Congressman Gallivan also declared that other things will be told when Colonel Logan gets out of the service and back to civil life. He advocated a monument to Private "Mickey" Perkins, who died on the field of battle in France and who was called by General Edwards "the bravest man he ever knew."

Colonel Logan and Rev. Joseph F. Coppinger, L.P.P., spiritual director of the lyceum, also spoke.

GERMAN PEACE BUREAU

Began Preparations For
the Peace Conference
in February

COBLENZ, (Correspondence of The Associated Press).—Germany's preparations for the peace conference were conducted by a peace bureau organized in February under direction of the foreign office, according to the Coblenz Volks Zeitung. The peace bureau is composed of five committees which investigated and reported on various phases of the work. The newspaper article says:

"All questions relating to political economy, commercial policy, colonial problems and international law had to be investigated in order that a comprehensive understanding of the German point of view with reference to these questions could be obtained before the commencement of negotiations."

The five committees formed by the peace bureau, consisted of legal, political, economical, commercial, and information committees. This last committee was directed to collect all information concerning the negotiations and the historical and practical data and information to form a basis for German action at the Versailles congress.

KING OF SERBIA THANKS

ATHENS, Sunday, April 27. (By the Associated Press).—King Peter of Serbia, who is living quietly alone in a little suburban retreat overlooking the Bay of Piraeus, six miles from here, expressed through the correspondent today the "profound gratitude of the Serbian nation for the Christian charity of the American people, so marvelously organized by the Red Cross."

The venerable monarch, who will be 75 years old in June, spoke with great feeling of the assistance given by Americans to the population of Serbia and to tens of thousands of refugees, repatriated prisoners and wounded soldiers who since the armistice have poured into the country over every road and mountain pass.

"The smiles which the American Red Cross has brought to the faces of my people," he said, "are the best expressions of gratitude I can give the American nation, for those smiles are but the reflections of hearts and souls touched by the kindness and charity of a greater people."

He was prompted to speak by two photographs he had received from Major Daniel J. McCarthy of Davenport, Ia., in charge of Red Cross relief work at Skopje, Serbia. One showed a group of ragged, barefooted, despairing women and children in front of the Red Cross relief station at that place and the other showed the same group after having received baths, clothing and food from the Red Cross. One was a picture of misery and dejection; the other contentment and joy.

"You have dried tears, assuaged sorrow and alleviated the sufferings so painfully depicted on the faces of our mothers, sisters and children," said the king.

"Personally, I am profoundly grateful for this Christian charity. I say to the American people: 'Thank you, thank you with all my heart.'"

King Peter, who has been living in this part of Greece for more than a year, a fact which has been unknown to the outside world, asked to be excused from commenting upon the political situation.

The aged ruler's health while it has improved since his last illness is still far from good.

He receives no visitors except his personal physician and his aide-de-camp, and keeps himself in such seclusion that even his own minister in Athens has been able to see him only once in the last 18 months. The statement he gave the correspondent today was the first public announcement he has made in more than a year. He is a great admirer of President Wilson, whose photograph may be seen in the living room of his apartment.

WORCESTER HONORS WAR
HEROES, BIG WELCOME

WORCESTER, May 2.—Through a four-mile lane of cheering, confetti-throwing, wildly exuberant people, about 5000 of Worcester's 11,000 soldiers, sailors, marines and nurses who served in the world war paraded yesterday afternoon to receive the welcome home greetings of the heart of the commonwealth. The official reception to the city's fighting men and brave women who faced dangers on the battlefield was the greatest thing of the kind ever seen here, and it showed the recipients how their fellow townsmen appreciate what they have done.

Never before had the city worn such a dress of bright colors, red, white and blue predominating, as it did yesterday. The entire business section and the residential section through which the procession marched was a mass of waving flags and festoons and suburbs of the national colors, with here and there the flags of the allied nations to greet the soldiers of those armies who went from Worcester before the United States got into the war.

All business was suspended for the day, so that everybody might have a chance to participate in the welcome. Many of the manufacturing plants in the surrounding towns shut down for the day to give their employees a chance to add cheers and applause for the marching men and women.

250,000 Turn Out
It is estimated that 250,000 people turned out to welcome the boys home, and the nearest approach to the great crowd in point of size and enthusiasm was on Victory day last November. Yesterday they saw the fighters who had helped to make Victory day possible, and they showered the returned heroes with every mark of regard for their deeds.

As for the heroes, they took the honors with happy faces, even the wounded men who rode in 30 automobiles showing that they had forgotten their disability for the time being by smiling at the salutations as they rode through the cheering crowds.

The parade was formed in the streets adjoining the state armory. At 2:30 it started on its triumphal way in four divisions, with Col. John F. J. Herbert, commander of the 102d Field Artillery, as chief marshal. The entire parade was on foot, with the exception of the wounded, who rode in autos. The men marched without arms or equipment. The 1st Division, which was made up of the Worcester units, discharged earlier in the week from the 26th Division, Co. G, 101st Infantry; Cos. A, C and H, 104th Infantry, and Batteries B and E, 102d Field Artillery, was commanded by Maj. Thomas F. Foley of the 101st Infantry. The 2d Division, composed of men who saw overseas service in other divisions than the 26th, was in command of Maj. Chester D. Hayward; the 3d, composed of marines and sailors, was in command of Lieut. Commander Ernest G. Adams, and the 4th, composed of the Worcester men who fought with the armies of the allies, was in command of Maj. B. H. Altour. Music was furnished for the parade tribute to the dead. Afterward great wreaths of laurel were hung in their memory on the Victory arch by Mayor Pehr G. Holmes and Ex-Mayor Logan. The families of the dead soldiers had special seats reserved for them at the arch, and the solemnity of this feature of the demonstration was shown in the silence which prevailed during the ceremony, supplanting the cheering which had preceded it. The 10th Infantry band led the crowd in singing "Nearer, My God, To Thee."

Tired, Overworked Mothers
What You Need is Vinol

War conditions have made the demand upon a mother's time and energy unlimited. In their zeal to do all in their power for their loved ones, they continually overwork and are soon in a nervous, run-down condition. Vinol, the non-secret cod liver and iron tonic, will build you up and make you strong.

Whitman, Mass. "I suffered from a nervous, run-down condition and loss of strength so it was hard for me to get around and do my work. After other medicines had failed to help me Vinol restored my health and strength and I heartily recommend it to anyone suffering from a nervous, run-down condition."—Mrs. R. M. Little.

Cleveland, Ohio. "I keep house for my husband and myself and got into a weak, run-down condition, no strength, languid and no ambition. After doctoring for awhile and getting no better I tried Vinol and to my surprise it built me up and strengthened my whole system. It is certainly a good tonic."—Mrs. Wm. D. Dawson.

DEATHS

QUINN—John Quinn, husband of Margaret Walker Quinn, died yesterday at the Corporation hospital. He leaves one brother, Michael, and one sister, Mary, both of Lowell. The body was removed to the rooms of Undertakers Charles H. Mow's Sons.

COTE—Joseph Cote, aged 42 years, died yesterday at the State infirmary in Newburyport. He leaves his father and several brothers and sisters. The body was removed to the funeral parlors of Undertakers Amos Archambault & Sons in Merrimack street.

CUMMINGS—Mr. Philip Cummings, an old resident of this city, died this morning at his late home, 109 South Highland street. Besides his wife, Jane, he leaves two daughters, Mrs. Cora H. Harrington and Miss Nellie C. Cummings and one son, Frank, several nieces and nephews and seven grandchildren.

FUNERALS

RAGSHAW—The funeral of Mrs. Margaret Josephine Ragshaw took place this morning from her late home, 115 Sanders avenue, at 10 o'clock and was largely attended. The cortege proceeded to St. Margaret's church where a solemn high mass of requiem was celebrated at 10 o'clock by Rev. Charles J. Galligan as celebrant; Rev. Stephen Murray, deacon; Rev. James Lynch of St. Michael's church, sub-deacon. The choir sang the Gregorian mass and at the offertory Miss Catherine Henney sang. After the elevation Mr. John Dalton sang "O Meritum Passionis" and as the body was being borne from the church the choir sang "Kyrie eleison." There were many floral tributes and spiritual accompaniment. The ushers at the house and church were John J. Sullivan, John P. Adams, George P. Scannell and Frank P. McGilly. The bearers were Charles Holmes, William P. Thompson, John P. Adams, Chris McSweeney, Daniel Walker and John H. Murray. Interment was in St. Patrick's cemetery. Rev. Charles J. Galligan officiated. The funeral arrangements were in charge of Timothy J. Coffey and Undertaker Peter H. Savage had charge of the funeral.

HOCKING—The funeral services of Mary Ann Hocking were held yesterday afternoon at the home of George A. Quinn, 108 North street, Chelsea, and were conducted by Rev. S. W. Matthews, pastor of the German church, Primitive M. E. church. There were many beautiful flowers. The bearers were William Shaw, John H. Murray, John P. Adams and George P. Scannell. Burial was in the Eden cemetery, where the committal prayers were read at the grave by Mr. Matthews. The funeral arrangements were under the direction of Undertaker John A. Weinbeck.

PEARSON—The funeral services of Mrs. Christina N. Pearson were held yesterday afternoon at the home of her son, Mr. William H. Pearson, 217 Appleton street and were largely attended. Rev. P. E. Nordgren, pastor of the Swedish Lutheran church, officiated. Appropriate selections were sung by Thure Gillson. There were many beautiful flowers. The bearers were August and Carl Peterson, Aaron Osterman and John Pearson. Burial took place in the family lot in the Eden cemetery, where the committal service was read.

Demands Victors' Peace
Continued

Fifteen days will be given the enemy to consider the treaty with five days or a week additional for the exchange of views between the allied and German delegations.

Peace Will Reign May 27

Thus, at the latest, if present plans are followed, May 27 should see peace reigning once more between Germany and the allied and associated governments.

A secret plenary session of the conference will be held tomorrow, while on Monday a meeting will be held for the organization of the League of Nations. Italy is still not represented at the conference, but her ambassador is invited to attend such conferences as the regular peace delegation from that country would attend. He has been asked, formally to be present on Monday to represent his nation at the formal launching of the League of Nations.

GERMANS HAVE
POWER TO SIGN

PARIS, May 2.—There is every reason to believe that the German delegation really has full powers and will end the negotiations by signing the preliminaries of the peace treaty, writes Marcel Hulin in the Echo de Paris.

The treaty comprises from 15 to 20 chapters, he says. The preamble is contained in the first chapter, setting forth the reasons why the various contracting parties entered the war, and mentioning the necessity for the League of Nations. The second chapter deals with the German frontiers, and the third contains all clauses connected with alterations of frontiers resulting in changes in the sovereignty of territory. The fourth sets forth the military, military and aerial clauses, and the fifth takes up the disposition of the German colonies.

The other chapters are not altogether finished, but they will concern reparations, economic and financial questions, and will deal with the international labor legislation treaty.

The treaty concludes with a chapter concerning the guarantees for the execution of the treaty conditions by the Germans.

ATTACK LEAGUE PLAN NEW ALIMONY RECORD

Has Brought Disillusionment to Germany, Says German Peace Envoy

LONDON, May 2.—According to a summarized report of an interview given by Herr Schoenck, one of Germany's peace delegates to the Berlin correspondent of the Herald, the League of Nations formulated at Paris, has brought disillusionment to Germany. He says it is regarded by Germans as a thinly veiled scheme for the victorious powers to gain the ascendancy and that it gives the militarists an opportunity to trust the pacifists for their simplicity.

"If the scheme is adopted in its present form," he says, "the League will lose all its moral authority over all sections of the Germans, some of whom will revert to reaction. Others look forward to the establishment of international socialism."

The German plan for a league, he says, creates a representative world parliament, thus safeguarding the democratic basis of the league and avoiding the return of militarism in a new form.

The correspondent adds, "Herr Schoenck made an instant impression of sincerity and courage, which his life-long fight against militarism and his record as an opponent of the war confirms."

READY TO RECEIVE THREE GIANT U. S. PLANES

HALIFAX, May 2.—Facilities for receiving the three giant hydroaeroplanes of the American navy, which are expected here next week on the first leg of the proposed transatlantic flight, have been completed, according to an announcement today. It is believed that the first landing after leaving Rockaway Point, L. Towers now in charge of the contemplated expedition. The United States cruiser Baltimore is here for the purpose of assisting in flight plans.

Mrs. Kendall Receives $4,500,000 in Cash and $100,000 a Year For Life

NEW YORK, May 2.—A record alimony settlement whereby Mrs. Ellen Augustine Kendall of New York and her husband receives $4,500,000 in cash and real estate, and $100,000 a year for life, has been made by Lyman P. Kendall, New York banker, it was announced today.

The announcement made by Mrs. Kendall's attorney and corroborated by her, stated that $1,000,000 in cash had been settled on her and that she had been given the Kendall home in New York, valued at $1,500,000 and the Kendall Bar Harbor estate, known as "Sonocoe" and valued at $2,000,000. The settlement was by agreement and no stipulation was made to prevent Mrs. Kendall from re-marrying.

Mrs. Kendall's suit, filed several months ago in Maine, alleged incompatibility of temperament and the suit was not contested. Her attorney explained that Mr. and Mrs. Kendall will be good friends and that the principal difference between them had been Mrs. Kendall's desire for social activity while her husband preferred quietude on his Virginia estate.

SALE OF DARTMOUTH COLLEGE PROPERTY

The property in Merrimack and Kirk streets, owned by Dartmouth college and partly occupied by the Bon Marche Dry Goods Co., was sold yesterday to the Bon Marche Co., and as a result of the sale the purchasing company will get busy at once to develop a modern and up-to-date department store.

The property purchased by the Bon Marche Dry Goods Co. includes the land on which the present Bon Marche five-story building stands, the adjoining brick structure known as the Lovejoy building and the three-story brick building in Kirk street, partly occupied by the Bon Marche. The sale was effected through Homer F. Keyes, business director of Dartmouth college.

LOWELL GIRLS AT CAMP DEVENS

"Some entertainers, those Lowell girls," was the way the boys from "over there" commented on the minstrel show which was put on at Y.M.C.A. hut 28 at Camp Devens by the Girls' club of the First Congregational church last evening.

The program included a varied and well-balanced series of musical numbers interspersed with witty "exchanges of opinion" by the ends, and a chorus of 50 voices added materially to the success of the entertainment, which was one of the best of its kind given by any amateur organization.

No Medicine-Chest Without Its Family Laxative

From the baby to the grandparents a good laxative is the necessary medicine in the little ills. It wards off serious sickness and saves doctor's bills. Many a cold has been prevented from running into grippe and pneumonia by its timely use.

Many a racking headache has been quickly dispelled by it. And it is a laxative rather than a drastic cathartic or purgative that should be in every family medicine-chest, for a laxative can be used at all ages.

Thousands of good American families have for more than a quarter century used a combination of simple laxative herbs with pepsin known to druggists as Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. It is a laxative- tonic that acts on the bowels and stomach. Infants take it with perfect safety, and it is equally effective for grownups.

Grandparents are now seeing their children give it to their babies. It is excellent for all the family in constipation, no matter how chronic, indigestion, wind colic, biliousness, headaches, dyspepsia and similar ills.

The druggist will refund your money if it fails to do as promised.

this season, and reflected creditably on all concerned.

The concert program was as follows: opening chorus, "Hallelujah"; "Hindustan"; Miss Rose Landers, "Ain't Got Weary Yet"; Mr. Galley, "Tacklin' 'Em Down"; Miss Elmer Clifford, "How You Goin' to Keep Them Down on the Farm"; Miss Geneva Hanson, "Mammy's Shufflin' Dance"; Mrs. Abair, "When Alexander's Ragtime Band Goes Into France"; Edward Stanley, grand finale, "We'll Never Let the Old Flag Fall."

Hurry Hopkins acted as director and filled the position most acceptably, and Miss Farnell, who was in charge of the entertainment committee, was entitled to a large share of the credit for the success of the event.

GLOUCESTER MAN ONE OF 16 LOST WITH TUG

WASHINGTON, May 2.—Two officers and 14 men of the naval tug Gypsum Queen were drowned when the tug struck a rock and sank near Arica Light, off the coast of France, on April 28, while returning to Brest after assisting a fleet of mine sweepers in distress.

The sweepers Courtney, Douglas and James foundered during a severe storm. All members of their crews and 17 officers and men of the Gypsum Queen were rescued by tugs and destroyers.

The mine-sweeping convoy was returning to the United States from Brest. When eight hours out it encountered severe weather and turned back.

The drowned include: Ensign George Charles Edwards, Mt. Desert, Me. Gunner Charles Drake Mills, Stamford, Conn. Chief Boatswain's mate Clyde Charles Sorrels, Cartersville, Ga. Chief Qm. Morris Goldstone, Cleveland.

PLANS FOR BIG DRIVE

National War Garden Commission Starts Drive For Community Improvement

WASHINGTON, May 2.—Plans for the biggest drive the country has yet seen for "community improvement" were outlined here today by the national war garden commission when twenty thousand garden books were sent to the National Cash Register Co. at Dayton, O. These with motion picture reels showing "victory gardens" will be used by live men, who will tour the country and lecture on the value of home improvements to the home owner, the employer of labor and to the community.

"This is the first big wallop to be taken at the Bolshevik propaganda," said Charles Lathrop Park, president of the commission, today. "These reels will be shown and the garden books given out at lectures all over the country. No charge is made for admission to the lectures."

In Illinois another drive is under way with the Central Illinois Public Service Co. under the direction of C. O. Dutton of the commercial department. Through branches in 178 towns in central Illinois the national war garden commission will distribute thousands of its posters and garden and canning books.

The Fidelity Trust Co. of New York is distributing 1000 garden books from the commission and the New York State Bankers association has sent the commission's garden data to every bank in the state. At Rock Island, Ill., the seven thousand workers in the government arsenal are making gardens this year. These are but examples of the drive under way to meet the world food situation and to make for the contented worker throughout the land.

Plant more vegetables to make up for the loss here and there of fruit due to the cold wave. Is the final call to the victory gardeners of the country by the national war garden commission. With probable losses in fruit for canning, the victory gardeners must look ahead right now to next winter and plant more vegetables so that the supply for canning may be increased. Reports to the commission show more acreage is being cultivated by communities and business concerns for employees than ever before. Grow a victory bond in your victory garden.

LIONESS KILLS KEEPER

Woodbury, N. J., Thrown Into Panic by Enraged Beast—Shot in Woods

WOODBURY, N. J., May 2.—A lioness in a circus side show killed her keeper before a small crowd of spectators, escaped from her cage and bounded into a small clump of woods near here yesterday afternoon.

A posse of men and boys armed with guns, pikes and stones pursued the animal into the woods and finally killed her with a fusillade of more than 100 shots, 12 of which took effect.

"The 'big show' was in progress before an audience of several hundred men, women and children when John Henry, keeper of the lioness 'Lucy' and her two cubs, entered the side show cage. Driving the lioness into another compartment, Henry carelessly swung shut the separating door and stopped to fondle the cubs.

The animal threw herself against the door, bursting it open, and with one leap closed her powerful jaws about Henry's neck, killing him instantly.

Attendees in the tent seized iron bars, hooks and tent stakes belabored the animal in an effort to compel her to release her grip on the keeper.

Infuriated further by the blows, the lioness threw herself against the other door of the cage, which Henry had failed to lock, and burst her way to freedom.

Screams of persons who saw her escape excited the audience in the main tent and a panic followed. Men, women and children scrambled from the tent and ran across lots to the center of the town crying, "A lion has escaped."

Terrified mothers ran through the streets seeking their children. Other women locked and barricaded their homes and sought refuge in cellars. Shopkeepers closed their stores and word was sent to the public schools, which were about to close, not to re-

RHEIMS "MARTYR CITY"

Shelled by Huns on 1051 Days—1000 Killed—Cathedral Hit 289 Times

RHEIMS, France, Rheims, which had a population of 110,000 before the war, now has only 100,000 inhabitants: 2887 men, 3258 women and 1210 children.

The "martyr city" was shelled by the Germans on 1051 days, and over 1000 persons were killed, including some 200 women and 100 children. The cathedral was struck by 287 shells up to March 21, 1918. After that date, no record was kept.

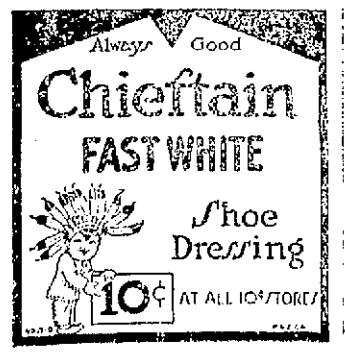

April 21, 1917, was the worst day of the war for Rheims. The bombardment was so terrific that no record could be made of the casualties and damage on that day.

CLEANING HOUSE IN THE SPRING

This is the fourth in a series of six articles prepared for Sun readers by the five famous women specialists. This article on "cleaning details" is by L. Ray Halderston, professor of housewifery and laundering at Columbia University.

One of the early things to do in spring housecleaning, and necessarily early to avoid trouble, is to get the screens ready. Brush them thoroughly, and to make them look well wipe off with kerosene oil. Use only a few drops of kerosene. Should the screens be rusty, they will need painting.

Walls ought to be wiped

down very carefully and thoroughly. Remove all pictures, and with a soft cloth over the broom, clean the walls by rubbing with straight strokes of even pressure. To rub the paper too hard will blur the pattern.

Woodwork ought to be considered with the cleaning of the walls. White paint may be wiped with clear water, to which a few drops of ammonia have been added. A special cleanser for white paint is a cloth wrung out of clear water and then dipped in whitening.

Oiled woodwork may be cleaned by wiping with cheese cloth which has been wrung out of hot water into which has been put 1 tablespoonful of turpentine, and 2 tablespoonfuls of luscious oil to each quart of hot water. As soon as cool enough to bear the hand, wring out the cheese cloth from this mixture, and wipe the wood. This is also a good cleanser for the floors, making them ready to be waxed or polished afterwards.

Carpets may be sent away to be cleaned, or be done at home. They should have a good airing, and be brushed on both sides; if beaten, a hot water should be used, as a stick or wire loop is likely to tear. If after beating, the colors of a rug or carpet are found to be fast, the rug may be freshened by washing with a heavy soap lather which is put on with an old clean scrubbing brush. Wash a

Dressed Meat Production, Including Lard in 1918, Totalled 20,129,800,000 Lbs.

WASHINGTON, May 2.—American dressed meat production, including lard, amounted in 1918 to 20,129,800,000 pounds—a quantity never before approached in magnitude by the livestock industry of this or any other country. The corresponding figure for 1917 was 16,317,600,000 pounds.

Three-fourths of this enormous increase was in pork and one-fourth in beef.

The meat surplus in 1918 was so great that extra export demands made little impression on it, although 1918 export shipments of meat and lard nearly doubled the 1917 figures—rising from slightly less than one and three-fourth billion pounds to slightly more than 3 billion pounds—and these figures do not include shipments to American military forces abroad.

The aggregate 1917 consumption of dressed meat and lard in the United States was approximately 14½ billion pounds, but in 1918 it rose to seventeen and one-quarter billion pounds. This means, after allowing for increase in population, and addition of 23 pounds for every man, woman and child in the country—despite the food conservation campaign which in 1917 caused consumption to decline considerably.

"While the people as a whole through their abstinence averted the immediate crisis, it was the farmer who was the really big factor in the ultimate situation," says the bureau of animal industry, United States department of agriculture. "The producer, of course, was expected to do his part, but he did it with such powerful effect that in a single year the meat shortage was turned into a pronounced surplus. Thus in 1918 there was not only meat enough to supply all foreign demands compatible with the restricted shipping facilities, but a greatly enlarged quantity was available for the home consumption.

"To be sure, it cost the farmer more, much more, to feed his animals and get them to market. Likewise, all other steps from producer to consumer became more costly, hence the high prices. But the unprecedented prosperity of the people as a whole enabled them to afford the increased cost. In fact, laboring people probably consumed more meat during the past year than in pre-war times.

"The total number of cattle slaughtered in 1918 is estimated at 15,750,400 as against 13,725,000 in 1917. Their average weights were practically the same for both years, and the beef produced from them was 6,695,000,000 pounds in 1917 and 7,841,000,000 pounds in 1918. This was a remarkable achievement as it hardly would have been credited that beef growers could increase their production a billion pounds in one year.

"The hog matures quickly. Therefore a much more rapid increase would be looked for than was the case with cattle. Even so, the results for 1918 can be described only as stupendous. The hogs marketed in 1918 numbered 69,854,700 as against 57,152,300 in 1917. Furthermore, the average weight was 9½ pounds more per hog in 1918. Thus when the animals are turned into pork and lard we have a total production of 11,225,064,000 pounds in 1918 as against 8,175,250,000 pounds in 1917, an increase of 2,747,355,000 pounds, or 32.1 per cent, nearly one-third."

so shown by the bureau. Beef shipments abroad in 1918 were 94 per cent more than in 1917—the chief 1918 items being 514,000,000 pounds of fresh beef and 141,000,000 pounds of canned beef. Exports of pork and lard in 1918 amounted to 2,278,287,000— which was 71.7 per cent more than the quantity sent abroad in 1917.

The bureau shows that in the aggregate more meat by far is eaten in the United States than in any other country in the world—although some sparsely settled countries raising much meat have a larger per capita consumption. It also says that there is room in the United States for a great expansion in the use of mutton and lamb.

Stomach Trouble And Dizzy Spells Have Disappeared

Maine Resident Regains Weight and Strength When He Uses Blood-Building Tonic

Many who suffer from indigestion believe that they have some serious organic disorder. They become melancholy and depressed and worry aggravates their illness.

There is a curious double relation between the blood and the stomach and few people, in treating indigestion, realize the inter-dependence that exists. Rich, red blood is necessary to assist in the digestive processes. If the blood is deficient the digestion suffers. On the other hand the blood is the agent by which nourishment is carried to all parts of the body. If the blood fails to get enough food to distribute, the entire body, especially the nervous system, suffers. It is important in cases of indigestion to build up the blood. The experience of Mr. Joseph Willett, of No. 65 Bangor street, Augusta, Me., should prove of great benefit to others.

"I became badly run down following a severe cold," says Mr. Willett. "My stomach was badly affected and I suffered frequently from severe pains after eating. I had sour stomach at times and dizzy spells. I lost flesh and it seemed as though I didn't have any strength."

"Dr. Williams' Pink Pills were recommended to me and I began the treatment. In two days I felt greatly improved and continued taking the pills until I was restored to health. I'm no longer tired and do not become exhausted easily. My stomach doesn't trouble me and I eat with comfort and enjoyment without fear of after effects. I have regained my strength and the dizzy spells have disappeared. I certainly can recommend Dr. Williams' Pink Pills."

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are a tonic for the blood and nerves. They begin at once to build up the system weakened by excess or overwork. The rich, red blood soon begins to show in cheeks and lips, the step is quicker, the eyes brighter and the good effect is felt in every organ of the body.

Two useful books, "Diseases of the Nervous System" and "What to Eat and How to Eat" will be sent free by the Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Schenectady, N. Y. Your own druggist sells Dr. Williams' Pink Pills or you can order them direct by mail, postpaid, at 50 cents a box, six boxes for $2.50.—Adv.

the Massachusetts Democratic club in honor of his 60th birthday and, in compliance with the demands of a number of those present, finally consented to make a campaign the coming fall for the democratic nomination for governor.

Col. Gaston's decision was greeted with cheers and in the speeches that followed he was promised hearty support by men from all corners of the state.

Col. Gaston was presented a handsome gold-headed cane by the club, the presentation being made by Pres. Francis J. Finerman. Col. Gaston made a feeling response, in the course of which he said he felt it to be his duty to accede to the wishes of such a representative gathering of democrats.

Among those who spoke in favor of Col. Gaston's candidacy were the following representatives in the legislature: Greene of Charlestown, Driscoll of Roxbury, O'Connor of Chicopee, Dowd of Holyoke, Reidy of South Boston, Hearn of East Boston, Brennan of Charlestown, Murphy of Roxbury and Mitchell of Springfield. Others who urged Col. Gaston to make the run were Thomas E. Dwyer of Wakefield and William F. Fitzgerald.

101st ENGINEERS BROKE RECORD

BOSTON, May 2.—Mrs. Claude F. Gilson, who was assigned to the Massachusetts leave area, Le Mans, as chaplain for the 101st Engineers, has had many interesting experiences since she left Boston last February. In charge of 50 women, to work under the T.M.C.A.

Mrs. Gilson was in Le Mans when the 101st regiment was there and writes with enthusiasm of the hot built in 24 hours by the 101st Engineers, breaking all records in building huts. The money for this hut was raised in York Harbor, Me., and brought over by Miss Thompson.

Mrs. Gilson wrote that the most popular song in the leave area was "S.C.S." the words of which are like this:

'Twas the awfulest war was ever fought,
We spent our life in some safe,
We fought for women night and day,
And when they ask us, as they certainly are going to ask us,
Just why we didn't get the Cross de Guerre—

We never will tell them—no we never will tell them—
There was a front—but damned if we know where.

BUSINESS ALIBIS USELESS

It is the most foolish waste of time in thinking up alibis for one's personal business. In the majority of cases, complete and honest disclosure would be more satisfactory than making up a transparent alibi.

It is a competitor getting away from you—putting himself in a position and more active class in nine times out of ten than you can get. The only reason is that he, "like it or not," is in the line of business and advertising.

First, he advertises better than you do, uses better judgment and a better advertising medium. In effect he says to the public, "I have the latest, best and most reasonably priced goods of my line and you can find them here. This is not so." The reason of it all is persuaded to do it. Your competitor's expert advertising business what his expert advertising so well began.

There is mostly the entire proposition. Watch him to some extent but don't waste time feeling yourself with self made alibis. Here is a confidential tip: Success is not for the timid. Perhaps your competitor is setting you an example you ought to follow by the spread of his advertising and by extensively advertising in.

PROSPERITY MUST COME

Here are twenty-five reasons why the belief is justified that America is bound to have abundant prosperity soon after the peace treaty will have been signed:

1. Foreign demand for our goods greater than we ever had before.
2. We have a merchant marine that we never had before.
3. We have better world-wide banking facilities than ever before in our history.
4. We have learned that waste is criminal, which will aid our future prosperity.
5. Our shelves of ordinary requirements are now empty.
6. Our cities require vast building projects.
7. America has lost little man power in the war; Europe has lost much.
8. We will now export manufactured products where in the past we have principally exported raw materials.
9. We have learned to produce at home what we used to import—the money we used to send abroad will in the future stay here.
10. Think of the boom to the textile industry and merchandising industry by more than four million men buying civilian clothes.
11. If we can stand the test of war in prosperity, surely we can stand the test of peace in prosperity.
12. Even the prosperity we have accumulated will make a purchasing power that will keep us generally prosperous for three years.
13. The profits from foreign trade will circulate here in America and bring increased purchasing power, prosperity, to our own people.
14. We may be unprepared for peace, but if we are unprepared for it as we were for war, why may the Lord help our trade rivals!
15. By our part in this war we have acquired a better good will for foreign trade than we could have gained by fifty years of trading relations—we have been advertised.
16. Our railroads require repairs, replacements and extensions, and which is in itself a very large contribution to our prosperity in purchasing power.
17. Being manufacturers for foreign trade rather than just exporters of raw material, our payrolls will be larger for more purchasing power, prosperity, at home.
18. Most of the world's manufacturing for developments, improvements and restoration must be done here, and it is only natural that the purchases of materials and supplies will be made here.
19. Germany will not be a competitive factor in the future, as in the past, for reasons of population and the fact that our trade attention will be centered to Russia and the Far East for many years to come.
20. We have spread a knowledge of American manufacturing and transportation methods in Europe, which means that they will want our products and machinery in adopting them.
21. The young men returning from abroad will have better health, demand higher standards of life, and all the other things which will be a great help to our prosperity.
22. We have started to raise the standard of living, and the standard of living will be a great help to our prosperity.

will not be as able to supply world markets as quickly as America, for it will take a longer time for them to get back into industry.

24. We have found in the past four years that we can produce more and better goods, and cheaper, with our well-paid labor, than Germany with her low-paid and child labor, for the reason that our labor does more work in a given time.

25. More people in more parts of the world have been made receptive to new ideas and new conveniences of life than ever before, by reason of this war—they have been introduced to artificial ice, sanitary devices, laundry machinery, and everything down to the safety razor—the demand for all of which this nation can supply.

MURDER BY MAIL

The mailing of bombs to some scores of prominent men throughout this country shows that there is much to be done in our own nation to make it safe for democracy.

It appears that the bombs have been directed chiefly to men who, at one time or another, have taken a stand in opposition to the I.W.W. The verdict of public opinion apparently is, that this is a method adopted by the Reds to celebrate the coming of May day. It will be a "red" day in the history of the I.W.W. It is plain that drastic methods must hereafter be adopted to stamp out this anarchistic and treasonable element.

After our soldiers who served during the war will have retaken their places in the industrial activities of the nation, it will be one of their chief duties to cope with this evil that threatens the very foundation of the American republic.

It is certainly a serious situation when public men, including justices of the supreme court, receive through the mails the most dangerous form of internal machines. Only by mere chance has it happened that the danger was made known in time to avert many casualties.

At the present time, the postoffice authorities throughout the country are on the alert to detect anything of this kind, but such deadly packages can be disguised in so many different ways that it is impossible in all cases to detect them.

It is said that part of this demonstration of anarchy is intended as a protest against the action of the courts in the case of Thomas J. Mooney. It is unfortunate for Mooney if any of his friends have adopted this course. It will injure rather than help him. It tends to show that he is one of them, although that assumption may be entirely unjust. Henceforth, the state and federal governments throughout this country will have a duty to perform in stamping out this heinous evil whenever it lifts its head. The reign of the I.W.W. will hereafter be beset with the utmost vigilance of government officials and the greatest severity that the law will permit in the punishment of the offenders. Deception should be resorted to whenever the members of this vile band are found to have come here without any intention of becoming law-abiding citizens.

GOMPERS

It is indeed good news for the country to learn that Samuel L. Gompers, the head of the American Federation of Labor, is recovering from his injuries recently sustained in an automobile accident. There never was a time perhaps in the history of the oldest people now alive, when the services of a man like Gompers were so vitally necessary as at present. No other man in this country can exert such a powerful influence over the forces of labor as can Mr. Gompers. He can also stay the hand of the "Reds" by causing the patriotic and legitimate labor unions to be on their guard against these dangerous elements. Gompers has always pursued a safe and honorable course in reference to socialism and the elements more dangerous. He has fought them at every step during his long career, and has never lost a single battle when they attempted to secure his overthrow. The nation could ill afford to lose a man like Gompers, especially at a time when there is such a feeling of unrest due in part to unemployment throughout the country, but more particularly to revolutionary elements that resort to the use of dynamite and the bomb when they find themselves prevented from openly violating the law.

BELOVED IN LOWELL

Seldom has a clergyman passed away who had a higher place in the esteem of the people of Lowell than the late Rev. John M. Greene, D.D., who for many years had been pastor of the Eliot church. Mr. Greene was a man who went about doing good, not in the public eye, but rather hiding his benevolence or passing the credit of it to others with whom he was associated. He was a man of profound learning, sincere piety and the most estimable character. Not once in his long career in Lowell did he ever utter a word of intolerance or sarcasm that would offend the most sensitive nature. His aim was to inspire and uplift by the gentle application of the precepts of religion. He was blessed with length of years, and for some years past he had been a resident of Boston; but his absence only served, if possible, to increase the love and veneration in which he was held by all who had known him during his many years of service in connection with the Eliot church of this city.

Two handsmen of the noted French army band now touring New England, had many temptations to renounce their French citizenship and become Americans. All of these they withstood, so the story goes, until the band played Springfield. It was the last straw and next day the two men in question sought information as to how to become American voters. All in all, the case is not surprising. Springfield is one of the most splendid cities in New England, and its greatest jewel is its civic spirit.

Seldom have the stores of Lowell appeared to better advantage than at the present time, in spite of what may be called the slight business depression owing to the lack of employment. The people of Lowell are well served in the stores, representing every line of business. There is certainly no excuse for persons going out of town for what they want, on the assumption that the Lowell stores cannot supply them with all that even the most highly cultured family may require.

No, no republican senator is expected to say whether the new covenant satisfies him until he has been over to Uncle Henry's house and obtained the Nabant idea of the covenant. Even after that solemn and stirring ceremony, in all cases it is expected that it will be best for Uncle Henry to have the centre of the stage and speak as representing the family!

Will H. Hays, republican national committee chairman, may find it just as hard to get himself elected governor of Indiana, as it will be for him to get his pet candidate elected president of the United States. Those Indiana people may take it into their heads that they want a more competent man than Hays.

Let us all go Maying, not only for the sturdy pleasure of gathering shy and fragrant arbutus, but thriftily also because home-made flowers never before have sold at so high a price.

Postmaster General Burleson announces that the mail service has been maintained "upon an exceptionally efficient basis." Yes, yes, he is a modest man. Perhaps your ideas and his about postal efficiency do not jibe.

Man outwitted nature by learning to fly as a bird does. But nature gets frequent revenge by making him come down the way a bird doesn't.

The communists will wake up with a jolt when they assume the task of meeting the pay roll and discover that it isn't done by sleight of hand or tongue work.

HOW A YOUNG GIRL SUFFERED

And Was Restored to Health By Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound—Told By Her Mother.

Brooklyn, N. Y.—"I cannot praise Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound enough for what it has done for my daughter. She was 15 years of age, very sickly and pale and she had to stay home from school most of the time. She suffered agonies from backache and dizziness and was without appetite. For three months she was under the doctor's care and got no better, always complaining about her back and side aching so I didn't know what to do. I read in the papers about your wonderful medicine so I made up my mind to try it. She has taken five bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and doesn't complain any more with her back and side aching. She has gained in weight and feels much better. I recommend Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to all mothers and daughters."—Mrs. M. PINORE, 516 Marcy Ave., Brooklyn, N. Y.

SEEN AND HEARD

Grow a Victory Bond in your Victory Garden.

No, thank you, Mr. Airman, we have no desire to take passage on that transatlantic trip. But we surely do wish you the best of luck.

A demand for settlement is probably the worst that most of us will receive through the mail and a legitimate bill does not come under the head of "internal machine."

We picked up an old check in Market street the other day. We don't know where it came from. It was drawn on the First National bank of Lowell and was dated November something, 1880. We passed it to a fellow whose name we knew to agree with the name on the check. The fellow we gave it to presented it at a local store and the proprietor cashed it. What do you know about that? The fellow returned to the store and gave the proprietor back the money, some thirty odd dollars. And still we wonder at the great increase of crime.

Twins Ever Thus
While a laughless life maketh of man a gloomy case, a laugh at wife can kick up an awful fuss!

Mrs. Helen Grace Taitour, San Francisco, Cal., sues her husband, Leo M., for divorce, complaining that three months after their wedding he laughed heartily when she slipped on a smooth pavement and fell. Four times he went "Haw-haw" and she was through with him.

Our Advantage
In a store hereabouts recently a young lady who wore her skirts very high was on her way out to dinner. She looked out into the street. It was pouring. She turned and said to another girl:

"Look at that rain. It must be up to my knees."

And the other replied:

"Well, anyway, you won't get your skirts wet!"—Salem Evening News.

Hunting for Bumps
The proprietor of a downtown barber shop had sent several of his assistants to war. To take their places he had employed several young men as apprentices and is teaching them gradually the art of hair-cutting.

Usually he lets them practice only on baldheaded men. But the other day there was a rush of customers, and one of the new barbers tried his clippers on a gorgeous head of curly hair. The result looked like a relief map of the Grand Canyon.

"For heaven's sake!" exclaimed the customer, as he surveyed himself in the mirror. "Are you a barber?"

"No, sir," replied the apprentice. "I'm a phrenologist!"—Philadelphia North American.

Persistence
Wiggins at twenty had planned his future of "Back to the land." "Surely," said he, "that's the thing! But first—a lot of a thing!"

At thirty, re-stating his stand, he headed straight back to the land. "But now," he called and yelled, "getting himself rightly married."

At forty, still Wiggins demand was "Let me back to the land!" But how could a food father rob his children by quitting his job?

At fifty, with savings in hand, "Now," said he, "back to the land!" On, on the land, newly-purchased, little his savings sufficed.

Wiggins at sixty still fanned the promise of back to the land. "Let me back to the land!" But now he had a family to feed. One about more and I'll make it!

At seventy, half his fortune, Wiggins achieves his ambition. "Let me back to the land!" There he is, back to the land!

Going Fishing

Hey there, Mr. Man, wipe that worried look off your face, grow your trousers in your rear top desk and pull down the top and then go fishing. You've not been fishing for a long time and now, since you were a kid and hunted catfish out of the town ditch, with a home-made hook and line and the halibut plunger of all the other fellows, it isn't fair to forget to make and braze and fry.

around your office all the time, never getting out into the country where way bills cease from troubling and correspondence is at rest. Come on, old scout! Of course you may not catch any fish, but what's the difference? It's not so much the fish that constitute the fascination of fishing as it is the loitering around in the midst of nature with never a worry or care. It's the scene of the countryside, the exchange of commonplace with the folks you meet, the smokes and the cats and the forgetting of all the frets and vexations of daily life that make fishing so fascinating. If you do catch something so much the better. You'll know no matter how small it may seem when you land it, it will grow in size as time goes on and you re-tell the story of the day's outing. Come on, you poor, cross, worried, good old scout, you owe it to yourself to get away for a day and get all tuned up again.

THE MAN ABOUT TOWN

I had an interesting talk with a returned Y.D. soldier yesterday who was telling his overseas experiences and he cited as one of the saddest things in his entire military career the finding of the body of a Yankee soldier on the field of battle following a stiff attack by the Germans. The teller of the tale was a member of a searching party sent out to recover such bodies and in the pocket of the uniform of this particular hero there was found a letter written by his mother. From the contents the searchers could make out the fact that the martyr soldier had had a row with his father about enlisting and that he had been practically disowned for enlisting at an unusually early age. In her letter the mother told her son that his father still refused to write to him but that outside his own home she was sure he spoke of his soldier son in glowing terms of pride. She thought if the son wrote a letter to his father maybe he would relax. The searchers wondered just how the father in question would feel when he got the news of his son's death.

Despite the fact that the wearing of the Sam Brown belt by soldiers in this country is forbidden by military authorities, I notice that some are still wearing it. The Sam Brown belt is a leather band worn across the shoulders and is very commonly worn in France, but for certain reasons its wearing here is forbidden.

I remember a short time ago reading about Major General O'Ryan, who, while attending a theatrical performance in New York, saw a number of commissioned officers in the audience, wearing the Sam Brown belt. Between one of the acts he sent his orderly to gather up all the officers wearing the belt and lead them to the theatre lobby. There the major general addressed them and after reminding them of the orders issued by the authorities relative to the wearing of the belt, he ordered the officers to take off the belts and pass them over to him. He told the men they could have their belts by calling at headquarters, providing they would not wear them again in this country.

We had always hoped that the other prominent clocks of the city, such as the one in postoffice tower, would never allow themselves to slip into the slovenly and inaccurate ways of the Middlesex depot timepiece, but sad to relate, for the past several days our postoffice friend has lagged three minutes behind the times, thus causing considerable discomfiture and missed connections. We never expected much from the old depot clock in Central street, for that has had a propensity for variation for years without number, but we did expect better conduct on the part of the federal building dial, and we are grievously disappointed. Uncle Dudley's sentinel, the meeting place of thousands, has come to be considered most reliable even though its weather predictions are oftentimes erroneous and the city hall pendulum swings true to form and standard time most admirably. We do not have occasion to "lamp" the court house clock very often, but its deep peeling bell usually seems to correspond with our watch, which, when all is said and done, is just about the last word in correct time hereabouts. Tempus fugit, as we were taught by Miss (Cresida) but it should never lag or limp. That is inexcusable.

Are Unenables scarce in Lowell? Well, rather. Many a returning soldier or sailor who intends to set up housekeeping again finds himself up against a tough proposition, especially if he desires a comfortable place with modern conveniences, and even if he is lucky enough to find a place that will meet with the approval of the lady of the house the rent is almost sure to be set at a practically prohibitive figure. While some landlords are still keeping their rents down at a reasonable rate others are taking advantage of the congested condition of the city and hoisting their rents almost at will. One instance of this which came to my attention today is that of a man who had just jumped the rent of one of his houses $5 a month and told his tenant that from now on he must not use the land for a backyard garden, as he had for purposes of storage, as he expected to grow a strawberry crop for himself this summer in his tenant's backyard, and also utilize the barn for his own benefit. Can you beat it?

My attention has been called to the hardships folk in different parts of the city experience with regard to children romping around on and practically destroying lawns and fences of their neighbors. Somehow the children refuse to remain on a sidewalk while there is a nice lawn on which they can saunter. Strictly speaking, the children who romp on neighbors' lawns and terraces are not so much to blame as their parents. Visual evidence to the contrary, it probably is still possible to have children respect the rights of the folks who live next to their home—if parents will give the matter enough to make the children behave. This is a time when we are hearing a good deal about the city beautiful, but it is a shame to encourage to pay a garden or four or five dollars a day to re-build and sod your lawn, and then have it ruined by the children some of whom are old enough to know better.

Mayor Hanson, First To Get Bomb, Would Deport I.W.W. Anarchists

Red Flag Cannot Continue To Wave on Same Planet With Old Glory

KANSAS CITY, Mo., May 2.—Mayor Olo Hanson of Seattle, to whom was sent the first bomb in the nation-wide plot just discovered, says that the rioting reported in many cities yesterday is evidence of the menace of Bolshevism and I.W.W. principles. In a statement here last night, he urged that mayors call upon the national government for the deportation and punishment of all anarchists. He declared that the "Reds" had a vast organization in every country in the world and that they expected to overthrow all countries, including ours.

"The red flag of anarchy cannot continue to wave on the same planet with our emblem of liberty and freedom."

Year Book Notes Increased
Demand For Opportunities
For Use of Leisure Time

While the general effect of the war upon playgrounds is still an open question, there is no doubt that this country has been awakened, by the war, to a keener sense of the importance of recreation centers, according to the 1918 Year Book of the Playground and Recreation Association of America just issued. The demand for opportunities to play after work hours is as widespread as it is encouraging. There has been a marked increase during the year both in the centers for evening recreation and the attendance there.

Unquestionably the fact that 55 per cent of the men in the first draft were rejected as physically unfit has made America realize how essential is a building exercise and recreation under the guidance of trained leaders. The statistics collected after correspondence with 1700 cities indicate a healthy and steady progress in recreation work. The report of the association shows that more than 750 playgrounds were open the year round and evening recreation work was conducted in more than 700 schools of 101 cities. More than 8000 trained men and women were engaged in directing play at recreation centers throughout the country.

For colored children alone more than 100 playgrounds were maintained. Three hundred swimming pools, four hundred public baths and two hundred public bathing beaches were used by thousands of persons.

The effect of the war upon playgrounds and recreation was reported by 277 cities, 172 of which give the result as unfavorable. The decrease in attendance is attributed to the fact that many of the older children were working in factories. Moreover, it was hard to get trained, competent leaders because of the many men who went into the service of their country and of women who engaged in war work. In many cases, appropriations were cut down, playground funds were devoted to war garden activities and the playgrounds themselves were used by war agencies.

Recreation Work Stimulated

But 105 cities reported that the war so far from checking recreation work, had stimulated it. The attendance of small children increased, as did that of their elders at the evening sessions. Appropriations were enlarged and more centers established. The number of cities initiating such work was smaller than in 1917, being reduced to 26, but those cities which continued the work called for a greater number of leaders to conduct their activities.

On the whole, the year of 1918 shows many gains. Everywhere community leaders and citizens participated in community singing, pageants and special community gatherings. Especially were they brought to realize what recreation meant to the men in uniform. This realization has given momentum to the recreational movement all over the United States.

The association reports that complete returns from 395 cities show that they maintained 3571 playgrounds and neighborhood centers under paid leadership. In 251 of these cities the work was administered wholly or in part by some department of a municipality; that is, 70.9 per cent of the total and an increase of 10 per cent over 1917. In addition to municipal activities, centers were maintained by Playground and Recreation associations and leagues, civic clubs and associations, improvement clubs, Parent-Teacher's associations and Home School leagues, the Y.M.C.A. and

Lowell Boy, 19 Years Old, Faces Murder Charge in State of Maine

HOULTON, Me., May 2.—Alexander J. Bordeaux, alias Alex. Moran, the 19-year-old Lowell, Mass., lad charged with the murder of Moses Tozier, is again making a fight for his freedom.

Promptly at 9.10 a. m. yesterday he was escorted from the Aroostook county jail to the court room. The crime with which he is charged was committed Nov. 18, 1917, at Sherman, about 19 miles south of Houlton. The young man at the time was less than 15 years of age. He had been employed by Moses Tozier during the potato digging season, coming to Aroostook county from Lowell, Mass. Mr. Tozier was about 60 years of age, a bachelor and lived part of the time alone and some of his time with a niece who resided a short distance from the Tozier home.
Nov. 15 the respondent left for Millet where he was to spend a few days with a brother who was working at that place. Several witnesses for the prosecution were examined today.

OVERCHARGING TAXES

Complaints of Retailers Charging More Than Tax on So-Called Luxuries

WASHINGTON, May 2.—Complaints have begun to reach the internal revenue bureau of retailers charging more than the actual tax on so-called luxuries, such as expensive articles of clothing and other personal equipment, although the new taxes went into effect only yesterday.

Reports so far indicate that most cases of overcharging were accidental.
Officials were prompted, however, to issue a reminder that overcharging a tax might render the dealer or clerk liable to a fine of $1000 and a year's imprisonment.

AMUSEMENT NOTES

Below is what the press agents of the different theatres say of the current attractions and of others to come.

E. P. KIDNEY'S THEATRE

Elsie Mains, the sympathetic singer, who is at the E. P. Kidney Theatre, this week, never had to work harder in her life than she is now doing, to keep up to the rapid tempo set by her Black and White Boys. The five boys who make up an excellent jazz orchestra, certainly hit a very rapid pace which Miss Mains equals but which she admits she can't beat. The act has many novel features to it.
Harry Hines, the joy boy, otherwise known as the 55th variety, keeps his audience in good humor all of the time, and Joe Morris and Flossie Campbell in "Avi-ace-her" score a fine knockout with their fun. A new bicycle act is that of Fred St. Once, and Max Hines. It is off the beaten track, somewhat, Miss Weiss & Co.
featuring Little Tony, the Australian midgit; Manning & Lee, in song and dancer; and the Lerner Sisters, dancers, complete the week's list of acts.

THE STRAND

Look over the bill at The Strand and compare it with any of the other offerings in the week end, and if you don't select Lowell's biggest and best theatre as your objective then we miss our guess. A Tom Mix film, his latest, called "Fighting For Gold," and charming Madge Kennedy in "Daughter of Mine," are the two big

BRICKLAYERS GET 90 CENTS AN HOUR

The members of the Bricklayers' union held a very important meeting last evening in Odd Fellows hall, Middlesex street, with President Frank J. Warren in the chair. In the course of the meeting it was announced that the wage question had been settled and the contractors had agreed to grant the full demand, 90 cents an hour for all underground work. Routine matters were transacted and two new members were initiated.

SOCIAL AND FRATERNAL

The members of Elgin lodge, 155,
N.E.O.P., held their regular meeting in Veritas hall, Branch street last evening. Routine business was transacted and it was announced that De-mory Grand Leonard W. Durkee and suite of Haverhill will be tendered a reception in this city May 15.

J. A. Garfield Corps

A business meeting of J. A. Garfield, W.R.C., was held last evening with the president, Mrs. Almira Kilpatrick in the chair. Routine business was transacted and it was announced that the corps will furnish dinner and supper to the comrades on Memorial day.
Prior to the business meeting whist was played.

Quick Recovery by Patrolman Swanwick of Automobile Stolen by Soldier

Recovering a stolen auto before the owner knew that it was missing was the stunt which Patrolman Swanwick turned in last evening, and the case of the stolen car and a YD boy from Colorado, who is alleged to have taken it, occupied the major portion of today's police court session.

Frank Pinson, the defendant, who was charged with larceny of a Chevrolet automobile valued at $700, the property of Dr. Samuel Horne, and also with operating a machine without a license, told the court that he met another soldier outside of the Strand building late yesterday afternoon, and that the other man, who was pretty well "lit up," asked him to drive the car around a bit and meet him later on, as he himself was too drunk to operate it.

Officer Swanwick was then called and testified that shortly after 5 o'clock he was on traffic duty at Merrimack square when Pinson came tearing in from Central street in the car. He nearly knocked the officer down as he went by and refused to stop when signalled. The officer decided that the speeding car would bear investigation and accordingly jumped on the running board of a passing machine and requested full speed ahead up Merrimack street after the other car.

He caught up with Pinson as the latter was turning into Dummer street, and placed him under arrest. Shortly after the pair arrived at the station Dr. Horne phoned that his car had been stolen from in front of the Strand and was informed by the superintendent that thanks to the quick work of the officer his machine was waiting for him in front of the station.

Pinson was found guilty on both complaints, and the case was continued until Tuesday in order to get in touch with the camp authorities. Bail was set at $300.

Juvenile Session

A comparatively small number of youthful offenders were present in the juvenile session, and in most cases were placed on probation with the understanding that restitution would be made for damage committed. Joseph H. Kane, who was found guilty of breaking, entering and larceny, was given a direct sentence to the industrial school at Shirley.

LAWRENCE MILLS MAY GRANT INCREASE

LAWRENCE, May 2.—Local textile plants will, it is understood, announce a ten per cent. increase in wages to all their operatives effective next Monday or on the Monday following. The mills have not officially announced the increase yet, but it was learned Thursday from a reliable source that the announcement will be forthcoming shortly. Approximately 25,000 textile workers now engaged at the plants will benefit by the wage increase while many who are out because of the strike will, in all probability, return to the places formerly held by them, after the increase is granted. Just what effect the wage increase will have on the recent strike remains to be seen but it is almost certain that many of the strikers will welcome the opportunity to go back to work.

May Day Observed

The International Socialist Labor day was observed Thursday in this city and several thousand local strikers and strike sympathizers took part in it. Everyone who took part in the observance wore red in some form or other, red flowers, red neckties, red waists and red ribbons.

What had all the appearances of an effort to parade the streets during the noon hour was prevented by the police under the leadership of Marshal O'Brien and the patient efforts on the part of the police was the only thing that prevented what might have developed into serious trouble.

Large crowds came down Lawrence street just after 12 o'clock when meetings in Lexington hall and a church on Elm street near Lawrence street broke up. The crowds went along Lawrence street toward Essex street, but were blocked by mounted officers at the corner of Haverhill street. They were ordered to turn off into Haverhill st. in both directions, some going toward Amesbury street and some toward Jackson street.

MINSTREL SHOW

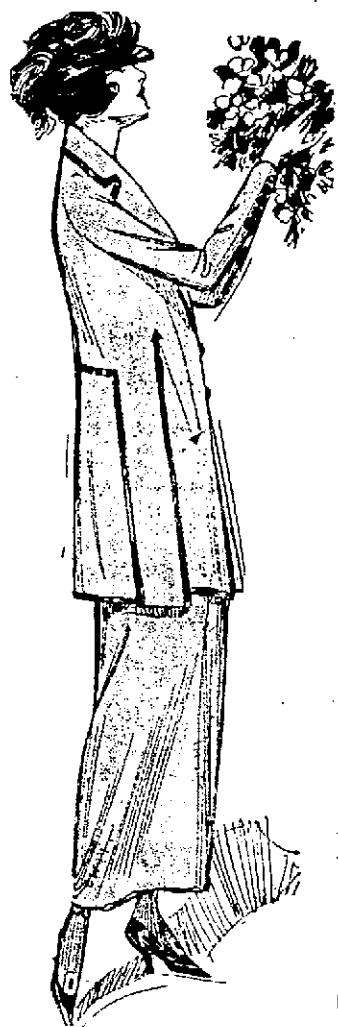

BY THE ZOO CLUB

The minstrel show which the Zoo club members will stage at the Lowell Opera House Sunday evening promises to be one of the most enjoyable events of the present season, and all the "antics" will be seen at their best. A benefit is to be given from the proceeds to the local branch of the Salvation Army, and if one is to judge from the heavy advance sale of seats so far recorded, the local organization will receive a splendid boost at the close of the show.

All kinds of surprises and novelties are in store for those who witness Sunday evening's performance, and Di-

Easy Way to Remove Freckles and Blotches

Some women have skin of such texture they occasionally are annoyed by the sudden appearance of freckles, slight eruptions or fine lines. In such cases if one will procure an ounce of ordinary mercurized vas at any drug store, apply a little of it before retiring, like cold cream, she can easily overcome the trouble. When the vas is washed off next morning, minute baby skin particles come with it. The entire outer cuticle is removed in this way in a week or so, with all its defects. No bleach could so effectively remove freckles or blemishes. The new surface is smooth, clear, (it should be) looking. No pain or inconvenience accompanies this simple treatment.—Adv.

SACRED CONCERT SUNDAY EVENING

In order to replenish the fund so commendably inaugurated to establish a scholarship at Boston college, the St. Patrick's Academy Alumni association will conduct a big sacred concert next Sunday evening. In years gone by this organization has conducted many events that have enlisted the co-operation of the public, who feel that the cause of higher education receives a healthy stimulus by lending encouragement to such projects. On Sunday 14 of the city's best soloists will assist in the program and a powerful chorus of 80 voices will materially swell the pleasure of the affair. Charles P. Minor will be musical director and the officers of the alumni, aided by an enthusiastic committee, are in charge of the plans. The price of the tickets will be but 25 cents.

3224 KILLED BY MOBS IN U. S. IN LAST 30 YEARS

NEW YORK, May 2.—In the last 30 years 3224 persons have been put to death in the United States by mobs, according to a report made public today by the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People.

From 1889 through 1918, the north had 219 victims, the south 2534; the west 156 and Alaska and other localities 15.

"Georgia leads in the list with 386 victims," says the report, "followed closely by Mississippi with 373 victims, Texas with 295; Louisiana with 212; Alabama with 276; Arkansas with 211; Tennessee with 196; Florida with 178 and Kentucky with 169.

"Fifty colored women with 11 white women were lynched in 14 states. Thirteen of the 14 states in which women fell victims to mobs were southern states, Nebraska being the only state outside the south which lynched women.

"Despite President Wilson's earnest appeal, made under such extraordinary circumstances, lynchings continued during the remaining period of the war with unabated fury. Sixty-three negroes, five of them women and four white men fell victims to mob ruthlessness during 1918, and in no case was any member of the mobs convicted in any court and in only two instances were trials held. In both of these instances the mob members were acquitted.

"It is apparent that lynchings of negroes for other causes than the so-called 'one crime' have for the whole period been a large majority of all lynchings and that for the past five years, less than one in five of the colored victims have been accused of rape or attacks upon women."

May 28 Date Set For Banquet and Welcome Home Party to Lowell Boys

May 28 is the official date set for a big banquet and welcome home party to the boys of the 101st Regiment who had from Lowell, according to a decision reached at a meeting of the 101st Auxiliary last evening. Mrs. William H. Merritt, the chairman, presided. Where the banquet is to be held has not yet been decided, but the state armory in Westford street seems to be most prominently considered.

Some of the boys from the 101st who returned to their homes in the Spindale City this week after many months of hunting the Hun did not bring with them enough cash to buy a city block—in fact, many of them came home if not entirely broke, at least badly bent. Which set the ladies of the 101st Auxiliary to thinking. Now when these energetic and efficient ladies start to use their gray matter overtime, things are due to happen, which accounts for the trip when the members of the auxiliary, made to Boston yesterday where they told their story to the state ladies auxiliary board of the 101st. "The boys who fought and won must have clothes," stated the ladies from Lowell, emphatically, and the 101st officials agreed that they must, and promptly awarded a contract to the Merchants Clothing Co. to supply the boys with proper raiment, while they stood by hand with the necessary funds. More power to you, ladies!

CONCERT AT SACRED HEART CHURCH

In a program embracing some of the most classic and beautiful numbers of all history, the choir of the Sacred Heart church, assisted by talented soloists from all over the city, will give a grand sacred concert next Sunday evening at the Sacred Heart church, Moore street, beginning at 8 o'clock. Such soloists as Miss Frances Tighe, soprano; Miss Harriet Moran, soprano; William Gookin, baritone; James S. King, tenor; and Andrew A. McCarthy, in the town of Mt. Holly yesterday for Sacred Heart quartet, will be heard in numbers which are the products of musical masters and which have come down through the ages as the supreme testimony to the genius of the teacher. Mozart's dramatic "Glory Be to God on High," from the Twelfth Mass; Rossini's superb "Indemmenatus," Verdi's "Agnus Dei," and Mendelssohn's "The Lord is Great," are but a few of the numbers to be given. John J. Kelly will direct the program and assist at the organ.

TEACHER ON TRIAL

Rutland Woman Charged With Ill-Treatment

RUTLAND, Vt., May 2.—There was a real vacation at the Rutland school yesterday. A majority of the pupils and a considerable part of the residents of the town were in Rutland county to testify in the case of the teacher of the school, Mrs. Alice Lackey, who is being sued for damages of $1500 by William E. Sharon, father of Chester Sharon, a pupil of Mrs. Lackey's school, who is alleged to have been beaten up by the teacher on Dec. 2 last. It developed from testimony that there had been ill feeling between the Lackeys and the Sharons for a long time.

Witnesses for the plaintiff testified that Mrs. Lackey struck young Sharon over the head several times with a heavy ruler and that the boy was further woman-handled in the hall, although none of the witnesses saw this part of the affair. Sharon testified that he was choked and kicked and said that he had been doing nothing to warrant the punishment, hostility being started by the teacher, who he can hitting him over the head with a book.

The defense introduced several pupils, the testimony of these sounding of his thrashing. The defense will introduce more testimony today.

Brush up on your history and learn more about that grand little woman—

BOSTON'S INCOME HAS DROPPED OVER MILLION

BOSTON, May 2.—Boston's income for the year has already shrunk $1,131,563.46 from that of the same period of last year, and City Collector Frank S. Deland and other officials are bestirring themselves to fill up this big fiscal gap from sources other than liquor license fees, upon which the loss rests.

At the request of Mayor Peters, Mr. Deland has carried on a drive among city employees for the payment of the $2 poll tax, and last night it was said that about 200 of the workers in various departments had not yet "come across," although the end of the specified time for payments approaches. The plan is to "post" employees in their respective departments who do not pay.

While all other licenses are permitted to pay for their liquor licenses by the month in advance for the last two months in which licenses will be issued, hotel men, enjoying the midwinter liquor license, are required to pay the full year's fee, $500. Saloon-keepers paid $300 yesterday, instead of the $1200 yearly fee, and will pay another $100 on June 1.

Inholders paid $210 as a monthly fee, while second-class licenses cost $70, third class $120, fourth class $40 and fifth class, brewers, $175. Clubs paid $40 for one month, in place of the customary $450 annual fee.

All the brewers have taken out licenses as usual, pending the adjustment of the dispute over 2.75 per cent beer. There is a feeling among the liquor dealers that by July 1 the legal status of this light beer will have been decided in favor of a continuance of its sale, and they expect to get enough of it to keep doing business.

Madame Lucia Serrao, woman sculptor, with the bust of a soldier she has designed for a war memorial.

ARTIST SAYS THAT WOMEN DESIGN
THE BEST WAR MEMORIALS, AND HE KNOWS

(N.E.A. Special to The Sun)
CLEVELAND, O., May 2.—Why should not the women artists of the nation be recognized when our cities begin to design and erect their war memorials?

This point has been raised by one of the most successful of America's women sculptors, Mme. Luella Varney Serrao, a Cleveland artist of international reputation.

Mme. Serrao's suggestion was made in the course of an interview endorsing the movement set on foot by the American Commission of Fine Arts, the American Civic association, and other organizations which are working for the recognition of true art principles in the erection of war monuments. "Our Civil War monuments," said Mme. Serrao, "were in many cases little better than elaborations of the tombstone school of sculpture with the addition of a few pyramids of cannon balls. Today the public has come to appreciate art much more keenly, and it is the duty of the municipalities which are planning memorials to the boys who fought in this war to lead instead of following public taste."

"A scheme has already been inaugurated in some art circles by which the women of the country—as the mothers of the race, most poignantly affected by war's horrors—would be chosen to design some of the war memorials. This would include memorial building plans by women architects, and monumental figures modeled by women sculptors."

"There is a touch about the work of women, delicate, tense, poignant and sympathetic, which would help them to put into their memorial designs a depth of emotion and tenderness of appeal that would make our war mon-

A Single Remedy Often Cures

BY VALENTINE MOTT, M.D.
It is almost impossible to give a list of the endless diseases that follow in digestion. Perhaps a whole column in this newspaper would be required to print them all. You eat to keep alive—to supply blood and flesh and bone and muscle and brain. It is easy to see that if your food is not digested and taken up by the delicate organs and distributed where it is needed, a disease of some sort is sure to come. Dyspepsia is a common symptom, and so are liver complaints, loss of flesh, nervousness, bad memory, dizziness, sleeplessness, no appetite. Many times when neglected, indigestion results in coughs, throat diseases, catarrh, bronchitis and even more dangerous things. And all these disorders arise because the food is not properly digested in the stomach. It is plain even to a child that relief and cure are to be had only by setting up a healthy condition in the stomach. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery makes an amazing total of thousands.

I know of no advice better than this: Begin a home treatment today with this good vegetable medicine. It will show you better than I can tell you what it will do. When taking Golden Medical Discovery, you can rest assured of one very important thing—it contains neither alcohol nor opiates. There is nothing in it but standard roots and herbs that possess curative properties of a high order. A safe medicine in the only kind you can afford to take.—Adv.

ments really worthy of the magnificent sacrifices of the men who fell, and truly representative of the high ideals for which they fought."

Mme. Serrao, an American-born woman, is the widow of Andrea Serrao, famous Italian art critic. For years her work in her beautiful studio in Rome attracted world-wide attention. Following her husband's death, she returned to her native land. Among her more widely known portrait busts are the one which she made of Mark Twain—the last for which he ever sat—and the only bust ever made of Mary Baker G. Eddy, founder of Christian Science.

Mme. Serrao is already engaged in designing a number of war memorials for different cities.

ARE SCHOOL TEACHERS AS VALUABLE AS SCHUR-WOMEN?
MONEY TALKS!

BY MARGUERITE EDWARDS
What is a school teacher worth to the community?

Worth as much as a scrub woman, a laundress, a ditch digger?

Money talks, they say—and if it's true, money says the teacher is not! School teachers themselves have been saying mildly, and sadly for years that they were underpaid, that they could barely live on their salaries. But they kept on living, and teaching, and guiding and loving our children—so nobody paid any attention.

Now, suddenly, a great many persons are beginning to pay attention for the school teachers are quitting work. They are turning to other professions. The normal schools which train teachers have few to train. Those now in the profession who can leave it are leaving, and no new teachers take their places. To meet the war emergency the government itself issued pleas for more teachers, accepted part time teachers, even urged married women to give some of their time to teaching. All to no avail. A sane woman will not accept an ill-paid job when she can get a better job at home salary.

Just what is the salary situation?

LEMON JUICE
FOR FRECKLES

Girls! Make beauty lotion for a few cents—Try It!

Squeeze the juice of two lemons into a bottle containing three ounces of orchard white, shake well, and you have a quarter pint of the best freckle and tan lotion, and complexion beautifier at very, very small cost.

Your grocer has the lemons and any drug store or toilet counter will supply three ounces of orchard white for a few cents. Massage this sweetly fragrant lotion into the face, neck, arms and hands each day and see how freckles and blemishes disappear and how clear, soft and rosy-white the skin becomes. Yes! It is harmless and never irritates.—Adv.

FRECKLE-FACE

Sun and Wind Bring Out Ugly Spots. How to Remove Easily.

Here's a chance, Miss Freckle-face, to try a remedy for freckles with the guarantee of a reliable concern that it will not cost you a penny unless it removes the freckles; while if it does give you a clear complexion the expense is trifling.

Simply get an ounce of Othine—double strength—from any druggist—and a few applications should show you how easy it is to rid yourself of the homely freckles and get a beautiful complexion. Barely is more than one ounce needed for the worst case.

Be sure to ask the druggist for the double strength Othine as this strength is sold under guarantee of money back if it fails to remove freckles.—Adv.

ADMITTS 20 BURGLARIES

Boy, While Handcuffed,
Jumped From Train and
Was Badly Injured

BARNSTABLE, May 2.—Edward R. Baker, who the police say, has confessed to 20 burglaries in this state and claims to have escaped from a Connecticut reformatory, was held for the grand jury today on charges of breaking and entering railroad stations at Sagamore and Bourneville. Before being taken to court, jail physicians took 20 stitches in the prisoner's head, arms and neck to close up wounds received when he jumped from a train while being brought here from Boston, yesterday where he had been arrested.

Although handcuffed, he dove through a window while the train was traveling 15 miles an hour between Sagamore and Bourneville. Some hours later he was found in the woods exhausted and badly injured. Baker told the police that he was 18 years of age and that his home was in Stratford, Conn.

GOOD PRICES FOR OLD BUILDINGS

John H. Welton, of 223 Parker street, bought the two sets of buildings on the parcels of land taken over by the city for an addition to the Morey school at the public auction conducted yesterday afternoon by Simon E. Harris at the direction of Commissioner George E. Marchand of the public property department. For the two-story dwelling, stables and carriage house at 469 Wilder street, formerly owned by Rose Lusk, Mr. Welton paid $1025 and for the cottage, stable carriage house and workshop at 475 and 477 Wilder street, formerly owned by Elizabeth Gardner, he paid $800.

Mr. Welton plans to move the buildings to Highland avenue. The foundations of the buildings were not included in the sale, merely the buildings and furnaces. The understanding is that the present tenants shall vacate the buildings on or before June 1 and that the buildings be moved within 10 days after that date. There was a large crowd present at the auction and the bidding was of a fast and snappy nature. Mr. Welton's chief competitor was Esrel Greenberg.

Mrs. W. C. Brown Tells How She Was Able To Do Own Housework After Suffering Four

Mrs. Brown, a Needy Woman, Who Talks For Publication.

Yesterday was the banner day for Mr. Vincent, the Weldon man who is meeting the public at a local drug store. Lowell people and many from out of town are flocking to his place of business, and the medicine has done for him. Among those who considered it a long time to get well was Mrs. W. C. Brown of 21 Circleville street. Baverhill, she said:

"I thought this medicine was like all the rest of the medicine remedies advertised. I suffered for four years the tortures of rheumatism, sciatica and neuritic neuralgia. The pain in my hip and back was terrible and for 12 weeks I was compelled to have a cast applied and lie in bed. I was about the place, unable to dress, undress; if anyone but moved the bed clothes I would scream from the pain, or if anyone even came near the bed I would cry out. The pain was as sharp as a knife. My days were torture and my nights hours of suffering. When my husband called at the drug store for a package of Weldon I was unable to dress without assistance and had to be helped into bed. After taking Weldon only one week I could see a marked change and in a short time I was able to do my own housework, the first time for more than a year. I am telling all my friends about Weldon and would not be without this valuable medicine for anything. I really cannot praise it too highly. The Weldon man will continue to give out the booklet, 'Rheumatism, Sciatica, and Neuritic Neuralgia' and explain more about Weldon every day and evening at Brown's drug store. He says every sufferer should get a free copy of this wonderful little book while the supply lasts. They are free.—Adv.

STRIKE TIES UP PAPERS

Bulletin, Single Typewritten Sheet, Only Paper in Albany Today

ALBANY, N. Y., May 2.—The only local newspaper published in Albany today was the Bulletin, a single typewritten sheet, issued by the Victory loan committee, and distributed by letter carriers. The composing rooms of the regular papers, both morning and afternoon, were still tied up by a strike of printers who left their machines at midnight Wednesday. The Bulletin had a little local news, but dealt largely with the loan.

M. G. Scott, president of the International Typographical Union, was expected from Chicago. About 2500 building trades workers who struck yesterday remained idle today.

RECRUITING FOR ARMY'S TANK CORPS

The tanks are coming—again! Lowell people were much interested in the whippet tank that pounded through this city's streets last Saturday afternoon and many who did not see the giant expressed regret at having lost the opportunity.

However, the United States army recruiting office will endeavor to allay their sorrow to some extent by having the big fellow that was here last week in the interest of the Victory loan make a return trip in the interest of recruiting for the army's tank corps.

Announcement was made at the local army station today that one of the whippet tanks which has been touring New England in the interest of the loan would come to Lowell some time during the week of May 12, the exact date to be decided later.

The tank corps requires skilled and unskilled men and is a very attractive branch of the service. The proportion of non-commissioned officers to privates is greater in this than any other branch, thus affording excellent opportunities for promotion. The corps is located at Camp Mead, Md., and men without mechanical experience will be trained in the tank corps training school there where complete courses in various trades are given.

NEW ENGLAND'S LOAN

BOSTON, May 2.—New England's Victory loan total stood today at $158,259,000. This was an overnight gain of but $13,665,000, less than half the daily average necessary to enable the district to obtain its quota of $275,000,000 before the close of the campaign. Loan workers declared the situation was serious and called for extra effort to bring home to the people the necessity of answering the appeal.

Nearly half of the total for yesterday came from Massachusetts, which contributed $6,211,000. Figures for the other states were: Rhode Island, $2,338,000; Connecticut, $2,072,000; Vermont, $342,000; New Hampshire, $255,000; Maine, $145,000.

The total of individual subscribers was reported at 150,712, of which 29,142 was represented by subscriptions yesterday.

New York Subscriptions

NEW YORK, May 2.—Victory note subscriptions in this district took an overnight jump of $34,402,300, according to compilations up to 10 a. m. today, being one of the best gains made so far in the campaign. The additional subscriptions brought the total up to $223,781,050.

WARM FOUND GUILTY

slaughter For Second Time
—Girl Murdered

ST. ALBANS, VT., May 2.—Robert Warm, a former soldier, on trial for the murder of Jennie Hemmingway in August, 1917, was found guilty of manslaughter for the second time today. The jury was out 18 hours.

Warm was convicted of manslaughter in September, 1917, and was sentenced to a term of 10 to 14 years in state prison but a retrial was ordered on the ground of misconduct of a juror. The second trial lasted nine days. Sentence was deferred to permit counsel for the defense to file a motion for arrest of judgment.

The body of the girl was found in a cornfield after an all-night search. Warm, who had been her companion, was arrested. The defense was based on Warm's story, that he was attacked by other soldiers while walking with the girl and ran away. Later when it was reported that she had failed to return home, he joined the searching party.

KING FERDINAND TO MARCH INTO BUDAPEST

VIENNA, May 2.—King Ferdinand of Roumania, accompanied by French generals, is about to enter Budapest at the head of his troops, a Bucharest despatch to the Neue Freie Presse says.

GREAT DAYS THESE FOR LOCAL ANGLERS

Trout fishing in the streams of Lowell and vicinity is on in full swing and it is reported that since the season opened April 15, many good catches have been made. It is a common occurrence to see boys, young men and old men whipping the brooks.

Trout fishing is considered a healthy and very enjoyable sport, for it provides great exercise in the open air and considerable enjoyment, while at the same time if one has any luck, a most palatable dish is the result of his day's work.

Anglers are very numerous this year and the increase in the number of fishermen is due greatly to the activity of the Lowell Fish and Game association in stocking brooks, ponds and lakes with various species of fish. Practically every brook, pond and lake in Lowell and surrounding towns including Tewksbury, Dracut, Westford, Chelmsford, Tyngsboro, Acton and other places have been stocked with white, yellow and blue perch, rainbow and square tail trout and other species of fish, which afford great sport for the angler.

In many instances fries have been planted, but this has not proven successful, for it is claimed that about only 10 per cent. of the fries are hatched out, the other 90 per cent. serving as food for fishes, so that the Lowell Fish and Game association then got busy stocking the streams with fingerlings and the result has been very gratifying.

According to the law the trout season opens April 15 and closes Aug. 1, and no brook trout measuring less than six inches can be legally caught in Massachusetts, while five inches is the limit in New Hampshire waters. This law also applies to lake trout, but, according to many sportsmen, it is out of the ordinary to catch a lake trout measuring less than 10 inches. It may be well right here to remind the anglers that no resident of Massachusetts can fish in New Hampshire waters without first providing himself with a license, which is issued for one dollar. It may be wise for those who wish to try their luck at Long pond to get a New Hampshire license, for the pond takes in both Massachusetts and New Hampshire, and unless one is well acquainted with the premises, he does not know whether he is fishing in this state or in the Granite state and a fish warden is liable at any minute to "shine" his badge.

Many good catches have been made at Long pond this year, according to reports, and Chief of Police William Cullinan of Dracut is responsible for the statement that very recently a resident of the town, who was fishing for hornpouts in the evening, landed two steel head trout that weighed no less than a pound and a half each. Of course this was an accidental catch, but at the same time it is a reminder that trout is plentiful at Long pond. Extra good catches of hornpouts have also been made at that pond.

Lake Mascopie at Lakeview was stocked with blue perch a few years ago and it is believed that this species of fish must now weigh between two and four pounds. It is a most delectable fish, even better than the white perch, so it is claimed, and should prove an attraction for the sportsmen.

The various ponds in Westford, which includes Force Village and Graniteville, have also been stocked and this year should prove a banner one for the fishermen. All the brooks in the surrounding towns have been planted with trout of the rainbow variety, and it is said that Black brook is one of the favorite fishing grounds for the rainbow trout. Beaver brook, beyond Dracut, is also an excellent place for fishing, but Assistant City Clerk William P. McCarthy, says just because the brooks and ponds have been stocked with thousands of fish, one must not believe that all he has to do is to go along a stream, cast his line and pull in a nice fat trout, for this is not so. One may travel for hours and cover a large area before he is fortunate to land one trout, for the trout travels and travels fast. This, however, is about the best time of the season for trout fishing.

was decorated with a Distinguished Service Cross, bearing the words, "For Valor," when he made many perilous flights behind and parallel to the German lines seeking out Prussian Guard locations who were concentrated for a counter-attack. As a result of his observations and subsequent reports the enemy's plan was frustrated.

A Croix de Guerre with palms and star, indicating eight citations for bravery is worn by Lieut. Blugman, "the fighting parson." Sent overseas as a chaplain, he was over the top and under fire with the doughboys in Cantigny on the fourth day he was in France. He was assigned to the line as a platoon leader, company commander after the captain was killed at Soissons; wounded seven times twice at Verdun, once in the Argonne and four times in other sectors, captured when his raiding party armed only with Enfields was overpowered by a German patrol with machine-guns, rescued by killing his guard with the German's own bayonet—that is part of the war record of this gallant Methodist preacher. He was in the thick of the fighting at Soissons, at Verdun, in the Argonne, St. Mihiel and in the Toul sector, and is one of the officers of this doughboy company of coast artillery shell hoards.

Three enlisted men of the outfit wear the Croix de Guerre. Sergt. Roy Tynest was decorated for coolness and bravery under fire when he stuck to his post through intense high explosive and gas and gave the gas alarm in time to save his entire battery. Private Alvin Edwards got the cross for sticking at his post for eight hours, although wounded in the shoulder and one hand by shrapnel. Private Fred W. Jubb received the cross for staying in an extremely dangerous position even after being ordered out by an officer. He was in charge of the battery's aiming lights. The man who fired the first big shell of the American heavy artillery in France, Sergt. Joseph Hruska, also is with the outfit.

In addition to Col. Spurgin, the following officers are with the battery: Lt. Col. R. P. Hall, Maj. Eugene Villaret, Maj. E. S. Harrison, Major M. R. Payne, Major Tucker, Pendleton, Major C. A. Meserve, Major C. C. Atkin, Capt. S. L. Holland, Capt. S. W. Landen, Jr., Capt. E. A. Willie, First Lieut. P. E. Singman, First Lieut. M. A. Stoddard and Second Lieut. C. E. Moore.

At 4:30 o'clock this afternoon the outfit was again on the march and finished its previously marked-out parade route. Starting from John street the battery passed through Page street to Bridge, to Fifth, to Read, to Sixth, to Bridge to Merrimack as far as Monument square. Hundreds of people lined the streets and cheered the boys as they rumbled by.

The band will take part in the big outdoor mass meeting to be held in front of city hall tonight at 8 o'clock, when prominent Victory loan speakers will address the crowd and the searchlight of the artillery train will

quired to work 10 hours in a 21-hour day. An executive of the Lowell branch stated to The Sun today that it was expected that very shortly an order would be received here from Washington ordering that the 8-hour day be inaugurated. He said the time of receiving it was uncertain. It might be received tomorrow or might be delayed for two weeks.

The Boston report has it that the change will be made in the suburban express offices as rapidly as additional help can be hired and trained. Here in Lowell it was stated that the express company workers had completed all necessary plans for forming themselves into a union. It was stated that, differently from the attitude taken by Postmaster General Burleson in regard to telephone and other workers under his jurisdiction, Walter Hines, head of the express service in the United States, is in sympathy and approves the forming of unions among express workers and also stands for the 8-hour working day.

BOYLE "COMES BACK" RED SOX ON HOME LOT

Boxed Like Champion and Won Decision Over Sensational Louisiana

Phinney Boyle of Lowell won a great victory over Louisiana, the southern sensation, before a large crowd at the Crescent A.A. last night. Boyle was in rare form and he gave one of the best exhibitions of his career. He was careful at all times, was perfect on distance, and his hitting, footwork and all round generalship brought him a well earned decision after 12 fast and furious rounds. Boyle had to be in good form for he at the end of the fight was a "rough baby" who carried a heavy wallop in both hands and ducked and stepped around in whirlwind fashion. When right Boyle has few superiors at long range boxing. This is where he shines, and when he sticks to this style, he's a hard man to beat. He was there last night, leading and crossing like a machine, cautious at all times, but not too much so to slow up the battle. In fact, Louisiana was such a game boy, and such a "cheer" in assimilating punishment that there was not a dull moment during the entire 12 rounds. Boyle had nine of the 12 rounds showing his best form in the third fourth and last sessions. His victory comes at a most opportune time and a verdict over such a formidable opponent as Louisiana places him up at the top again. His many friends were elated over his "comeback" and gave him a great hand as he left the ring.

Tommy Doyle, of Lowell, who had not been seen in a local ring for several seasons, as he only recently was discharged from Uncle Sam's service, met Fred Williams of Boston in the semi-final of eight rounds. Doyle got away to a poor start but in the final stages came back strong and performed in old time form. Williams proved a very sturdy opponent, a fast boxer and a good hitter. He led at the outset but Doyle's strong finish wiped out his advantage and a draw decision proved very popular with the fans.

In the first bout, Joe Armstrong won over Jack Fallon of Lawrence, on points in the first round. Fallon hit Armstrong after knocking him down, and the referee gave Armstrong the decision accordingly.

The second bout brought together Eddie Mansfield of Lowell and Young Drew of Lawrence. Action was fast, but brief. Drew put Mansfield out in the first round.

It was announced that Harry Carlson, who had challenged the winner of the Boyle-Louisiana bout, will appear here against Boyle on next Thursday night. The semi-final next week will be between Billy Woods of Manchester and Willie Roberts of the Radio school.

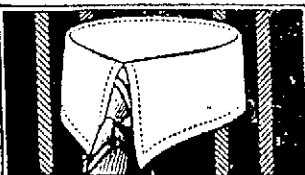

A BARREN FIELD

Leonard Must Step Into Welterweight Class For Action

Now that Benny Leonard has disposed of Ritchie he looks over the remaining entries in the welterweight class, and what he finds? Nothing. When he weighed Willie he did a job on the whole lightweight division, for no other boxer steps in that class who could for a minute stand up under the champion's game. Benny has a couple of fights billed in the near future, one of them with Harvey Thorpe, but both will be more along the line of work-outs for him, just exhibitions. The lightweight field seems more barren than ever today. In other words there always were a few boys, like Leach Cross, sticking around who always could be counted on to step in and give the champion a battle, and sometimes give better than they received, but there is none such now.

It is almost a surety that Leonard will have to climb up into the welterweight class for his next bout, and it would not be surprising to see him matched with Jack Britton before long. He already has met the Britton twice, and beaten him both times, and it would not take a great stretch of imagination to see Benny win again over this time as a knockout—yes, even over the short run. His manager, Billy Gibson, has admitted since the scrap with Ritchie that Leonard could have put the youngster away at almost any time after the second round, but that the champion was boxing on orders from his second, Enzie, who cautioned him to wait until the end. It hardly seemed possible that a hitter of Leonard's power could help but knock out a man in a round such as Ritchie's after the second round unless he was pulling his punches.

RED SOX ON HOME LOT PLAY POORLY

BOSTON, May 2.—Boston lost its opening game at Fenway Park, losing yesterday, at New York, 7 to 3. The attendance was 11,500. Feeling between the teams was intense. Pipp was expelled from the game for disputing with Empire Combs and Mays and Derrill Pratt were quarreled as players before they came to blows. Mordridge filled the bases with home runs in the eighth inning, with his team leading, 2 to 1. Quinn then relieved him and the Red Sox scored two runs and tied the score, only to see New York, with two men on in the ninth, make four runs on a double, a single, three errors, a wild pitch and two bases on balls. The score:

New York... 6 2 0 0 0 1 0 4—7 3 1
Boston... 1 0 0 0 0 0 2 0—3 3 3
Batteries: Mordridge, Quinn and Ruel; Mays and Schang.

DETROIT 5, CLEVELAND 1
CLEVELAND, May 2.—Detroit defeated Cleveland 5 to 1 in the opening game here yesterday. Covaleskie, who also lost the opening contest at Detroit, was hit very hard in the first two innings. Pitchers Eismann and Phillips, who succeeded him, were more effective. Boland pitched well throughout and was brilliantly supported. Boland fell the last three innings. The score:

LOWELL BOYS WIN RIFLE CORPS MEDALS

Several young men of Lowell have become actively interested in the Winchester Junior Rifle corps, an organization fostered by the Winchester Repeating Arms Co., and are competing for Winchester marksmanship and sharpshooter medals. Medals have been won so far by Lowell boys as follows: Luther C. Morrill, 28 South Walker street, marksman, with a score of 263 out of a possible 280; Edward Hall, 365 Wilder street, marksman, with a score of 208 out of a possible 280; Chas. W. Lombard, 125 Dover street, sharpshooter, with a score of 303 out of a possible 375.

RIVET AND PAL REED TO BOX HERE

George Rivet, who claims the welterweight championship of Canada, will meet Pal Reed, the Minneapolis welter in the main bout of 12 rounds at the second meeting of the Triangle A.C. at the Playhouse next Tuesday night. Rivet, who while a member of the Canadian army met some of the best men of his weight in the business, reports that he is in perfect condition and anxious to show before his Lowell friends. While in Montreal Rivet engaged in a 12 round bout with Ted Lewis. This was before Rivet won the title from the Englishman. While Rivet lost the award he received much praise for staying with the champion in the first round, having battled with many of the best ones. Young Arville and Young Kearney of Lowell will meet in the second bout. Danie Welsh and Jackie Martini will appear in one preliminary and Tony Pisoni of Lowell and Kid Stone of Lawrence will clash in the other.

DIAMOND NOTES

The Braves were glad to get out of Boston yesterday and left the stage over to the Red Sox. Stallings' men had experienced the toughest kind of sledding since the season opened, and feel that on the road they at least can't do any worse than they did before the home folks.

It is not the fault of the Boston pitching staff that the team now reposes at the bottom of the pile, for both Rudolph and Nell have turned in sweetly pitched games only to have the opposition spirit them away. Loose dealing and, more than that, the same old story of the missing timing bingle have wrecked the parade so far.

We wonder how a suspension will affect Babe Ruth. It ought to make him pause and reflect that Barrow has always given him more than a square deal and that Frazee is paying him a lot of money to play ball, not to break training rules. He likes his own sweet hitting ability too well to jeopardize it by overstepping, he should think.

Burley Grimes and Joe Oeschger have earned a rest. Doing a week's work in one afternoon is rather unusual for any big league pitcher. Brooklyn continued its vicious attack in the long game, gathering 35 hits, Myers leading with three singles, a double and a home run.

The opening of the Red Sox was hardly more auspicious than the start of the Braves on Patriots' day, except the Braves dropped two games on that day against only one for the Sox yesterday.

Whereas Carl Mays beat Mordridge in New York, 10 to 0 on the opening day of the American league season, the latter came back yesterday and left-handed the Sox into submission. Mays was careless and his support not of the kind the Boston team likes to talk about.

Cincinnati still travels along her unimpaired way, with Phil Moran getting every bit of work possible out of his men. His pitchers are working nicely in form and the team goes right after its lead in the early innings, this giving the boxman a percentage to work on. That's the done!

Ping Bodie, Yankee outfielder, and never blessed with a superabundance of gray matter, but who secured his start in the big league on long distance hitting power alone, now and again is ridden by sport writers because of his slow thinking and apparent mental slip-ups. His latest foul occurred in the Yankee-Philadelphia game in New York on Wednesday. With an Athletic runner on first base, the batter lifted a short fly to Ping in centerfield and the "old fox" surprised the world by letting the ball trickie through his fingers and then shooting it to second base to force out the runner on first, who was a fast man on the paths. The next batter, Fred Thomas, ex-Red Sox, also lifted to Bodie's territory and again Ping decided to cross 'em up. This time, however, he did not notice that Thomas had a long lead off first, and easily beat Ping's throw to second after the latter had again purposely dropped the ball for another forecourt. So Thomas was safe and an error went down in the column against Bodie. The next fly that went thru's way received the greatest of care from that gentleman, and he even went so far as to give it an added squeeze after getting his hands on it.

Bodie's attempts at inside baseball are very apt to have just such a conclusion every time he starts, and we surmise he is one of the fellows who will never learn.

SUNDAY BASEBALL FOR NEW YORK

BOXER USING WALTER MOHR'S NAME WAS KNOCKED OUT AT AKRON, O.

NEW YORK, May 2.—Danny Ferguson, of Philadelphia, and not Walter Mohr, of Brooklyn, was the pugilist knocked out by Johnny Griffiths in a bout at Akron, O. Monday night. The Associated Press ascertained this fact as the result of an investigation following Mohr's protest that the report of his defeat was untrue and that he was in Brooklyn at the time the Akron bout was in progress. According to a statement from AJ Lippe, of Philadelphia, manager of pugilists, while Loughlin was to have met Griffiths but owing to illness, a substitute was necessary. Ferguson was sent from Philadelphia under the name of Mohr, to take Loughlin's place. Lippe admits that he knew Ferguson boxed under the name of Mohr. Matchmaker Tommy Walsh of the

150 POLICEMEN INJURED

Sergeant Stabbed—Disorders in Connection With May Day Celebration in Paris

PARIS, May 2.—Two hundred and fifty policemen were hurt, one sergeant being stabbed in the back, during yesterday's May day disorders, according to an announcement by the prefecture of police today. Apparently only one person was killed, a youth named Lorne, who was struck by several bullets. The person who fired the shots is said to have been arrested. Twenty-six persons were severely wounded, 200 slightly injured and 150 arrested. The general labor federation has issued a protest and a committee will meet tonight to consider what steps will be taken as a result of the disorders. The managing committee of the socialist party and the socialist group of the chamber of deputies will also meet.

Deputy Marcel Cachin, writing in Humanite, claims the day was a "magnificent demonstration of the power and discipline of the laboring classes and was marred only by the brutality of the ferocious police." He emphasizes the fact that the soldiers used no violence and that there was no trouble where they were on duty. The injured include 50 policemen and several American soldiers whose curiosity got them into trouble. American ambulances did efficient work in picking up the wounded, the American

At the Invalides bridge, an American lieutenant and two junior officers were stopped by dragoons when they attempted to cross the river. After a parley, the Americans were charged upon by some cavalrymen and in the melee some shots were fired.

During a clash between the police and a crowd in Place de la Bastille, in which 20 persons were wounded, a policeman shouted to the mob: "If you want to fight, go to Versailles and fight the Germans."

The mob took up the cry of "On to Versailles," and a diversion was created which averted more serious fighting. Foreigners were prominent among those engaged in the demonstrations and the police declared that virtually every other leader in the crowds was either Russian, Spanish or a member of some other alien race.

Stormy Protest

PARIS, May 2.—The United Trades union of the department of the Seine has issued a strong protest against the "violent action of the police exercised by order of the government."

SOCIALIST MEETING

About 300 men and women attended a socialist meeting in Colonial hall, Middle street last evening. The meeting was held in observance of "International Labor day" and was presided over by Mrs. William L. Sprague. The speakers were Mrs. Sprague, Mr. Roetzell of Boston, who was connected with the Lawrence strike, Mike Bolivis of Haverhill, Mr. Kismis of Haverhill and Mr. Shiner, also of Haverhill. In the course of the evening copies of the "Revolutionary Age" and other literature were distributed and a collection was taken up.

STORE MEN ASK, ARE Worse This Spring

CORSETS UNDERWEAR?

NEW YORK, May 2.—Are corsets underwear?

This problem was put up yesterday to Commissioner of Internal Revenue Daniel C. Roper in a telegram to the treasury department, from Lew Hahn, executive secretary of the National Dry Goods association. Mr. Hahn protests that the problem is causing grave perplexity to dry goods merchants throughout the country.

The new luxury tax is the cause of the difficulty. An unofficial ruling has declared that corsets are underwear. Mr. Hahn says, and therefore a luxury and taxable. Some merchants are collecting the tax and others are not, and Mr. Hahn appeals to Commissioner Roper to put corsets in the proper place officially.

SCHOOL OF RELIGIOUS EDUCATION HOLDS ANNUAL BANQUET AT FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH

The annual banquet of the Lowell School of Religious Education was held at the First Baptist church last evening and proved a most enjoyable event. The principal speaker was Rev. George W. Orne of Hyde Park.

The banquet was served by a committee of women under the direction of Mrs. L. A. Olney, following which A. K. Whitcomb, of the board of religious education opened the exercises with a short talk and introduced Rev. Frank McKibben, director of the school, as toastmaster. Addresses were made by Rev. H. A. Barker, the father of the movement here, L. A. Olney, president of the board and others.

Rev. Mr. Orne, the final speaker of the evening, spoke of the increasing need for education in this country and said that all education must have religion as a foundation. It is becoming more apparent that religious teaching must be put into the day schools, for Sunday schools have not the time necessary for the work, the speaker said.

In the absence of Harold F. Compton, president of the senior class, the greeting of the class was given by Miss Helen Buttrick and the school hits by Mrs. Robert Nell were also given, as well as the various class yell. In conclusion, Director McKibben gave the thanks of the school to the various people, secretaries, pianists, and others, whose tasks so well filled have meant much to the success of the school, after which the class hymn, written by Arthur W. Shaw, 1917 was sung and Rev. A. S. Beale offered prayer.

VICTORY CLUB ENTERTAINMENT

Members of the Victory club of the Grace Universalist church presented the four-act comedy, "Mo an' Otis," before a large audience in the church parish rooms last night. The cast included: Celia Whitehead, Roger Gage, Ernest Tupper, Portia Murphy, Eleanor Sutton, Leslie Pullen, Bruce Kimball, Dorothy Hall, Mr. Bixby, Maria Richardson and Alice Johnston. The comedy was particularly well given and the audience thoroughly appreciated the first dramatic effort of the club. Dancing followed the play, to the music of Miss Chase's orchestra. Miss Leslie Pullen directed the play, assisted by Mrs. Gage.

Owing to Run-down Condition Caused by the War

Anxiety and worry have a bad effect on the nervous system, and cause the body functions, especially digestion and excretion. Who escaped them during the war? They have made nervousness, paleness, lack of vitality worse this spring.

The very best medicine to take now is Pepton. It strengthens and tones the nerves. It gives a good color to the lips and cheeks. It is the great revitalizer, giving healthy activity to all the vital organs.

This good medicine, which is a real tonic, makes the blood rich in red corpuscles, an abundance of which is indispensable to perfect health. It promptly relieves mental and physical exhaustion, creates an appetite, and promotes sweet, refreshing sleep. Pepton is in the form of chocolate-coated tablets, and is pleasant to take.

EDISON CLUB BANQUET

The first annual banquet of the Edison club, a live-wire organization of young men of St. Anne's church, was held last evening in the parish house, with about 75 members and guests present. The speakers included Rev. Appleton Grannis, Rev. Arthur W. Shaw and Capt. W. C. MacBryne. The president of the club, James Kelly, was toastmaster. Dinner was served at 6.30 o'clock by women of the church connected with the ladies' auxiliary, as follows: Mrs. J. C. Mellon, chairman; Mrs. Catherine Kelly, Mrs. Morse, Mrs. Wright, Mrs. Carlton, Miss Mabel Kelly, Miss Catherine Kelly, Miss Alice Harding, Miss Mary Campbell, Miss Ruth Johnston, Miss Anna Davidson, Miss Mildred Pick and Miss Esther Olson. Several songs were sung by Frank Mills, with William Heller, accompanist. Rev. Mr. Grannis spoke briefly, outlining his plans along athletic lines for the club this summer, and hoped the boys would make the parish house their habitual meeting place. Rev. Mr. Shaw, assistant pastor, spoke of the many good things attained by the club and hoped for continued success. Capt. MacBryne told a most interesting story of his air service in France and was given three hearty cheers at the close. T. R. Williams, boys' work director of the Y.M.C.A., also spoke. The present officers of the club are: President, James Kelly; vice president, Roland Worth; secretary, Ross Taggart; treasurer, Joseph Bassett.

MAY DAY CARNIVAL

The May day carnival at the Y.W.C.A. was somewhat interfered with last evening by the rain, although the moisture could not penetrate through the high spirits and optimism of the association girls and many friends who had gathered to aid them in the formal opening of their new recreation centre and tennis court. Decorations of lighted Japanese lanterns covered the court and were strung across the street but it was thought advisable to take these down when the rain began in earnest. Albert Edmund Brown conducted a spirited community sing, after which Sergt. Noble was introduced to talk for the Victory loan. Mayor Perry D. Thompson also spoke for the drive and commended the enterprise of the girls that had made such a fine recreation field possible. The gathering then went indoors and spent the remainder of the evening in the gymnasium, dancing and playing games.

New Clothes

For the New American

Everything is being arranged to meet peace-time conditions—and the new clothes especially. The styles reflect the after-the-war trend, and lend themselves easily and smoothly to the lines and measurements of the new American.

Our styles are fashioned in this readjusted spirit. Clothes for men of the new type—clothes that win quick favor of men who have caught the broader viewpoint—clothes for men who want quality in every detail and nothing else.

We are ready for all—for energetic business men, professional men, and college men.

HEROIC SALLY RETURNS

May Burdick, 60, Who Worked at Front Under Fire, Arrives at New York

NEW YORK, May 2.—May Burdick, 60-year-old Salvation Army "ladies" mother to thousands of doughboys of the American Expeditionary Forces, returned to New York today on the Nieuw Amsterdam from Brest.

At the front she worked under shell-fire. She fried flapjacks for the soldiers over a stove fashioned from scrap metal and turned the toothsome batter cakes with a scrap of tin roofing. Her hospitality was sometimes a shell-hole and sometimes a cellar or a barn.

She moved her headquarters as the army moved and found time to hold gospel meetings and song services at which many conversions were reported. She finally worked herself into a condition of physical weakness and was found lying ill in the left of a shell-torn stable. She was taken to a military hospital in Paris. When she recuperated she returned to the front.

SAYS COL. LOGAN WAS VICTIM OF PREJUDICE

men of the 101st still in service. But I want to tell you that there was discrimination over there. Colonel Logan recommended 156 men of the 101st Regiment for the distinguished service cross, but the recommendations were pigeonholed by somebody of the high command at the headquarters in Chaumont, France.

Congressman James A. Gallivan made this accusation in an address at the celebration of the 45th anniversary of St. Augustine's Lyceum of South Boston last night. The observance dinner was held at Young's hotel and brought together 100 well known residents of South Boston.

Congressman Gallivan also declared that other things will be told when Colonel Logan gets out of the service and back to civil life. He advocated a monument to Private "Mickey" Perkins, who died on the field of battle in France and who was called by General Edwards "the bravest man he ever knew."

Colonel Logan and Rev. Joseph E. Copping, L.P.C., spiritual director of the lyceum, also spoke.

GERMAN PEACE BUREAU

Began Preparations For
the Peace Conference
in February

COBLENZ, (Correspondence of The Associated Press).—Germany's preparations for the peace conference were conducted by a peace bureau organized in February under direction of the foreign office, according to the Coblenz Volks Zeitung. The peace bureau is composed of five committees which investigated and reported on various phases of the work. The newspaper article says:

"All questions relating to political economy, commercial policy, colonial problems and international law had to be investigated in order that a comprehensive understanding of the German point of view with reference to these questions could be obtained before the commencement of negotiations."

ATHENS, Sunday, April 27.—(By the Associated Press).—King Peter of Serbia, who is living quietly alone in a little suburban retreat overlooking the Bay of Piraeus, six miles from here, expressed through the correspondent today the "profound gratitude of the Serbian nation for the Christian charity of the American people, so marvellously organized by the Red Cross."

The venerable monarch, who will be 75 years old in June, spoke with great feeling of the assistance given by Americans to the population of Serbia and to tens of thousands of refugees, repatriated prisoners and wounded soldiers who since the armistice have poured into the country over every road and mountain pass.

"The smiles which the American Red Cross has brought to the faces of my people," he said, "are the best expressions of gratitude I can give the

He was prompted to speak by two photographs he had received from Major Daniel J. McCarthy of Davenport, Ia., in charge of Red Cross relief work at Skopje, Serbia. One showed a group of ragged, barefooted, despairing women and children in front of the Red Cross relief station at that place and the other showed the same group after having received baths, clothing and food from the Red Cross. One was a picture of misery and dejection; the other contentment and joy.

"You have dried tears, assuaged sorrow and alleviated the sufferings so painfully depicted on the faces of our mothers, sisters and children," said the king.

"Personally, I am profoundly grateful for this Christian charity. I say to the American people: 'Thank you, thank you with all my heart.'"

King Peter, who has been living in this part of Greece for more than a year, a fact which has been unknown to the outside world, asked to be excused from commenting upon the political situation.

The aged ruler's health while it has improved since his last illness is still far from good.

He receives no visitors except his personal physician and his aide-de-camp and keeps himself in such seclusion that even his own minister in Athens has been able to see him only once in the last 18 months. The statement he gave the correspondent today was the first public announcement he has made in more than a year. He is a great admirer of President Wilson, whose photograph may be seen in the living room of his apartment.

WORCESTER HONORS WAR
HEROES, BIG WELCOME

WORCESTER, May 2.—Through a four-mile lane of cheering, confetti-throwing, wildly exuberant people, about 3000 of Worcester's 11,000 soldiers, sailors, marines and nurses who served in the world war paraded yesterday afternoon to receive the welcome home greetings of the heart of the commonwealth. The official reception to the city's fighting men and brave women who faced dangers on the battlefield was the greatest thing of the kind ever seen here, and it showed the recipients how their fellow townsmen appreciate what they have done.

Never before had the city worn such a dress of bright colors, red, white and blue predominating, as it did yesterday. The entire business section and the residential section through which the procession marched was a mass of waving flags and festoons and sunbursts of the national colors, with here and there the flags of the allied nations to greet the soldiers of those armies who went from Worcester before the United States got into the war.

All business was suspended for the day, so that everybody might have a chance to participate in the welcome. Many of the manufacturing plants in the surrounding towns shut down for the day to give their employees a chance to add cheers and applause for the marching men and women.

It is estimated that 250,000 people turned out to welcome the boys home, and the nearest approach to the great crowd in point of size and enthusiasm was on Victory day last November. Yesterday they saw the fighters who had helped to make Victory day possible, and they showered the returned heroes with every mark of regard for their deeds.

As for the heroes, they took the honors with happy faces, even the wounded men who rode in 30 automobiles showing that they had forgotten their disability for the time being by smiling at the salutations as they rode through the cheering crowds.

The parade was formed in the streets adjoining the state armory. At 2.30 it started on its triumphal way in four divisions, with Col. John E. J. Herbert, commander of the 102d Field Artillery, as chief marshal. The entire parade was on foot, with the exception of the wounded, who rode in autos. The men marched without arms or equipment.

The 1st Division, which was made up of the Worcester units, discharged earlier in the week from the 26th Division, Co. G, 101st Infantry; Co. A, C and H, 104th Infantry, and Batteries B and D, 102d Field Artillery, was commanded by Maj. Thomas F. Foley of the 101st Infantry. The 2d Division, composed of men who saw overseas service in other divisions than the 26th, was in command of Maj. Chester D. Heywood; the 3d, composed of marines and sailors, was in command of Lieut. Commander Ernest G. Adams, and the 4th, composed of the Worcester men who fought with the armies of the allies, was in command of Maj. E. H. Allen. Music was furnished for the parade tribute to the dead. Afterward great wreaths of laurel were hung in their memory on the Victory arch by Mayor Pebr G. Holmes and Ex-Major Logan.

The families of the dead soldiers had special seats reserved for them at the arch, and the solemnity of this feature of the demonstration was shown in the ceremony, supplanting the cheering which had preceded it. The 104th Infantry band led the crowd in singing "Nearer,
My God, To Thee."

After the exercises at the arch, the parade was dismissed and the soldiers were taken in charge by their friends and given dinners and all kinds of entertainment. The unattached soldiers, 2500 strong, were given a dinner in the state armory, Co. G, 101st Infantry, was fed in the Denholm & McKay restaurant, Battery B and Co. H, 104th Infantry in the Knights of Columbus building, Battery E in Grand Army hall, Co. A, 104th, in Washburn hall, and Co. C, 104th, in Horticultural hall.
These dinners were prepared especially for the boys by the women's auxiliaries.

Turkey and the fixings were the principal features of the menu. The Knights of Columbus provided continuous entertainment for hundreds of the soldiers during the day and night and the theatres of the city provided free seats for the soldiers who wanted to see the shows.

The day was brought to a close with a Victory ball in Mechanic hall last night, where the returned soldiers, sailors and marines danced until midnight.

The religious observance of the return was marked with a solemn high mass of thanksgiving in St. John's church by Rev. Thomas S. Donaghy, with Rev. James F. Curran, deacon, Rev. Richard J. Don, sub-deacon, and Rev. John P. McDonnell as master of ceremonies.

A special service of thanksgiving was also held in St. Luke's Episcopal church by Rev. Frederick H. Danker, brother of Rev. Walton S. Danker, chaplain of the 104th Infantry, who was killed in France.

What You Need is Vinol

War conditions have made the demand upon a mother's time and energy unlimited. In their zeal to do all in their power for their loved ones, they continually overwork and are soon in a nervous, run-down condition. Vinol, the non-secret cod liver and iron tonic, will build you up and make you strong.

Whitman, Mass.
"I suffered from a nervous, rundown condition and loss of strength so it was hard for me to get around and do my work. After other medicines had failed to help me Vinol restored my health and strength and I heartily recommend it to anyone suffering from a nervous, run-down condition."—Mrs. R. M. Little.

Cleveland, Ohio.
"I keep house for my husband and myself and got into a weak, run-down condition, no strength, languid and no ambition. After doctoring for awhile and getting no better I tried Vinol and to my surprise it built me up and strengthened my whole system. It is certainly a good tonic."—Mrs. Wm.
D. Dawson.

Continued

Fifteen days will be given the enemy to consider the treaty with five days or a week additional for the exchange of views between the allied and German delegations.

Peace Will Begin May 27

Thus, at the latest, if present plans are followed, May 27 should see peace reigning once more between Germany and the allied and associated governments.

A secret plenary session of the conference will be held tomorrow, while on Monday a meeting will be held for the organization of the League of Nations. Italy is still not represented at the conference, but her ambassador is invited to attend such conferences as the regular peace delegation from that country would attend. He has been asked, formally to be present on Monday to represent his nation at the formal launching of the League of Nations.

GERMANS HAVE
POWER TO SIGN

PARIS, May 2.—There is every reason to believe that the German delegation really has full powers and will end the negotiations by signing the preliminaries of the peace treaty, writes Marcel Huin in the Echo de Paris.

The treaty comprises from 15 to 20 chapters, he says. The preamble is contained in the first chapters, setting forth the reasons why the various contracting parties entered the war, and mentioning the necessity for the League of Nations. The second chapter deals with the German frontiers, and the third contains all clauses connected with alterations of frontiers resulting in changes in the sovereignty of territory. The fourth sets forth the military, military and aerial clauses, and the fifth takes up the disposition of the German colonies.

The other chapters are not altogether finished, but they will concern reparations, economic and financial questions, and will deal with the international labor legislation treaty.

The treaty concludes with a chapter concerning the guarantees for the execution of the treaty conditions by the Germans.

Has Brought Disillusionment to Germany, Says German Peace Envoy

LONDON, May 2.—According to a summarized report of an interview given by Herr Schuecking, one of Germany's peace delegates to the Berlin correspondent of the Herald, the League of Nations formulated at Paris, has brought disillusionment to Germany. He says it is regarded by Germans as a thinly veiled scheme for the victorious powers to gain the ascendancy and that it gives the militarists an opportunity to taunt the pacifists for their simplicity.

"If the scheme is adopted in its present form," he says, "the League will lose all its moral authority over all sections of the German people, and will revert to the reaction. Others look forward to the establishment of international socialism."

The German plan for a League, he says, creates a representative world parliament, thus safeguarding the democratic laws of the League and avoiding the return of militarism in a new form.

The correspondent adds: "Herr Schuecking made an instant impression of sincerity and courage, which his life-long fight against militarism and his record as an opponent of the war confirms."

READY TO RECEIVE THREE GIANT U. S. PLANES

HALIFAX, May 2.—Facilities for receiving the three giant hydroaeroplanes of the American navy, which are expected here next week on the first leg of the proposed transatlantic flight, have been completed, according to an announcement today. It is believed that the first landing after leaving Rockaway Point, L. Towers now in charge of the contemplated expedition. The United States cruiser Baltimore is here for the purpose of assisting in flight plans.

NEW ALIMONY RECORD

Mrs. Kendall Receives $4,500,000 in Cash and $100,000 a Year For Life

NEW YORK, May 2.—A record alimony settlement whereby Mrs. Ellen Ballentine Kendall of New York and Bar Harbor receives $4,500,000 in cash and real estate, and $100,000 a year for life, has been made by Lyman P. Kendall, New York banker, it was announced today.

The announcement made by Mrs. Kendall's attorney and corroborated by her, stated that $1,000,000 in cash had been settled on her and that she had been given the Kendall home in New York, valued at $1,500,000 and the Kendall Bar Harbor estate, known as "Sonnet," and valued at $2,000,000. The settlement was by agreement and no stipulation was made to prevent Mrs. Kendall from re-marrying.

Mrs. Kendall's suit, filed several months ago in Maine, alleged incompatibility of temperament and the suit was not contested. Her attorney explained that Mr. and Mrs. Kendall still were good friends and that the principal difference between them had been Mrs. Kendall's desire for social activity while her husband preferred quietude on his Virginia estate.

SALE OF DARTMOUTH COLLEGE PROPERTY

The property in Merrimack and Kirk streets, owned by Dartmouth college and partly occupied by the Bon Marche Dry Goods Co., was sold yesterday to the Bon Marche Co. and as a result of the sale the purchasing company will get busy at once to develop a modern and up-to-date department store.

The property purchased by the Bon Marche Dry Goods Co. includes the land on which the present Bon Marche five-story building stands, the adjoining brick structure known as the Lovejoy building and the three-story brick building in Kirk street, partly occupied by the Bon Marche. The sale was effected through Homer E. Koyes, business director of Dartmouth college.

LOWELL GIRLS AT CAMP DEVENS

"Some entertainers, these Lowell girls," was the way the boys from "over there" commented on the minstrel show which was put on at Y.M.C.A. hut 28 at Camp Devens by the Girls' club of the First Congregational church last evening.

The program included a varied and well-balanced series of musical numbers interspersed with witty "exchanges of opinion" by the girls, and a chorus of 30 voices added materially to the success of the entertainment, which was one of the best of its kind given by any amateur organization.

No Medicine-Chest

Without

Its Family Laxative

From the baby to the grandparents a good laxative is the necessary medicine in the little ills. It wards off serious sickness and saves doctor's bills. Many a cold has been prevented from running into grippe and pneumonia by its timely use.

Many a racking headache has been quickly dispelled by it. And it is a laxative rather than a drastic cathartic or purgative that should be in every family medicine-chest, for a laxative can be used at all ages.

Thousands of good American families have for more than a quarter century used a combination of simple laxative herbs with pepsin known to druggists as Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. It is a laxative- tonic that acts on the bowels and stomach. Infants take it with perfect safety, and it is equally effective for grownups.

Grandparents are now seeing their children give it to their babies. It is excellent for all the family in constipation no matter how chronic, indigestion, wind colic, biliousness, headaches, dyspepsia and similar ills.

The druggist will refund your money if it fails to do as promised.

this season, and reflected creditably on all concerned.

The concert program was as follows: opening chorus, entire company; "Hindustan," Miss Rena Landers; "I Ain't Got Weary Yet," Mr. Galloway; "Tuckin' 'Em Down," Miss Elmore Clifford; "How You Going to Keep Them Down on the Farm," Miss Geneva Hansen; "Mamma's Shufflin' Dance," Mrs. Abair; "When Alexander's Rattling Band Goes into France," Edward Stanley; grand finale, "We'll Never Let the Old Flag Fall."

Henry Hopkins acted as director and filled the position most acceptably, and Miss Farrell, who was in charge of the entertainment committee, was entitled to a large share of the credit for the success of the event.

GLOUCESTER MAN ONE OF 16 LOST WITH TUG

WASHINGTON, May 2.—Two officers and 14 men of the naval tug Gypsum Queen were drowned when the tug struck a rock and sank near Arica Light, on the coast of France, on April 28, while returning to Great after assisting a fleet of mine sweepers in distress.

neers and men of the Gypsum Queen were rescued by tugs and destroyers.

The mine-sweeping convoy was returning to the United States from Brest. When eight hours out it encountered severe weather and turned back.

National War Garden Commission Starts Drive For Community Improvement

WASHINGTON, May 2.—Plans for the biggest drive the country has yet seen for "community improvement" were completed here today by the national war garden commission when twenty thousand garden books were sent to the National Cash Register Co. at Dayton, O. These with motion picture reels showing "victory gardens" will be used by five men, who will tour the country and lecture on the value of home improvements to the home owner, the employer of labor and to the community.

"This is the first big wall-to-be taken at the Bolshevik propaganda," said Charles Lathrop Pack, president of the commission, today. "These reels will be shown and the garden books given out at lectures all over the country. No charge is made for admission to the lectures."

In Illinois another drive is under way with the Central Illinois Public Service Co. under the direction of C. O. Dutton of the commercial department. Through branches in 178 towns in central Illinois the national war garden commission will distribute thousands of its posters and garden and canning books.

The Fidelity Trust Co. of New York is distributing 4000 garden books from the commission and the New York State Bankers association has sent the commission's garden data to every bank in the state. At Rock Island, Ill., the seven thousand workers in the government arsenal are making gardens this year. These are but examples of the drive under way to meet the world food situation and to make for the contented worker throughout the land.

Plant more vegetables to make up for the loss here and there of fruit due to the cold wave, is the final call to the victory gardeners of the country by the national war garden commission. With probable losses in fruit for canning, the victory gardeners must look ahead right now to next winter and plant more vegetables so that the supply for canning may be increased. Reports to the commission show more acreage is being cultivated by communities and business concerns for employes than ever before. Grow a victory bond in your victory garden.

LIONESS KILLS KEEPER

Woodbury, N. J., Thrown Into Panic by Enraged Beast—Shot in Woods

WOODBURY, N. J., May 2.—A lioness in a circus side show killed her keeper before a small crowd of spectators, escaped from her cage and bounded into a small clump of woods near here yesterday afternoon.

A posse of men and boys armed with guns, pikes and stones pursued the animal into the woods and finally killed her with a fusillade of more than 100 shots, 13 of which took effect.

The "big show" was in progress before an audience of several hundred men, women and children when John Henry, keeper of the lioness, "Lucy" and her two cubs, entered the side show cage. Driving the lioness into another compartment, Henry carelessly swung shut the separating door and stopped to fondle the cubs.

The animal threw herself against the door, bursting it open, and with one leap closed her powerful jaws about Henry's neck, killing him instantly.

Attendees in the tent seizing iron bars, hooks and tent stakes belabored the animal in an effort to compel her to release her grip on the keeper.

Infuriated further by the blows, the lioness threw herself against the other door of the cage, which Henry had failed to lock, and burst her way to freedom.

Screams of persons who saw her escape excited the audience in the main tent and a panic followed. Men, women and children scrambled from the tent and ran across lots to the center of the town crying, "A lion has escaped."

Terrified mothers ran through the streets seeking their children. Other women locked and barricaded their homes and sought refuge in cellars. Shopkeepers closed their stores and word was sent to the public schools, which were about to close, not to re-

Shelled by Huns on 1051 Days—1000 Killed—Cathedral Hit 280 Times

RHEIMS, France, Friday, which had a population of 115,175 before the war, now has only 8458 inhabitants; 2557 men, 3253 women and 1212 children.

The "martyr city" was shelled by the Germans on 1051 days, and over 1000 persons were killed, including some 300 women and 150 children. The cathedral was struck by 287 shells up to March 21, 1918. After that date, no record was kept.

April 24, 1917, was the worst day of the war for Rheims. The bombardment was so terrific that no records could be made of the casualties and damage on that day.

CLEANING HOUSE IN THE SPRING

This is the fourth in a series of six articles prepared for Sun readers by the five famous women specialists. This article on "cleaning details" is by L. Ray Balderston, professor of housewifery and laundering at Columbia university.

One of the early things to do in spring housecleaning, and necessarily early, to avoid trouble, is to get the screens ready. Brush them thoroughly, and to make them look well wipe off with kerosene oil. Use only a few drops of kerosene. Should the screens be rusty, they will need painting.

Walls ought to be wiped

down very carefully and thoroughly. Remove all pictures, and with a soft cloth over the broom, clean the walls by rubbing with straight strokes of even pressure. To rub the paper too hard will blot the pattern.

Woodwork ought to be considered with the cleaning of the walls. White paint may be wiped with clear water to which a few drops of ammonia have been added. A special cleanser for white paint is a cloth wrung out of clear water and then dipped in whitening.

Waxed woodwork may be cleaned by wiping with cheesecloth which has been wrung out of hot water. Into which has been put 1 tablespoonful of turpentine, and 2 tablespoonfuls of linseed oil to each quart of hot water. As soon as cool enough to bear the brush, wring out the cheesecloth from this mixture, and wipe the wood. This is also a good cleanser for the floors, making them ready to be waxed or polished afterwards.

Carpets may be sent away to be cleaned, or be done at home. They should have a good airing, and be brushed on both sides; if beaten, a flat beater should be used, as a stick or wire hoop is likely to tear. If after beating, the colors of a rug or carpet are found to be fast, the rug may be freshened by washing with a heavy soap lather which is put on with an old clean scrubbing brush. Wash a small space at a time, and rinse with clear warm water. Let the rug dry, and have a good brushing before it is used.

ESTABLISHMENT OF STEAMSHIP LINE BETWEEN SAN FRANCISCO AND RIO DE JANEIRO

SAN FRANCISCO, May 2.—Establishment of a steamship line between San Francisco and Rio de Janeiro is being urged upon the Brazilian government by Victor du Cunha, consul general from Brazil in San Francisco and, according to his statement, negotiations have been opened between Brazil and the United States looking to that end.

Mr. du Cunha's plan calls for a monthly sailing from both this city and Rio as a beginning, the service to be increased as conditions warrant. Since it is expected that France will shortly release the thirty ships loaned to her by Brazil, many of which are of large tonnage, there would be no difficulty in providing carriers. These vessels were among the fifty German craft which were seized by Brazil during the war.

Dressed Meat Production, Including Lard in 1918, Totalled 20,129,800,000 Lbs.

WASHINGTON, May 2.—American dressed meat production, including lard, amounted in 1918 to 20,129,800,000 pounds—a quantity never before approached in magnitude by the livestock industry of this or any other country. The corresponding figure for 1917 was 16,317,300,000 pounds.

Three-fourths of this enormous increase was in pork and one-fourth was in beef.

The meat surplus in 1918 was so great that extra export demands made little impression on it, although 1918 export shipments of meat and lard nearly doubled the 1917 figures—rising from slightly less than one and three-fourth billion pounds to slightly more than 3 billion pounds—and these figures do not include shipments to American military forces abroad.

The aggregate 1917 consumption of dressed meat and lard in the United States was approximately 14½ billion pounds, but in 1918 it rose to seventeen and one-quarter billion pounds. This means, after allowing for increase in population, and addition of 23 pounds for every man, woman and child in the country—despite the food conservation campaign which in 1917 caused consumption to decline considerably.

"While the people as a whole through their abstinence averted the immediate crisis, it was the farmer who was the really big factor in the ultimate situation," says the bureau of animal industry, United States department of agriculture. "The producer, of course, was expected to do his part, but he did it with such powerful effect that in a single year the meat shortage was turned into a pronounced surplus. Thus in 1918 there was not only meat enough to supply all foreign demands compatible with the restricted shipping facilities, but a greatly enlarged quantity was available for the home consumption.

"To be sure, it cost the farmer more, much more, to feed his animals and get them to market. Likewise, all other steps from producer to consumer became more costly, hence the high prices. But the unprecedented prosperity of the people as a whole enabled them to afford the increased cost. In fact, laboring people probably consumed more meat during the past year than in pre-war times.

"The total number of cattle slaughtered in 1918 is estimated at 15,750,499 as against 13,723,900 in 1917. Their average weights were practically the same for both years, and the beef produced from them was 6,656,000,000 pounds in 1917 and 7,611,000,000 pounds in 1918. This was a remarkable achievement as it hardly would have been credited that beef growers could increase their production a billion pounds in one year.

"The hog matures quickly, therefore a much more rapid increase would be looked for than was the case with cattle. Even so, the results for 1918 can be described only as stupendous. The hogs marketed in 1918 numbered 69,551,700 as against 57,482,800 in 1917. Furthermore, the average weight was 9½ pounds more per hog in 1918. Thus when the animals are turned into pork and lard we have a total production of 11,255,661,000 pounds in 1918 as against 8,478,239,000 pounds in 1917, an increase of 2,777,355,000 pounds, or 32.1 per cent, nearly one-third."

so shown by the bureau. Beef shipments abroad in 1918 were 94 per cent more than in 1917—the chief 1918 items being 344,000,000 pounds of fresh beef and 141,000,000 pounds of canned beef. Exports of pork and lard in 1918 amounted to 2,279,287,630—which was 73.7 per cent more than the quantity sent abroad in 1917.

The bureau shows that in the aggregate more meat by far is eaten in the United States than in any other country in the world—although some sparsely settled countries raising much meat have a larger per capita consumption. It also says that there is room in the United States for a great expansion in the use of mutton and lamb.

Stomach Trouble
And Dizzy Spells
Have Disappeared

Maine Resident Regains Weight and Strength When He Uses Blood-Building Tonic

Many who suffer from indigestion believe that they have some serious organic disorder. They become melancholy and depressed and worry aggravates their illness.

There is a curious double relation between the blood and the stomach and few people, in treating indigestion, realize the inter-dependence that exists. Rich, red blood is necessary to assist in the digestive processes. If the blood is deficient the digestion suffers. On the other hand the blood is the agent by which nourishment is carried to all parts of the body. If the blood fails to get enough food to distribute, the entire body, especially the nervous system, suffers. It is important in cases of indigestion to build up the blood. The experience of Mr. Joseph Willett, of No. 68 Bangor street, Augusta, Me., should prove of great benefit to others.

"I became badly run down following a severe cold," says Mr. Willett. "My stomach was badly affected and I suffered frequently from severe pains after eating. I had sour stomach at times and dizzy spells. I lost flesh and it seemed as though I didn't have any strength.

"Dr. Williams' Pink Pills were recommended to me and I began the treatment. In two days I felt greatly improved and continued taking the pills until I was restored to health. I'm no longer tired and do not become exhausted easily. My stomach doesn't trouble me and I eat with comfort and enjoyment without fear of after effects. I have regained my strength and the dizzy spells have disappeared. I certainly can recommend Dr. Williams' Pink Pills."

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are a tonic for the blood and nerves. They begin at once to build up the system weakened by excess or overwork. The rich, red blood soon begins to show in cheeks and lips, the step is quicker, the eyes brighter and the good effect is felt in every organ of the body.

Two useful books, "Diseases of the Nervous System" and "What to Eat and How to Eat" will be sent free by the Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Schenectady, N. Y. Your own druggist sells Dr. Williams' Pink Pills or you can order them direct by mail, postpaid, at 50 cents a box, six boxes for $2.50.—Adv.

the Massachusetts Democratic club in honor of his 60th birthday and, in compliance with the demands of a number of those present, finally consented to make a campaign the coming fall for the democratic nomination for governor.

Col. Gaston's decision was greeted with cheers and in the speeches that followed he was promised hearty support by men from all corners of the state.

Col. Gaston was presented a handsome gold-headed cane by the club, the presentation being made by Pres. Francis J. Finerman. Col. Gaston made a feeling response, in the course of which he said he felt it to be his duty to accede to the wishes of such a representative gathering of democrats.

Among those who spoke in favor of Col. Gaston's candidacy were the following representatives in the legislature: Greene of Charlestown, Driscoll of Roxbury, O'Connor of Chicopee, Dowd of Holyoke, Reldy of South Boston, Hearn of East Boston, Brennan of Charlestown, Murphy of Roxbury and Mitchell of Springfield. Others who urged Col. Gaston to make the run were Thomas B. Dwyer of Wakefield and William F. Fitzgerald.

101st ENGINEERS
BROKE RECORD

BOSTON, May 2.—Mrs. Claude P. Gilson, who was assigned to the Massachusetts leave area, Le Mans, as chauffeur for the Spicer unit, has had many interesting experiences since she left Boston last February, in charge of 50 women, to work under the Y.M.C.A.

Mrs. Gilson was in Le Mans when the 101st regiment was there and writes with enthusiasm of the hot built in 32 hours by the 101st Engineers, breaking all records in building huts. The money for this hut was raised in York Harbor, Me., and brought over by Miss Thompson.

Mrs. Gilson wrote that the most popular song in the leave area was "S.O.S." the words of which are like this:

"Twas the awfullest war was ever fought,
We spent our life in some cage.
We fought for women night and day,
And when they ask us, as they certainly are going to ask us,
Just why we didn't get the Cross de Guerre,
We never will tell them—no we never will tell them—
There was a front—but damned if we know where.

Mrs. Gilson left Paris April 8 and is

BUSINESS ALIBIS USELESS

It is said the most foolish waste of time is thinking up alibis for one's personal non-success. In the majority of cases, competency and untiring diligence would be more satisfactory than inventing out a transparent alibi.

If you see a competitor getting away from you—putting himself in a better and more active class—in nine times out of ten you may well conclude that the sole reason is that he, "has it on you" in the arts of salesmanship and advertising.

First, he advertises better than you do, uses better judgment and a better advertising medium. In effect he says to the public, "I have the latest, best and most reasonably priced goods of my line you can find. Visit me and see if this is not so." The result of his ad is persuaded to do it. Your competitor's expert salesmanship finishes what his expert advertising so well began.

There is mostly the entire proposition. Watch him to some extent and don't waste time feeling yourself with self made alibis. Here is a confidential tip: Success is not for the timid. Perhaps your competitor is setting you an example you ought to follow by the spread of his advertising and by exclusively advertising in

Here are twenty-five reasons why the belief is justified that America is bound to have abundant prosperity soon after the peace treaty will have been signed:

1. Foreign demand for our goods greater than we ever had before.

2. We have a merchant marine that we never had before.

3. We have better world wide banking facilities than ever before in our history.

4. We have learned that waste is criminal, which will aid our future prosperity.

5. Our shelves of ordinary requirements are now empty.

6. Our cities require vast building projects.

7. America has lost little man power in the war; Europe has lost much.

8. We will now export manufactured products where in the past we have principally exported raw materials.

9. We have learned to produce at home what we used to import—the money we used to send abroad will in the future stay here.

10. Think of the boom to the textile industry and merchandising industry by more than four million men buying civilian clothes.

11. If we can stand the test of war in prosperity, surely we can stand the test of peace in prosperity.

12. Even the prosperity we have accumulated will make a purchasing power that will keep us generally prosperous for three years.

13. The profits from foreign trade will circulate here in America and bring increased purchasing power, prosperity, to our own people.

14. We may be unprepared for peace, but if we are unprepared for it as we were for war—why, may the Lord help our trade rivals!

15. By our part in this war we have acquired a better good will for foreign trade than we could have gained by fifty years of trading relations—we have been advertised.

16. Our railroads require repairs, replacements and extensions, and which is in itself a very large contribution to our prosperity in purchasing power.

17. Being manufacturers for foreign trade rather than just exporters of raw material, our payrolls will be larger for more purchasing power, prosperity, at home.

18. Most of the world's financing for developments, improvements and restoration must be done here, and it is only natural that the purchases of materials and supplies will be made here.

19. Germany will not be a competitive factor in the future, as in the past, for reasons of prejudice and the fact that her trade attention will be confined to Russia and the Far East for many years to come.

20. We have spread a knowledge of American manufacturing and transportation methods in France, which means that they will want our products and machinery in advertising them.

21. The young men returning from abroad will have better health, demand higher standards of life, and all for their greater productive and purchasing power and to greater general prosperity.

22. We have learned to use the power on the farm within these four years of war, and this will mean a greater innovation and as made to our added future prosperity in the introduction of them into general industry.

23. Our losses and our own more war work than we, with those more than three years of war, they will not be as able to supply world markets as quickly as America, for it will take a longer time for them to get back into industry.

24. We have found in the past four years that we can produce more and better goods, and cheaper, with our well paid labor, than Germany with her low-paid and child labor, for the reason that our labor does more work in a given time.

25. More people in more parts of the world have been made receptive to new ideas and new conveniences of life than ever before, by reason of this war—they have been introduced to artificial ice, sanitary devices, laundry machinery, and everything down to the safety razor—the demand for all of which this nation can supply.

MURDER BY MAIL

The mailing of bombs to some scores of prominent men throughout this country shows that there is much to be done in our own nation to make it safe for democracy.

It appears that the bombs have been directed chiefly to men who, at one time or another, have taken a stand in opposition to the L.W.W. The verdict of public opinion apparently is, that this is a method adopted by the Reds to celebrate the coming of May day. It will be a "red" day in the history of the L.W.W. It is plain that drastic methods must hereafter be adopted to stamp out this anarchistic and treasonable element.

After our soldiers who served during the war will have retaken their places in the industrial activities of the nation, it will be one of their chief duties to cope with this evil that threatens the very foundation of the American republic.

It is certainly a serious situation when public men, including justices of the supreme court, receive through the mails the most dangerous form of infernal machines. Only by more chance has it happened that the danger was made known in time to avert many casualties.

At the present time, the postoffice authorities throughout the country are on the alert to detect anything of this kind, but such deadly packages can be disguised in so many different ways that it is impossible in all cases to detect them.

It is said that part of this demonstration of anarchy is intended as a protest against the action of the courts in the case of Thomas J. Mooney. It is unfortunate for Mooney if any of his friends have adopted this course. It will injure rather than help him. It tends to show that he is one of them, although that assumption may be entirely unjust. Henceforth, the state and federal governments throughout this country will have a duty to perform in stamping out this monstrous evil wherever it lifts its head. The reign of the L.W.W. will hereafter be beset with the utmost vigilance of government officials and the greatest severity that the law will permit in the punishment of the offenders. Deportation should be resorted to whenever the members of this vile breed are found to have come here without any intention of becoming law-abiding citizens.

GOMPERS

It is indeed good news for this country to learn that Samuel L. Gompers, the head of the American Federation of Labor, is recovering from his injuries recently sustained in an automobile accident. There never was a time perhaps in the history of the oldest people now alive, when the services of a man like Gompers were so vitally necessary as at present. No other man in this country can exert such a powerful influence over the forces of labor as can Mr. Gompers. He can also stay the hand of the "Reds" by causing the patriotic and legitimate labor unions to be on their guard against these dangerous elements. Gompers has always pursued a safe and honorable course in reference to socialism and the elements more dangerous. He has fought them at every step during his long career, and has never lost a single battle when they attempted to secure his overthrow. The nation could ill afford to lose a man like Gompers, especially at a time when there is such a feeling of unrest due in part to unemployment throughout the country, but more particularly to revolutionary elements that resort to the use of dynamite and the bomb when they find themselves prevented from openly violating the law.

BELOVED IN LOWELL

Selden has a clergyman passed away who had a higher place in the esteem of the people of Lowell than the late Rev. John M. Greene, D.D., who for many years had been pastor of the Eliot church. Mr. Greene was a man who went about doing good, not in the public eye, but rather hiding his benevolence or passing the credit of it to others with whom he was associated. He was a man of profound learning, sincere piety and the most estimable character. Not once in his long career in Lowell did he ever utter a word of intolerance or sarcasm that would offend the most sensitive nature. His aim was to inspire and uplift by the gentle application of the precepts of religion. He was blessed with length of years, and for some years past he had been a resident of Boston; but his absence only served, if possible, to increase the love and veneration in which he was held by all who had known him during his many years of service in connection with the Eliot church of this city.

Two bandmen of the noted French army band now touring New England, had many temptations to renounce their French citizenship and become Americans. All of these they withstood, so the story goes, until the band played Springfield. It was the last straw and next day the two men in question sought information as to how to become American voters. All in all, the case is not surprising. Springfield is one of the most splendid cities in New England, and its greatest jewel is its civic spirit.

Seldom have the stores of Lowell appeared to better advantage than at the present time, in spite of what may be called the slight business depression owing to the lack of employment. The people of Lowell are well served in the stores, representing every line of business. There is certainly no excuse for persons going out of town for what they want, on the assumption that the Lowell stores cannot supply them with all that even the most highly cultured family may require.

No, no republican senator is expected to say whether the new covenant satisfies him until he has been over to Uncle Henry's house and obtained the Nahant idea of the covenant. Even after that solemn and stirring ceremony, in all cases it is expected that it will be best for Uncle Henry to have the centre of the stage and speak as representing the family!

Will H. Hays, republican national committee chairman, may find it just as hard to get himself elected governor of Indiana, as it will be for him to get his pet candidate elected president of the United States. Those Indiana people may take it into their heads that they want a more competent man than Hays.

Let us all go Maying, not only for the sturdy pleasure of gathering shy and fragrant arbutus, but thrifly also because hatboxes, dowers never before have sold at so high a price.

HOW A YOUNG GIRL SUFFERED

And Was Restored to Health By Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound—Told By Her Mother.

Brooklyn, N. Y.—"I cannot praise Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound enough for what it has done for my daughter. She was 15 years of age, very sickly and pale and she had to stay home from school most of the time. She suffered agonies from backache and dizziness and was without appetite. For three months she was under the doctor's care and got no better, always complaining about her back and side aching so I didn't know what to do. I read in the papers about your wonderful medicine so I made up my mind to try it. She has taken five bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and doesn't complain any more with her back and side aching. She has gained in weight and feels much better. I recommend Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to all mothers and daughters."—Mrs. M. FINORE, 518 Marcy Ave., Brooklyn, N. Y.

For more than 40 years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has been correcting such ailments.

We picked up an old check in Market street the other day. We don't know where it came from. It was drawn on the First National bank of Lowell and was dated November something, 1886. We passed it to a fellow whose name we knew to agree with the name on the check. The check bore the cancellation mark. The fellow we gave it to presented it at a local store and the proprietor cashed it. What do you know about that? The fellow returned to the store and gave the proprietor back the money, some thirty odd dollars. And still we wonder at the great increase of crime.

There's Ever Thus

While a laughless life makes of men a gloomy cuss, a laughed-at wife can kick up an awful fuss.

Mrs. Helen Grace Latour, San Francisco, Cal., uses her husband, Leo M., for divorce, complaining that three months after their wedding he laughed heartily when she slipped on a smooth pavement and fell. Four times he went "Haw-haw" and she was through with him.

One Advantage

In a store hereabouts recently a young lady who wore her skirts very high was on her way out to dinner. She looked out into the street. It was pouring. She turned and said to another girl:

"Look at that rain. It must be up to my knees."

And the other replied:

"Well, anyway, you won't get your skirts wet!"—Salem Evening News.

Hunting for Bumps

The proprietor of a downtown barber shop and several of his assistants are now taking their places as apprentices and is teaching them gradually the art of hair-cutting.

Usually he lets them practice only on baldheaded men. But the other day there was a rush of customers, and one of the new barbers tried his clipper on a gorgeous head of curly hair. The result looked like a relief map of the Grand Canyon.

"No, sir," replied the apprentice. "I'm a phrenologist."—Philadelphia Tm.

Persistence

Wiggins at twenty had planned the future of "Back to the land" and "Surely," said he, "that's the thing! But first—a bit of a fling!"

At thirty, re-stating his stand, he headed straight back to the land. But now—he dabbled and tarried, getting himself rightly married.

At forty, still Wiggins' demand was "Let me back to the land!" But how could a fond father rob his children by quitting his job?

At fifty, with savings in hand, "Now," said he, "back to the land!" On, but the land, newly priced! Little his savings sufficed.

Wiggins at sixty still fancied the promise of "Back to the land." "Last years are best. Don't mistake it. One effort more and I'll make it!"

At seventy—had it fruition!—Wiggins achieves his ambition. Plunk to his six feet of sand. There he is—back to the land! —Edmund Vance Cooke.

Going Fishing

Hey there, Mr. Man, wipe that worried look off your face, stow your troubles in your rear top deck and pull down the top and then go fishing. You've not been fishing for a long, long time now, not since you were a kid and hauled catfish out of the town creek with a home-made hook and line and the jealous glances of all the other fellows. It isn't fair to yourself to mope and brood and fret.

around your office all the time, never getting out into the country where way bills cease from troubling and correspondence is at rest. Come on, old scout! Of course you may not catch any fish, but what's the difference? It's not so much the fish that constitute the fascination of fishing, as it is the loafing around in the midst of nature with never a worry or care. It's the scent of the countryside, the exchange of commonplace with the folks you meet, the smokes and the cats and the forgetting of all the frets and vexations of daily life that make fishing so fascinating. If you do catch something so much the better. You'll know no matter how small it may seem when you land it, it will grow in size as time goes on and you re-tell the story of the day's outing. Come on, you poor, cross, worried, good old scout, you owe it to yourself to get away for a day and get all tuned up again.

THE MAN ABOUT TOWN

I had an interesting talk with a returned Y.D. soldier yesterday who was telling his overseas experiences and he cited as one of the saddest things in his entire military career the finding of the body of a Yankee soldier on the field of battle following a stiff attack by the Germans. The teller of the tale was a member of a searching party sent out to recover such bodies and in the pocket of the uniform of this particular hero there was found a letter written by his mother. From the contents the searchers could make out the fact that the martyr soldier had had a row with his father about enlisting and that he had been practically disowned for enlisting at an unusually early age. In her letter the mother told her son that his father still refused to write to him but that outside his own home she was sure he spoke of his soldier son in glowing terms of pride. She thought if the son wrote a letter to his father maybe he would relax. The searchers wandered just how the father in question would feel when he got the news of his son's death.

Despite the fact that the wearing of the Sam Brown belt by soldiers in this country is forbidden by military authorities, I notice that some are still wearing it. The Sam Brown belt is a leather band worn across the shoulders and is very commonly worn in France, but for certain reasons its wearing here is forbidden.

I remember a short time ago reading about Major General O'Ryan, who, while attending a theatrical performance in New York, saw a number of commissioned officers in the audience, wearing the Sam Brown belt. Between one of the acts he sent his orderly to gather up all the officers wearing the belt and lead them to the theatre lobby. There the major general addressed them and after reminding them of the orders issued by the authorities relative to the wearing of the belt, he ordered the officers to take off the belts and pass them over to him. He told the men they could have their belts by calling at headquarters, providing they would not wear them again in this country.

We had always hoped that the other prominent clocks of the city, such as the one in postoffice tower, would never allow themselves to slip into the slovenly and inaccurate ways of the Middlesex depot timepiece, but sad to relate, for the past several days our postoffice friend has lagged three minutes behind the times, thus causing considerable discomfiture and missed connections. We never expected much from the old depot clock in Central street, for that has had a propensity for variation for years without number, but we did expect better conduct on the part of the federal building dial, and we are grievously disappointed.

Uncle Dudley's sentinel, the meeting place of thousands has come to be considered most reliable (even though its weather predictions are oftentimes erroneous) and the city hall pendulum swings true to form and standard time most admirably. We do not have occasion to "lamp" the court house clock very often, but its deep peeling bell usually seems to correspond with our watch, which, when all is said and done, is just about the last word in correct time hereabouts. Tempus fugit (as we were taught by Miss Cassidy) but it should never lag or limp. That is inexcusable.

Are tenements scarce in Lowell?

Well, rather. Many a returning soldier or sailor who intends to set up housekeeping again finds himself up against a tough proposition, especially if he desires a comfortable place with modern conveniences, and even if he is lucky enough to find a place that will meet with the approval of the lady of the house the rent is almost sure to be set at a practically prohibitive figure. While some landlords are still keeping their rents down at a reasonable rate others are taking advantage of the congested condition of the city and boosting them almost at will. One instance of this which came to my attention today is that of a man who had just jumped the rent of one of his houses $5 a month and told his tenant that from now on he must not use the land for a backyard garden, or the barn for purposes of storage, as he expected to grow a strawberry crop for himself this summer in his tenant's backyard, and also utilize the barn for his own benefit. Can you beat it?

hardships folks in different parts of the city experience with regard to children romping around on and practically destroying lawns and fences of their neighbors. Somehow the children refuse to remain on a sidewalk while there is a nice lawn on which they can saunter. Strictly speaking, the children who romp on neighbors' lawns and terraces are not so much to blame as their parents. Visible evidence to the contrary, it probably is still possible to have children respect the rights of the folks who live next to their home—if parents will give the matter concern enough to make the children behave. This is a time when we are hearing a good deal about the city beautiful, but it is scant encouragement to pay a gardener four or five dollars a day to re-build and sod your lawn, and then have it ruined by the children sons of whom are old enough to know better.

Be sure to ask the druggist for the double strength Othine as this strength is sold under guarantee of money back if it fails to remove freckles.

WILSON PRAISES LABOR PROGRAM

President Calls It One of the Most Important Achievements of the Day

Will Be Inserted in Peace Treaty—Safeguards and Promotes Labor

WASHINGTON, May 2.—President Wilson cabled Secretary Tamm today that in his opinion, the labor program adopted as part of the treaty of peace, "constitutes one of the most important achievements of the new day in which the interests of labor are to be systematically and intelligently safeguarded and promoted."

Mr. Wilson said he personally regarded the labor program as one of the most gratifying achievements of the conference and believed no other single thing that had been done would help stabilize conditions of labor throughout the world, and ultimately "relieve the unhappy conditions which in too many places have prevailed."

The message was made public at the White House as follows: "The labor program which the conference of peace has adopted as a part of the treaty of peace constitutes one of the most important achievements of the new day in which the interests of labor are to be systematically and intelligently safeguarded and promoted. Amidst the multitude of other interests this great step forward is apt to be overlooked and yet no other single thing that has been done will help more to stabilize conditions of labor throughout the world, and ultimately relieve the unhappy conditions which in too many places have prevailed. Personally, I regard this as one of the most gratifying achievements of the conference."

BIG THREE TAKE UP ODDS AND ENDS

PARIS, May 2.—No formal program was announced for today's session of the Council of Three, but it was unofficially stated that the meeting was devoted to odds and ends remaining to be put into shape.

600 FIRED FOR STAYING AWAY

READING, Pa., May 2.—Because they failed to appear for work on May day, after warning had been issued that every man was expected to be on duty, 600 of the 2400 employees of the Carpenter Steel Co. were discharged today. Most of them were chipmunks and wire mill workers.

The men took part in the May day parade, not believing that the management would enforce its order. Today they held another parade.

THAT TRANSLANTIC FLIGHT

ST. JOHN'S, N. F., May 2.—Local weather conditions were not favorable this morning for the start of a transatlantic flight, and the British aviators decided to postpone it until reports were received as to conditions over the ocean. A chill wind from the north with a trace of rain in the air was blowing early today and the usual fog banks drifted up from the sea.

GOOD SPORTSMANSHIP

American Aviators Giving British Birdmen Daily Reports of Weather Forecast

NEW YORK, May 2.—In the interest of good sportsmanship the American naval patrol now forming for the projected transatlantic flight of the giant Navy N. C. planes is giving to the British aviators awaiting a favorable opportunity to "jump off" at St. John's, daily wireless reports of oceanic weather conditions.

Hawker and Raynham complained of delays in receipt of the British weather information and it was decided to give them the benefit of meteorological information picked up by destroyers.

In anticipation of a start early next week, try-outs of the navy hydroplanes were continued at the naval station at Rockaway Point. Protection for the craft was strengthened by posting of an armed guard, in addition to the regular station watch, around the hangars.

BIG GERMAN WARSHIPS

Disposition of Larger Vessels To Be Decided Later by the Allies

PARIS, May 2.—The naval terms to be embodied in the peace treaty with Germany, which finally have been completed, leave the disposition of the larger German warships to be decided later by the allies.

BONDS FOR RELEASE OF HAYWOOD REFUSED

CHICAGO, May 2.—Bonds for the release of William D. Haywood, I.W.W. leader, now in prison at Leavenworth, Kas., were refused in the United States circuit court of appeals here today. The proffered sureties were regarded as insufficient.

The bondsmen who offered themselves were William Brass Lloyd, wealthy socialist and George M. McIntosh. Lloyd was objected to because he already is on the bonds of convicted members of the I.W.W., to the extent of $250,000. The district attorney alleged that McIntosh's record which he attacked rendered him unacceptable.

HERE'S OPPORTUNITY TO GO TO SIBERIA

Anybody here want to go to Siberia? The local army recruiting station is ready to accommodate young men who would like to come in personal contact with Bolsheviks in their native land, and furthermore, said station will pay all transportation and traveling expenses of young men who are judged suitable for the rigors of such an excursion.

Any Lowell man with previous army experience who is physically fit will be accepted for a three-year enlistment in the infantry medical department and sent to Siberia. If he will get in touch at once with Sergt. McLeod at the army station, 117 Merrimack street, upstairs.

DISLOYALTY CHARGES

Two National Non-Partisan League Members Must Stand Trial

ST. PAUL, Minn., May 2.—A. O. Towale, president of the National Non-Partisan League, and Joseph Gilbert, a league organizer, must stand trial in Jackson county on charges of disloyalty, the state supreme court ruled today. The decision of the Jackson county district court overruling demurrers was sustained.

Gilbert is charged with having made public utterances designed to discourage patriotic co-operation in the war, and the indictment holds Towale responsible for a league pamphlet which it is claimed violated the espionage act.

HURLED STONES AT CAR

Lawrence Man Sentenced to Nine Months in House of Correction

LAWRENCE, May 2.—Pasquale di Curo, charged with throwing stones at a street car during last night's rioting, was convicted in court today and sentenced to nine months in the house of correction. He appealed and was held in $500 bonds for the superior court.

ONE-THIRD OF LOAN QUOTA SUBSCRIBED

WASHINGTON, May 2.—With indicated subscriptions of $1,500,000,000, one-third of the Victory loan quota, the country still lagged today behind the record made in the fourth and third loans. Reports showed that the number of individual subscriptions was falling off in several districts, notably Boston.

Cincinnati has reached its allotment, with $200,000 to spare. Honor flags have been awarded to 23 communities in the district. Two hundred and twenty-nine cities in the Boston district have been awarded flags. Six hundred and twenty-four honor flags have been awarded in the Chicago district.

VICTIMS OF RIOT IN HOSPITAL

BOSTON, May 2.—Patrolmen Adolph Buttermann and Arthur Shea, who were shot during the rioting yesterday, were still in the hospital, but physicians said the condition of neither was serious. Buttermann was shot in the left leg and Shea in the right hand. Patrolman Samuel Hutchins was stabbed in the shoulder, and Dr. Harry Leavitt, a bystander, who was shot in the foot, were treated at their homes. Their injuries being minor.

IS UNCONSTITUTIONAL

GREENSBORO, N. C., May 2.—The child labor section of the war revenue bill, placing a prohibitive tax on products of child labor entering interstate commerce, was declared unconstitutional today by Federal Judge James E. Boyd. Last year he declared void the original child labor act, which the United States supreme court annulled by a margin of one vote.

JAIL RIOTERS AT BOSTON

Police Guard Prisoners and Detectives on Alert at Court House

BOSTON, May 2.—Measures were taken by the police today to prevent a recurrence of the rioting in the Roxbury district when more than 100 men and women were arrested in connection with red flag demonstrations. The route over which the prisoners were transferred from the police stations to the court house were carefully guarded in anticipation of possible attempts at rescue. Every person who sought to enter the court house was subjected to the scrutiny of detectives who turned away hundreds. Agents of the department of justice were also active.

One of the prisoners said that he was William Sidis, who while at Harvard university attracted attention as the youngest student to receive a degree. He is the son of Dr. Boris Sidis, a psychopathologist.

Five men had been arraigned, charged with "taking part in an attempt at rioting." Two of the men, Edward J. Dwyer, of Waterdown and Arnold Jackson of Arlington, were found guilty and sentenced to serve two months each in the house of correction. The others were discharged.

John and Charles Buchaw were given sentences of two months each for assault and Alex Berson, a three months' sentence on the same charge. Berson appealed and was held in $500 bonds for the superior court notwithstanding the protest of his attorney that the bail was too high. Ivan Kalinin and Fritz Berkowitz, pleaded not guilty to charges of rioting and were held in $500 bonds each for a hearing May 6. The case against Edward C. Coyle, charged with assault, was held.

THE PEACE CONGRESS

German Delegates Pleased Over First Meeting With Allied Representatives

VERSAILLES, May 2.—(By the Associated Press)—The German delegates to the peace congress today expressed satisfaction that the first meeting yesterday with representatives of the allied and associated powers took the form of a mutual exchange of evidences rather than a one-sided demand for the production of the German papers for purposes of identification. They regarded this as indicating the negotiations are to be conducted on a basis of equality.

A little flurry was caused in both allied and German circles today by a press dispatch reporting that Prince Henry of Prussia was coming to Versailles as a naval delegate. This report was erroneous. It was due to the confusion of the name of a German naval officer, Captain Heinrich, with that of former Emperor William's brother.

1500 FAMILIES PUT OUT

New York Churches Open Doors to Shelter Evicted Families—Many in Court

NEW YORK, May 2.—A deluge of nearly 1500 heads of families fled into New York's municipal courts yesterday to answer "moving day" dispossession notices served on them by unsympathetic landlords.

Lawyers representing the mayor's committee on rent profiteering were present in all the courts to look after the interest of victims of rent "gouging" and because of the inclement weather and the howling scarcity tender-hearted judges granted continuances of from three to 10 days even to persons against whom the landlords appeared to have valid complaints.

The joint centenary committee of the Methodist Episcopal church threw 10 churches open last night as shelters for evicted families, and announced it was prepared to open 40 more if necessary, furnishing temporary homes to 1000 families.

Moving vans reaped more than an ordinary May 1 harvest from families compelled by high rents to move into cheaper quarters.

70 KILLED, 500 INJURED IN EARTHQUAKE

SAN SALVADOR, May 2.—Seventy persons were killed and more than 500 persons were injured as a result of the earthquake of April 28. The damage was extensive in this city, and nearby towns, to which the earth shocks were confined.

SUPERIOR COURT, CIVIL

The case of Cordella Lebreque, admn. vs. Wallace Donham, receiver for the Bay State Street Railway Co., was given to the jury early this afternoon in the superior court (civil session), sitting in Lowell, and at 3:45 o'clock the jury was still out. Mrs. Lebreque is attempting to recover for the death of her husband, Henry Lebreque, which occurred when an automobile in which he was riding collided with a car in Teckbury last October, and was in the sum of $50,000.

EXPLOSION OF BOMB

Municipal Building Wrecked—Prisoners Trapped in Basement Rescued

BROWNSVILLE, Pa., May 2.—An explosion, believed to have been caused by a bomb, wrecked the municipal building and shattered windows for several blocks in the business district here early today. A score of prisoners, trapped in the jail in the basement of the building, a three story brick structure, which collapsed over them, were rescued by firemen. Police and agents of the department of justice said they believed the explosion an anarchist May day plot.

FRENCH STILL LOVE AMERICAN SOLDIERS

WASHINGTON, May 2.—Reports printed in American newspapers to the effect that the war time admiration held by the French people for American soldiers has waned since the armistice, has caused Captain A. Malick, aide to Marshal Joffre, to protest to friends here. So far as the soldiers of France are concerned, Captain Malick writes in a letter to Lieut. Col. A. L. Pendleton of the general staff: "The only difference is that we love you better (than in 1917) because we know you more."

"The original cause of misunderstanding," he adds, "is that Mr. Wilson has too good a heart and thinks that the Germans belong to the human race, whereas they are only a sort of mixture of tiger and snake."

NOTHING DEFINITE ON MEMORIAL DAY

No definite arrangements for Lowell's celebration of Memorial day have yet been made and until committees from each of the three local G.A.R. posts and the Spanish War Veterans meet, there will be no formal program ready.

Committees of six men from each of these organizations are scheduled to meet within a short time, probably next week, to perfect plans for the day. Unofficially, it is known that the usual Memorial day parade will be held by the older veterans, together with the customary visit of graves. The Spanish War Veterans have agreed to see to it that the graves of Lowell men who died in the world war are also decorated and the city council has voted to purchase flag standards for the flags which the Spanish War Veterans will furnish for the burial places of the later heroes.

Just what part the Lowell boys who took part in the world war will play in the day's observance is not yet known. Mayor Perry D. Thompson feels that they have been "fed up" on parading for the present, but he will be guided wholly by public sentiment in the matter.

SUFFERED WITHOUT EXCUSE

Hundreds in Lowell are saying, "I wish I knew what would help me; I wish I could get rid of this pain, or if I was sure Goldine was as good as they say, I would try it. Here is our proof—"

Samuel L. Gorman, 17 Ellis avenue, 57 years old and well known in this city said: "I suffered with rheumatism and kidney trouble six years before I heard of Goldine. I was so bad that I had to get up six or seven times a night. The urine would distress me; my back ached and my ankles would swell. My hands would go to sleep, feet numb and were painful. My shoulders were stiff with rheumatism and it was getting into the joints of my fingers. I tried to stop it with other remedies but Goldine is the only medicine I ever found that would do it. It did its work very quickly. I hadn't taken it a week when the pain was all gone and the swelling began to disappear. My kidneys are a lot better and my back doesn't ache like it did."

"I had been troubled with headaches, shortness of breath and dizziness. I think that came from stomach trouble for I had a great deal of gas after eating and it seemed to crawl in my heart and make it palpitate. I couldn't sleep nights and felt weak and nervous. I took both kinds, No. 1 for stomach, and No. 2 for my rheumatism. They both helped me so much more than I expected that I want people to know about it."

"I had been troubled with headaches, shortness of breath and dizziness. I think that came from stomach trouble for I had a great deal of gas after eating and it seemed to crawl in my heart and make it palpitate. I couldn't sleep nights and felt weak and nervous. I took both kinds, No. 1 for stomach, and No. 2 for my rheumatism. They both helped me so much more than I expected that I want people to know about it."

A small army of service men tried persistently last night to break up a meeting at Madison Square Garden, but were beaten off by 1300 patrolmen mobilized around the building. Scores of men in uniform were beaten with night sticks.

Red plans for the most gruesome May Day tragedy in history miscarried because of the accidental discovery of the bomb plot which had nation-wide ramifications. None of the score or more of internal machines entrusted to the mails has claimed its intended victim.

Explosives experts contend that the bombs were powerful enough to blow a man to pieces, but only one person was being seriously injured by the deadly devices.

MANY INJURED
IN ROXBURY CLASH

BOSTON, May 2.—Two policemen and one civilian were shot and slightly wounded, another policeman was stabbed in the left shoulder, several others were clubbed and stoned and attacked with ice picks, and more than 160 arrests were made during an international labor May Day riot, started through an attempt by the Lethish Workmen's society of Boston to hold a red-flag parade in Roxbury as a climax to a revolutionary mass meeting in the Dudley Street Opera House yesterday afternoon.

For nearly an hour the people in the zone bounded by Dudley, Warren, Munroe streets and Humboldt avenue were terrorized by a running fight between the rioters and policemen.

Bullets Clear Streets
At Humboldt avenue and Munroe street, where the paraders made their last stand, after being partially dispersed at several other points, a fusillade of bullets cleared the thoroughfares of everyone except those directly involved in the fight.

It was here that Policeman Arthur Shea of Station 19 was shot through the index finger of the right hand and Adolf Buttermann of Station 9 was shot in the left leg. Henry J. Leavitt, a dentist, 80 Humboldt avenue, had just left his office when a stray bullet penetrated his right foot. Earlier in the fighting Policeman Samuel Hutchins, Station 3, was stabbed in the shoulder. Nearly half the prisoners were taken to Stations 9 and 10 in a badly mangled condition. Two of them sustained injuries which were treated at the city hospital, where Policemen Shea and Buttermann also had their wounds dressed.

Police reserves from every station in the city were ordered out by Supt. Michael H. Crowley, who also hurried to the scene after a series of appeals for help had been received at headquarters, but before the policemen from the distant stations arrived the parade was broken up and the cramped quarters of the two Roxbury police stations were overcrowded with prisoners.

Nearly half the paraders were women, and during the clash with the police, which first occurred at the corner of Warren and Waverly streets, they fought with such hysterical abandon that when they were bundled into patrol wagons most of them were on the point of complete collapse. One woman was reported to be in such condition that she will shortly need attention of a physician.

Martha B. Foley, 583 West Park street, Dorchester, who was booked at Station 9 on the charge of inciting a riot, is one of the militant suffragists arrested in front of the state house February 5 during President Wilson's visit to Boston.

Huddled together in quarters where there are only three cells the 18 women in custody at Station 9, presented a sorry spectacle last night, but they were in high spirits and responded as well as they could, most of them in broken English, to militant suffragist songs led by Miss Foley.

Among all the prisoners caught in the dragnet thrown out under orders of Capt. Hugh J. Lea of Station 9, only one was found with a revolver in his possession. Another man had an open knife in his pocket. These two will be charged with carrying dangerous weapons. All the other men will be charged with rioting and the women accused of inciting to riot. Bail has been fixed at $1000 each.

Until a late hour last night the streets in the vicinity of Stations 9 and 10 were thronged with excited people, and as blood-stained participants in the riot, most of them decorated with flaming red neckties, were rounded up from hiding places whence they fled after their debacle at Humboldt avenue and Munroe streets, a cordon of policemen had difficulty in controlling the crowds.

Cries of "Kill them! Kill them!" were led by groups of soldiers and sailors, and one thin, little, emaciated prisoner, his shirt front saturated with blood, was nearly felled by a club in the hands of a sailor, as the victim was being half carried up the steps into Station 9 by his captors.

The walls and booking desk at this station were splashed with the blood of several of the prisoners, from whose wounds there was such a flow that Police Surgeon C. T. Hurley was summoned to patch them up. Similar duty was performed at Station 10 by Police Surgeons Edward Powers and Thomas Gavin.

Quincy, Lynn, Chelsea, Cambridge, West Newton, Roxbury, Dorchester, Hyde Park East, Woburn and Jannet Plain men and women were taken into custody by the police. Some of them wore I.W.W. buttons. Nearly all of the men had anarchistic papers and pamphlets in their possession. One of them flourished a copy of "The Rebel Worker," a New York publication, claiming to be an organ of "Revolutionary Unionism," and calling upon the I.W.W. to take possession of the industries of the world.

LEGAL NOTICES
Commonwealth of Massachusetts—Middlesex ss. Probate Court.
To the heirs-at-law, next of kin and all other persons interested in the estate of Chester R. Phelps, late of Lowell, in said County, deceased.

Know all men, that a certain instrument purporting to be the last will and testament of said deceased has been presented to said Court, for Probate, by Virginia M. Phelps, who prays that letters testamentary may be issued to her, the executrix therein named, without giving a surety on her official bond.

You are hereby cited to appear at a Probate Court to be held at Lowell, in said County of Middlesex, on the twentieth day of May, A. D. 1919, at nine o'clock in the forenoon, to show cause, if any you have, why the same should not be granted.

And said petitioner is hereby directed to cause a public notice thereof, by publishing this citation once in each week, for three successive weeks, in The Lowell Sun, a newspaper published in Lowell, the last publication to be one day, at least, before said Court, and by mailing, postpaid, or delivering a copy of this citation to all known persons interested in the estate, seven days at least before said Court.

Witness, Charles J. McIntire, Esquire, First Judge of said Court, this thirteenth day of May, A. D. 1919, at one thousand nine hundred and nineteen.

PLOT AGAINST GOVERNMENT

Red Flag Cannot Continue To Wave on Same Planet With Old Glory

KANSAS CITY, Mo., May 2.—Mayor Ote Hanson of Seattle, to whom was sent the first bomb in the nation-wide plot just discovered, says that the riotous reported in many cities yesterday is evidence of the menace of Bolshevism and I.W.W. principles. In a statement here last night, he urged that mayors call upon the national government for the deportation and punishment of all anarchists. He declared that the "Reds" had a vast organization in every country in the world and that they expected to overthrow all countries, including ours.

"The red flag of anarchy cannot continue to wave on the same planet with our emblem of liberty and freedom."

Make no mistake about that. One or the other must fall. Surely the red flag has no place in our country.

"Then let us suppress it in every part of our land."

"I note that press dispatches state that an I.W.W. national convention is soon to be held. It seems unbelievable that our government will allow this outlaw organization to assemble en masse and plot its destruction at such a time as this. However, as mayors we have our sworn duty to perform and we must be true to our citizenship."

"Therefore, I request all mayors in this great land of ours to close all I.W.W. halls, throw the teachers of force and violence into jail, demand of the national authorities the deportation and punishment of all anarchists and the suppression of the red flags wherever and whenever it is found."

"If this brand of Americanism does not suit some people, let them go back to the country from which they came. We don't want them in the United States."

English Co. Preparing To Put Machine on Market To Retail For $250

LONDON, April 21. (Correspondence of the Associated Press.)—An English manufacturing company announces that it is preparing to put on the market an automobile that can be retailed for $250, certainly for not more than $500.

Scarcely any wood will be used in the construction of the car, the principal material being a new substance which is described as "a kind of concrete, light, but strong and durable, produced from waste material such as slag, clinkers and sawdust, and covered with a metal solution."

The process of manufacture is another innovation in England. All parts, including wheels and chassis, will be stamped out, each complete in one piece and then fitted together.

MATRIMONIAL

Mr. Charles Seward Proctor and Miss Violet Stocks were married last evening at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Stocks, 141 Parkview avenue, the ceremony being performed by Rev. A. C. Archibald of the First Baptist church. The best man was a son of the bridegroom, Mr. Horace S. Proctor, while the bridesmaid was Miss Esther Harriet Stocks, a sister of the bride. The couple will make their home at 187 Hovey street.

St. Arnaud—Nelson
Mr. Ernest St. Arnaud and Miss Ida Nelson were married yesterday, the ceremony being performed at St. Joseph's rectory by a cousin of the bridegroom, Rev. Rosario Jalbert, O.M. I. The witnesses were Messrs. Emile St. Arnaud and Charles Lambert. At the close of the ceremony a wedding dinner was served at the home of the bridegroom's parents and later the happy couple left on an extended wedding tour.

McDermott—McGown
Mr. Walter Bryon McDermott and Miss Edith Violet McGown, both of Pittsburg, were married yesterday by Rev. Daniel J. Hatfield, pastor of the Immanuel Baptist church, the ceremony being performed at the home of the clergyman, 357 Westford street. The couple were unattended.

PRESENT TERMS ON WEDNESDAY

Section of Treaty Dealing With Alsace and Lorraine Adopted

Luxemburg Completely Severed From Germany, Paris Paper Reports

PARIS, May 3.—(Havas)—The presentation of the peace terms to the Germans will not take place before next Wednesday, according to the present indications, this morning's Paris newspapers say. Important progress has been made, however, in solving problems remaining before the final shaping of the treaty.

The Bocho de Paris says that the council of three yesterday adopted the section of the treaty dealing with Alsace and Lorraine which are given to France, the ownership of the railways included.

The council also fixed the status of Luxemburg, this newspaper adds, completely severing the Grand Duchy from Germany.

Now that the peace terms are to be handed over to the Germans, the newspapers point out that the summoning of the Austro-Hungarian delegates seems probable and they voice the expectation that an invitation of an amicable sort will be sent to Italy, requesting the presence of her delegates.

ANOTHER LOWELL MAN CITED FOR BRAVERY

Another Lowell man has been cited for bravery on the field of battle, Sergt. Paul J. Hartley, attached to Co. M, 325th Infantry, 82d Division, proved himself one of Lowell's galaxy of heroes last October, reorganizing the broken units of his company when its officers had been killed or wounded and led them forward under heavy fire. Information to this effect has been received by Sergt. Hartley's relatives at 15 Floyd street. The official citation reads as follows:

"Sergt. Paul J. Hartley, Co. M, 325th Infantry, 82d Division, For conspicuous bravery near St. Javlin, France, during October, 1918. He reorganized broken units of his company under heavy fire, gaining the objective. The total disregard of personal safety in the performance of his duty calls for the highest praise."

W. M. WHITMAN, Colonel, 325th Infantry.

"March 15, 1919."

The 82d Division to which Sergt. Hartley belongs was trained at Camp Gordon, Ga., and contains the names of many Lowell boys who undoubtedly did their share in the wonderful work credited to the division.

EXTRA SESSION ABOUT JUNE 1

Intimation That President Wilson Will Issue Call For Special Session

Confidential Despatch Received in Washington From Paris

WASHINGTON, May 3.—Intimation that a special session of congress will be called by President Wilson to meet about June 1 is contained in confidential despatches received in Washington today from Paris.

It was said in administration circles that if the situation in Paris should develop rapidly, the special session might even meet before June 1. In that case the call would be made by cable.

It was made clear in today's despatches that the president was confident it would be possible for him to return to the United States before the end of this month.

B. & M. RAILROAD CASE

Appeal of Minority Stockholders Before Supreme Court Justice Loring

BOSTON, May 3.—An appeal through a bill in equity brought by members of the Boston & Maine railroad minority stockholders' protective committee from the recent order of the Massachusetts public service commission, approving the proposed railroad reorganization plan was before Supreme Court Justice Loring today. The court issued an order of notice returnable June 2. It was stated that a hearing might be held before that date in order that a decision of the full bench could be had as early as possible.

The bill brought by Edward F. Brown of Ipswich and other members of the association is directed against the Boston & Maine railroad and the public service commission. It points out that on Nov. 28, 1918, "the presidents and certain directors of the Boston & Maine, Pittsburg, Boston & Lowell, Concord & Montreal, Connecticut River, Lowell & Andover, Manchester & Lawrence, and Kennebec & Kennebecport railroads entered into an agreement known as the 'Boston & Maine railroad system consolidation agreement' which was designed to take care of floating indebtedness." The plaintiffs claim that $13,306,000 in outstanding notes for the payment of which the public service commission in March authorized the Boston & Maine to issue bonds, was not a debt incurred for lawful purposes, but that the money was used to acquire stock of other corporations.

NOVEL PARADE IN NEW YORK

"Panorama of Victory" Staged by Army in the Interest of Victory Loan

Vivid Picture of Marvels of Mighty American Army Thrills Thousands

NEW YORK, May 3.—One of the most novel and spectacular parades ever held on Fifth avenue, a "panorama of victory," staged by the army in the interest of the Victory loan, thrilled thousands here today.

For more than four hours, over five miles of march, there was unfolded an ever-changing, vivid picture of the marvels of the mighty army America raised to help vanquish Germany. Every branch of the military service from the front line fighters to the organizations that looked after health, food, weapons, transportation and hundreds of other necessary lines of endeavor, were represented.

RESUMPTION OF

RACING IN PARIS

PARIS, Friday, May 3.—(By the Associated Press)—The resumption of racing on the French tracks after nearly five years of interruption is helping Paris to realize that the fighting is at an end. The racing season will open Monday at Maisons-Laffitte and the bookmakers already are busy.

The French government hesitated before authorizing the track owners to resume business. Premier Clemenceau displayed the utmost indifference, but Victor Forêt, the minister of agriculture, championing the cause of the breeders, finally prevailed upon the premier to permit the races.

Fashionable dressmakers have been busy during the last few weeks preparing gowns and the display at Maisons-Laffitte on Monday, weather permitting, is expected to surpass many of the famous displays seen before the war.

LOCAL VICTORY LOAN DRIVE

Lowell Has Long Road To Travel if Quota Is To Be Obtained

Banks Report Slow Buying Today, With Two Millions More Needed

With approximately 3000 subscribers, representing bond purchases through the banks amounting to $3,320,250 Lowell stood this noon nearly two million dollars away from her total of $5,275,000. No large subscriptions were reported this forenoon, although the Washington Savings Institution last night added $25,000 to its original purchase.

Lowell, with one more week to do it in, has a long road to travel if the city's quota is to be reached. It is never for a moment imagined that Lowell will not subscribe its full amount, but where will the money come from? From you, and you, and you, pointing and picking at random among the city's population. Individual subscribers have got to carry the city over the top. The banks have gone the limit in almost every instance and there remain only one or two industries which have not yet purchased, therefore, the remaining two million or less must come from the body politic, which so far has made only a drop in the bucket.

The splendid feature demonstration of yesterday seemed to give a new significance to the loan issue and it is confidently believed that this awakening will result in more prolific purchasing next week. The meeting of the canvassing committees next Wednesday night will just about tell the story of whether or not the city will have to resort to a last ditch, back-to-the-wall fight to put Lowell in the honor list she so patriotically graced in the four previous drives. During the first four drives there were men in this country who had to be sent to France, how there are men in Germany who have not to be brought home. They advanced from France to Germany, will we advance the money necessary to bring them back again?

The local branch of the National Biscuit Co. has received notice from the general office that the company's subscription to the loan will be divided among the cities and towns where it maintains manufacturing or distributing branches, and Lowell as one gets $100 worth, taken through the Union National bank. The sales of the Union bank this forenoon amounted to about $25,000; the Old Lowell sold $5000 worth and the Lowell Trust Co. $3000.

MUST UNCOVER $84,000

Prohibition Not a Joke, Dry or Otherwise, For the Local Assessors

It is up to the ingenuity and resourcefulness of the board of assessors to make up some $84,000 that the city of Lowell is due to lose this year if the war prohibition measure goes into effect July 1 as now scheduled.

A shrinkage of this amount is staring the city fathers in the face as a result of the law passed by congress, which says that prohibition will go into effect in July to continue until the armed forces of the country are demobilized. If there is prohibition there will be no saloons and if there are no saloons there will be no license fees to collect. The result will be that the city treasury will find itself in a hole, said hole estimated at $84,000.

The assessors are now engaged in the task of trying to find other means of bringing in this lost revenue, and their work is laid out for them. "Uncover your property" is the way the city hall sharks glibly rattle off the solution of financial difficulties, but this year there is very little of such an animal. Lowellites confined themselves mainly to the construction of garages last year for two reasons—automobiles and lack of building material.
